CHAMBERLAIN'S ELECTION.

The most doubting of all of the Chamberlain is elected. While he is elected by less than 200 magirity, still he is doubtless elected. His election is a strong illustration of the demasomeon of politics. If there is a wide difference in a man's "outsnok to" and after election. If there is any time that men feel justified in "hisoing," that is, lying straight out, it is Chamberlain followers suit Formule was a nondescript, an idjot, a school boy, a mili-scone about the Republican party's neck.
