

SEE HERE

We are equipped to fill orders for groceries, fresh meats of all kinds, and vegetables and fruits in season. Free and prompt delivery service to any part of the city.

Ross, Higgins & Co.

The Morning Astorian

TELEPHONE 401.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

PORTLAND, June 14.—Oregon and Washington, fair, warmer, except near the coast. Idaho, fair and warmer.

Gaston sells feed, grain and hay. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jorgensen became the parents of a baby girl last night.

John Carlson, of Crooked Creek, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Hattie Hafter, of Salem, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Althouse, of this city.

Misses Lola and Martha Ford are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Agnus Cor, of Portland.

Wanted—Man to take charge of yard and also one rip saw man.—Universal Sash & Door Co.

The Menckley Quartette will give an entertainment at Seaside, Wednesday evening, the 18th inst.

You will find the best 15c meal in the city at the Rising Sun Restaurant, No. 612 Commercial street.

Don't forget today that the New Style Chop House is the place to get the best Sunday dinner in the city.

According to the Cathlamet Sun the society folks of that city spend these beautiful evenings gillnet fishing.

Barkentine Quickstep will load at Westport with telegraph poles and lumber for San Francisco at once.

New stock of fancy goods just arrived at Yokohama Bazaar. Call and see the latest novelties from Japan.

Misses Clara and Wilma Young will leave tomorrow morning for a visit among relatives in British Columbia.

Send in your order for your winter's supply of fir, slab or hard wood to Kelly, the transfer man. Phone 2111 black.

All smokers smoke the "Pride of Astoria" cigars. No better made. Manufactured by MacFarlane & Knobel.

The passenger steamer Sue H. Elmore will leave Astoria for Tillamook Bay points on Sunday, June 15, at 12 o'clock.

Miss Lotia Naassa and Miss Kent, and Mrs. Cox and daughter, all of Cathlamet, were in Astoria shopping yesterday.

You can buy Newbro's Herpicide, the great dandruff cure, for 75 cents per bottle at the Occident Barber Shop.

John Hahn was appointed administrator of the estate of John D. Meinen yesterday, the estate being valued at $750.

A competent girl wanted for general housework. Apply corner Eighth and Franklin streets. Good wages for good work.

Wanted—A girl for general housework and plain cooking. Apply at the Kendall residence, corner Third and Exchange.

Oysters are now in excellent condition as to fatness and flavor. Properly served they form an exceedingly healthy and appetizing food. The freshest and best oysters are most skillfully prepared at the Toke Point Oyster House on Eleventh street.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.

Schooner Alcalde, of San Francisco, which is on her fourth trip, will load lumber at the Northern Pacific mills, Portland. The owners of this vessel contemplate putting on a large number of vessels on this run before another season.

Mr. W. W. Whipple, who has been looking after his business interests here will leave for his saw mill at Bucoda, Washington, today.

Try a pound of our Perfection Blend Mocha and Java coffee and if it does not please you your money will be refunded by us.—JOHNSON BROS.

Mrs. Frankie Brink left last evening for her home in San Francisco, after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holden.

Best, cheapest and latest fireworks to be found in the city, at Jesse Pong & Co. 420 Commercial street. Come early and pick out what you want.

If today is a pretty day a large number of bicyclists will go to Seaside. Frank Parker and George Olier are among the promoters of the outing.

Women of Woodcraft will come down in full force today, from Portland, and spend a few hours at Seaside. An excursion will be run by the A. & C. R. R.

The Universal Sash & Door Factory expects to begin running by the middle of the week at least. It may turn on the machinery as early as next Tuesday.

John A. Montgomery, at No. 45 Bond street, does all kinds of tinning, plumbing, gas and steam fitting promptly and skillfully and at very moderate prices.

The Metropolitan Cafe opened for business yesterday at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial streets. It is one of the "swellest" places of the kind in the city.

Roslyn coal lasts longer, is cleaner and makes less trouble with stoves and chimney flues than any other coal on the market. George W. Sanborn, agent. Telephone 1311.

Yesterday was one of the busiest days of the season in Astoria. There were visitors here from everywhere, and all were buying summer supplies from Astoria merchants.

A cartload of cheap and medium priced bedroom suites just received. We offer them at reduced prices for this week only. Call and examine.—CHAR. HEILBORN & SON.

Joe Heckard, John Teith and L. E. Wilson, were here from Lewis and Clark yesterday patronizing Astoria merchants. They report activity on the Lewis and Clark generally.

Don't forget to vote early and often tomorrow and continue voting until the "Goddess of Liberty" is elected. There will be several candidates in the field, and they have a host of friends.

A large line of hair brushes, all shades, colors and prices. Possibly the largest assortment in the city. Lowest prices sufficiently large from which to make a satisfactory selection. Rogers, druggist.