TWO CLASSES OF HEROES.

Astoria is having visitors this week. She has had with her for three days and nights the grave old veterans who are about to pass off of the stage. It has been a long drama and they have played their parts well. It had many parts. All of the emotions have been produced. The tragedy has been enacted by them, such as can never be reproduced on any stage; then there has been the romantic side, and the humor and comedy. The villain has played his part, also. But the heroic side has been well played. We had these with us yesterday; they have survived many of their hero-comrades, but they must soon join them. We call them grave. They represent the aged citizenship of the country. If there is any thing sacred in mortality. To them we raise our hats, not because they are personally better than other human beings, but they represent the principle that every American citizen loves—liberty and freedom; they were put under the crucial test and did not flinch. In the hour of the country's peril they responded, and stayed, until the country was relieved. This is why we honor them personally, and collectively, we honor them as the emblem of bravery and self sacrifice.

Members of the Citizens' campaign committee and prominent supporters of that cause in the late "unpleasantness" state that there was no foundation for the statement that there would be a contest of the election, and that it must have originated in the minds of those who talk to get noticed. This is well. The election is over. The good citizens on both sides are glad of it. The Astorian is glad to let it drop, and would have never mentioned the matter again had it not been that the irresponsible under such continued energy stirred up the question.

Astoria did herself proud with the old veterans. They all returned to their homes happy, with a good word for Astoria and Astorians. It was time and money worthily and well spent in entertaining them. May all of them live to celebrate many more re-unions.

And now comes the commercial man. SHATTERS ALL RECORDS. Twice in hospital, P. A. Gallego, Verbena, Ala., paid a vast sum to doctors to cure a severe case of piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve soon cured him. Subdues inflammation, conquers Aches, kills Pain. Best salve in the world. 25c at Chas. Rogers' drug store.

Strong Again.

The woman who knows the full value of health is the woman who has lost it and regained it; the woman who from being weak and sickly is once again made a strong woman. Half a million weak and sickly women have been made strong and well by the aid of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." It cures the ills which weaken women. It regulates the periods, dries enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It nourishes the nerves and so cures nervousness. It promotes a healthy appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Jones, of 225 East College Street, Jackson, Miss. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I would not leave my bed. The medical profession and friends urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed sixty-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pain, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

Use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with "Favorite Prescription" if the bowels are inactive or irregular.

men cause the drama, comedies and tragedies in their line. Astoria will have with her today in fair representation of the commercial interests of the United States. It might as well be said the world, for she controls the world's trade, or soon will do so. The commercial men, the travelling men, the "drummers," will be here from every point in the Union. They will be here from the country lying between the Gulf of Mexico and the Northern boundary of the United States and from every point between the Atlantic and Pacific. Every commercial institution in the country that has men on the road will be represented. Astoria has arranged to entertain them for two hours. They are busy men, and they cannot remain longer. But during that time they will be entertained in proper form. Astoria will not suffer in her reputation for hospitality in this case.

It is well. It is great for Astoria. She has something to show these men. They are quick but close observers. They have a retentive memory. They have tongues. They talk. If a thing pleases them they tell the truth; drummers always tell the truth anyway—except when they mean it as a joke, and their jokes are so good that the most obtuse always knows when it is a joke. When they have seen Astoria and have partaken of her hospitality they will remember it. They will tell it from ocean to ocean—from Maine to California. The world will know more about the great things of Astoria in the next 60 days than it has learned in the past quarter of a century. Let Astoria spread herself. Let her treat the T. P. A.'s royally, which she is certain to do, and it is like bread cast upon the waters. It will return. We have had the heroes of war and today we will have the heroes of commerce.

Gentlemen of the T. P. A., you are welcome for two hours and you may stay if you wish.

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking for being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure.—For sale by Frank Hart.

There are so many more mean men than good ones that the latter are always under suspicion.

TEN YEARS IN BED. R. A. Gray, J. P. Oakville, Ind., writes: "For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a godsend to me." Sold by Frank Hart.

A fine bible on the parlor table does not keep the devil from entering the home.

WAS WASTING AWAY. The following letter from Robert R. Wain of Salem, Mo., is instructive: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold by Frank Hart.

Some people regard a secret as they would a pound of candy—too good to keep.

No good health unless the kidneys are sound. Foley's Honey and Tar makes the kidneys right.—For sale by Frank Hart.

NOTICE FOR BIDS. Bids will be received by the county court of Clatsop County, Oregon, until Thursday, June 6, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the construction of an 80-foot span bridge, 12 feet wide, across the Necanicum river in section 24, Twp. 1 N., R. 10 west, in Clatsop County Oregon. Said bridge to be constructed on a site about one mile east of Carl Johnson's place, where the county road from Seaside crosses the said Necanicum river. Bidders will present plans and specifications for said work, together with a certified check for 10 per cent of the amount of their bids, or a good and sufficient bond, as a guarantee that they will construct the said bridge provided they are awarded the contract. The court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By order of the County Court, H. J. WHEATLEY, County Clerk.
