"I TOLD YOU SO!"

The fight is over, and "I told you so" is now in order. But the man who says "I told you so" is not likely to believe himself. The Republicans all "knew" that Mr. Furness would be elected, and the Democrats "knew" Mr. Chamberlain would have a landslide.

But of all places, this was proved in Clatsop County. Mr. Williamson, the supposed enemy of the fishermen of this county, received their undivided support, and Mr. Fulton, who has been by their side for years and fought their battles, and done more for them than any public man living, ran behind Mr. Williamson in the fishing precincts.

No one can understand the freaks of politics and the ways of the voter. Every one is glad that the election is over, and whatever the results may be every one should be satisfied. In this country the majority rules and the majority should be right.

Let politics be dropped now and Clatsop's voters turn their enthusiasm to the betterment of Clatsop county. Here's loyalty to the new governor of Oregon!

Peace has at last come to the Boers. They have fought a brave fight and deserved better terms than they were given, but it was doubtless best to accept the terms as they did. They have convinced England and the world of their courage and will always retain the respect of all civilized nations for their gallant and heroic stand for their rights.

When a fight is over, whether nations, armies, individuals or politics are involved it is well to drop it. Nothing is gained by probing an old sore. Those who crow the loudest and keep up the strife are generally those who amounted to the least when the real battle was on.

Today will be the reckoning day among those who backed their judgment by wagers. There will be the turning over of money, hats, cigars and many other things, besides some big

"You Are So Slow." Advertisement for Dr. King's Kidney Cure featuring an illustration of a woman and a child.

If the woman at work should make answer to the other woman, she might, perhaps, say: "You never had to scrub and clean when your back ached so that it seemed that every movement would break it in two." It's had enough for a woman to suffer. But when she must suffer and slave at the same time she reaches the limit of her endurance.

Weak women who have been made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, recommend it to others as a godsend. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I have been ailing some time now, being troubled with female weakness," writes Mrs. Wm. H. Johnson, of Avondale, Chester Co., Pa. "Every month I would have to lie on my back. I tried many different medicines and nothing gave me relief until I began Dr. Pierce's medicine, using two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have cured me. When I began your treatment I was not able to do very much, but now I do the work for my family of nine, and feel better to-day than I have for a year."

dinners will be settled for by numerous gentlemen who did not guess right.

The latest freak in jurisprudence was the sentencing of a woman in the East to imprisonment for firing over a telephone. If this was a universal law and was universally enforced a large portion of the population of the country would be in prison.

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received by the county court of Clatsop County, Oregon, until Thursday, June 3, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the construction of an 80-foot span bridge, 12 feet wide, across the Necanicum river in section 24, Twp. 2 N., R. 10 west, in Clatsop County, Oregon. Said bridge to be constructed on a site about one mile east of Carl Johnson's place, where the county road from Seaside crosses the said Necanicum river.

Bidders will present plans and specifications for said work, together with a certified check for 10 per cent of the amount of their bids, or a good and sufficient bond, as a guarantee that they will construct the said bridge provided they are awarded the contract.

The court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the County Court, H. J. WHERITY, County Clerk.

WAS WASTING AWAY.
