SCHOOL NOTES.

No assignments have yet been made by the school board, but the following teachers have been re-elected to serve during the next school year:

- A. L. Clark, Miss Dora Baddolet, Mrs. Carrie Krager, Miss May Utzinger, Mrs. Josie McCormack, Miss Elizabeth McCann, Miss Ethel Blinn, Miss Annie Olsen, Mrs. A. L. Fulton, Miss May Morgan, Miss Lillian Lewis, Miss Maud Stockton, A. A. Cleveland, Jr., Miss Mary Garner, Miss Mary Dealey, Miss Katherine Sinnott, Miss Mary Fossett, Mrs. Jennie Busey, J. C. McCue, Mrs. E. Lemon, Miss Maud Hayes, Miss Emma Ausmus, Miss Helen Dickinson, Nell Stupp and Miss Anna O'Neil. Two vacancies are to be supplied for the high school by the resignations of Miss Emma Warren and G. A. Wardfield.

P. O. Wage, while coming in from Nehalem Sunday had an accident in which one of his horses was involved and lost its life. The horse which was hitched with another horse to a two-horse wagon, got down in the mud at a bad place in the road and in a struggle to regain its feet it injured itself internally and Mr. Wage was compelled to kill it.

Increasing popularity has necessitated the adding of another chair in the Palace Barber shop. With five first-class artists, the most comfortable chairs money could buy, the handsomest furniture and largest mirrors in the city, improved sanitary precautions with all customers, and the cleanest baths on the coast, this institution may be said to be somewhat in advance of most up-to-date business houses.

Charity lodge, No. 12, Degree of Honor, elected the following officers last Saturday evening: Mrs. Fred Wright, past chief of honor; Sarah Wise, chief of honor; Laura Johnson, lady of honor; Anna Bayard, chief of ceremonies; C. H. Stockton, recorder; Mrs. John Mattison, receiver; Kate Darragh, usher; Anna Stinson, inside watch; Mrs. Geo. Morton, Mrs. John Mattison, delegates to grand lodge.

As an illustration that constant droppers of water wear away the rock, conductors on street cars are compelled to have their pockets lined with leather, and then the leather frequently wears out before the cloth. The number of times a day in which they are compelled to place their hands in their pockets for change soon tells on the pockets, and a pocket of the ordinary kind wears out before the remainder of the suit is even soiled.

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting last night regular routine business was transacted and only a few matters of importance came before the body. The regular meeting of the Board of Trade will take place in Portland, June 17, and Vice-President Welch will represent the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting. Progress was reported in the work of the publication of the new illustrated book advertising the resources of Astoria and Clatsop County.

Small children kindled a fire under the saloon of Harry Jones in East Astoria yesterday, and had it not been for the prompt action of the foreman of Kopp's brewery, who happened to see the smoke coming from under the building a serious fire would have resulted. The fire was immediately extinguished. The children were very small and did not realize what they were doing. They found a small pile of straw under the building and thought it would be fun to see it burn.

Seaside lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., elected the following officers last Saturday night: P. Shea, master; Workman; Nick Bazler, foreman; A. L. Clark, overseer; F. D. Winton, recorder; A. T. Stewart, guide; O. F. Morton, inside watch; George McField, outside watch; George Katoen librarian; Drs. Estes, Tully, Ordiner and Pilkington, medical examiners; Thos. Dealey, J. A. Montgomery, Wm. Kelly, Chas. H. Stockton, A. L. Clark and Nat Jones, delegates to grand lodge.

A collision occurred between two street cars at Emberg station in East Astoria yesterday morning, doing no farther damage than to smash some glass in the vestibule of a car and cause a slight cut to the nose of one of the motormen, from flying glass. The car for town, Sanders motorman, while going down the grade got beyond the control of the motorman on account of the break falling to work and it ran down with great force into the car in charge of Smart. A little alarm and the slight damage mentioned was all that resulted. There was no delay in the service.

An interesting story is told of how some East Astoria boys captured and killed a bear last Sunday. Bear have been frequently caught in the extreme eastern portion of Astoria and are frequently seen just outside of the inhabited portion. They came down from the foothills and search the creek for fish. The boys had seen "signs" and put out a bait for Mr. Bruin. Sunday morning they found a young cub securely caught in their trap, and then came the fun of dispatching him. After having all of the fun they desired with the young bear in captivity one of them placed a rifle to his shoulder and put hit bear out of its trouble. Neither of the boys was over 14 years old, and they regarded their bear catch as a great one.

Council Meeting. An adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, at which all the members were present except P. A. Trullinger. But little, other than routine, business was on hand for consideration. Applications for licenses were received from John Harry, Swan Wilson, Loughery & Martin and Henry Dime. A liquor license was granted to Manson & Tyberg. An ordinance, introduced by J. V. Buras, was passed under suspension of the rules, empowering the committee on health and police to advertise for bids for enclosing and preparing for use the lot selected for a public dumping ground, after the city surveyor has made an estimate on the same, the expense not to be more than $100.

An ordinance was introduced by A. Brix for the payment to the county the sum of $1145.25, as per agreement, for placing crushed rock on the county road leading from south end of Fifteenth street to Williamsport.

A resolution, proposed by John Nordstrom, was adopted, for the improvement of Fifteenth street from Commercial to Exchange. The committee on streets agreed to report favorably, at the next meeting a resolution for the improvement of Commercial street from Sixth to Third. Considerable discussion was had on the necessity for providing water for the city cemetery on the west side, which ended by instructing the committee on public property to confer with the A. & C. R. R. Co. as to the probability of a spur being constructed from the main track to the cemetery, before authorizing any more expenditure of money for the cemetery.

Bills were ordered paid as follows: John Wirt, $110; Charles Johnson, $16.70; J. F. Welch, $1; Ford & Stokes Company, $110; Olaf Peterson, $2.50; Astoria Woodyard Company, $4.50; St. Mary's Hospital, $100; Pay-roll of superintendent of streets, $123.75; Pay-roll of city surveyor, $53.50.

After informal discussion as to the disposition of discarded fire horses, which called out considerable sentiment in favor of taking good care of them until they should die natural deaths, council adjourned.

FISHERMAN AND SEA LION. Combat in which the Fisherman Got the Worst of It, but He Is Willing to Try Him Again.

A dispatch from San Francisco tells of the fearful fight between a fisherman and a sea lion, as follows: Harry Thronsen, a fisherman residing at Fourth and Jones streets, West Berkeley, had an exciting encounter with a sea lion while sailing on the bay. The young man was dragging a net from the boat when the brute appeared alongside the boat and shoved fight.

"I had been fishing the entire day," said Thronsen, "and when I was about to drag my net I noticed a disturbance in the water. I soon realized that I was about to be attacked and I prepared to fight.

"As the sea lion appeared I struck him. I then lost sight of him, but in a few minutes he put in another appearance. As he showed his head I threw a bolt and he sank beneath the surface only to rise under by boat and capsize it.

"I got into the boat again in a hurry, and as I did so he attacked me again. I fought him and he finally disappeared. I then lost my senses. Thronsen was injured about the body in the encounter, but claims that he will go out again and make an attempt to land the monster.

NEWS FROM ALASKA.

Report of Safe Arrival of Well-Known Vessels From This Port.

A letter was received yesterday by John Nordstrom, of this city, secretary of the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Co., from P. A. Berglund, of Nushagak, Alaska, giving valuable information about well known vessels which sailed from this city and which have arrived at that point. It will be remembered that the bark Harry Morse sailed from this point April 13, and that J. J. Reynolds was her captain; the North Star, C. S. Crim, captain, sailed April 21. Following are extracts from the letter:

"Steamer North Star arrived at Nushagak May 10, after a very nice trip. Bark Harry Morse is outside. I expect to get her in tomorrow. Mr. J. A. Carlson and four men came in in a fishing boat this morning and reported her outside. We had been outside four days looking for ships and found the ships Sterling, Guy C., Goose and St. Nicholas. The ship Sargent arrived here May 12, after 35 days voyage. Everybody reported well and best regards to all. Time is short and lots of work. Yours, very truly,

"P. A. BERGLUND."

AMUSEMENTS.

Lowe's Madison Square Theater Co. opened for a week's engagement at the Fisher opera house last night, to a packed house. Standing room was at a premium. The play was a sensational comedy drama, entitled "A Mountain Wolf." The company is a most capable one and gave an excellent performance in every detail. Miss Mildred Eddy and the comedian, George Florer, as "Jerry," took the house by storm. Tonight the same company will produce that great Irish comedy-drama entitled "Kathleen Mavourneen." The prices—10c, 20c, 30c.

A NOISELESS TYPEWRITER.

Scientists claim that the exercise necessary to operate an ordinary typewriter to gether with its noise, tend to injure the health and cause nervousness. A German inventor has therefore perfected a machine which is operated by air pressure on the keyboard, and does away with the noise and much of the labor. Its adoption may be one way of preserving health and preventing nervousness, but there is a better and less expensive way, and that is by using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. All people of sedentary occupation need this wonderful medicine to aid digestion and to keep the bowels regular. It will also cure dyspepsia, biliousness, insomnia and nervousness. Don't be deceived into taking something "just as good." There is no medicine equal to the Bitters.

SUITS OUR CLIMATE.

The rapidly increasing use of shingles as covering for the walls of buildings, both to keep out the weather and for ornamental purposes, makes a great demand for a shingle stain which preserves the wood, prevents moss, and retains a fresh, handsome appearance. Particularly is such the case in damp climates. The need is well met in a perfect article made right here in Astoria. Cutbirth's Creosote Shingle Stains are penetrative, preservative, handsome and durable. They are put up in eight colors and every package guaranteed.
