Take Point, which are Eastern oysters developed in Shoalwater bay, are unlike all others—good at any season of the year. They are fat and delicious. Craw-fish are now just in season and are excellent eating, as are crabs and all the other numerous delicacies served so skillfully at the Take Point oyster house on Eleventh street.

The Astoria baseball team, at a meeting held last night, elected Chas. Abercrombie as manager. The team is now making arrangements for its visit to South Bend on July 4. It will leave Astoria on the Potter on the night of July 3 and return on that steamer the following night. It is expected 20 or 40 enthusiasts will accompany the team.

There was little change in the run of salmon yesterday, although some of the gillnetters brought in fairly large catches. There is an increase in the number of big fish, doubtless the advance guard of the July run. Reports from up-river points are to the effect that the gillnetters are doing better than heretofore, but that the seiners are still unable to successfully operate.

The first trip of the O. R. & N. Co.'s palatial steamer Potter was made from Portland through to Ilwaco last night. The Potter arrived down shortly after 6 o'clock and stopped only for about five minutes to take on passengers from this city. She had a big crowd, the first of the year to go to Long Beach. Indications are that this year's summer rush will be the greatest in the history of near-by resorts.

Last evening Fishers' opera house was again crowded, when the Weidemann Company presented the drama "The Great Divorce Case," and as was the rule during the entire week, a very smooth and pleasing performance was given. Tonight, by special request, the company will produce the laughable comedy "Little Miss Thompson." The box sheet will be open at the opera house this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Some time ago an agreement was entered into between the Clerks Union and the merchants of the city under the terms of which the stores would be kept open until 5 o'clock on week days, excepting Saturday during July and August. President Kline of the Clerks Union, states that, at the instance of some of the leading merchants, the agreement was annulled so far as July is concerned, with the exception of July 1, 2 and 3, and Saturdays. All the merchants of the city have agreed to this new arrangement.

August Schieve will be legally executed at St. Helens at noon on Wednesday next, unless Governor Geer intervenes with a stay of execution, which is quite improbable. W. T. Vaughan, of Portland, attorney for the condemned man, has given up all hope of saving his client from the gallows, and will make no further effort in that direction. Schieve appears to be indifferent as to his fate, and maintains that he is innocent of the crime for which he is to be hanged—the murder of Joseph Shukowak. Invitations have been issued by Sheriff H. S. Hatton and a number of Astoria people will attend.

Yesterday's session of the circuit court was a brief one and little business was transacted. Judge McBride ordered a special venire of fifteen jurors to try the case of the State of Oregon against Louis Kiss on indictment No. 2. The case has been set for trial Thursday next. The second indictment against Kiss accuses him of the larceny of a net. Judge Winston represents the defendant. The court also made an order that the supreme court mandate in the Sam Howard case be entered. This was a test of the la vespurguing plaintiffs in divorce cases to pay the old $10 district attorney fee, the supreme court deciding against the court.

Little Mildred McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McBride, gave her parents a bad fright yesterday by suddenly disappearing from home. The absence of the little miss was noticed ere she had been gone long and the fond parents at once instituted search for her. The immediate neighborhood was hastily gone over, and then the searchers widened their field of labor, but Miss Mildred was not to be found. About the time that Mr. and Mrs. McBride were becoming frantically alarmed Officer Kimball put in an appearance with the juvenile runaway, who had been taking a look around town, and who was found in the western portion of the city. Her return, it is needless to add, lifted a load from her parents.

J. W. Bally, state dairy and food commissioner, was in the city yesterday, consulting with President Carnahan of the Push Club with reference to the coming visit to Astoria of the Dairy & Pure Food Association, a national organization, which is to meet in Portland in sixth annual convention on July 8-10. Mr. Bally wants to bring the distinguished guests to Astoria on Saturday and Sunday, July 12 and 13, and came down to see if Astoria would furnish a salmon dinner. Mr. Carnahan readily consented and arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors will be made immediately. Two carloads of delegates to the convention, representing almost every state in the Union, will leave Chicago Monday night. At the state line they will be met by a reception committee, and after a short stay at Hood River will be brought on to Portland.

A slide on the Astoria road at Bugby occurred last night, with the result that the Portland express did not arrive. The slide was one of proportions, carrying away some of the track, and the down train could not come through. The accident came as a surprise, but repairs will probably be made so that the trains can come through today. A train was sent up last night to bring down the passengers, who were transferred. The slide carried away several Western Union poles and the line was not in working order. In consequence, the Astorian appears this morning with an abbreviated telegraphic report.

There will be between 85 and 100 in the party. They are especially anxious to see Astoria and the ocean, about which they heard a great deal from Mr. Bailey during the last convention at Chicago and Buffalo. Indeed, Mr. Bailey came to be known as the fish-story man, so improbable did his stories of Western industry appear to the Easterners, but at Buffalo he had an opportunity to "show them," the Oregon fishery exhibit being convenient. The visitors will be a distinguished crowd and Mr. Bailey's kindness in bringing them to Astoria will be appreciated by this city. While here yesterday the Oregon commissioner said the dairying industry would become one of the leading enterprises of the state, as the climate is particularly adapted to dairying.

President Roosevelt yesterday sent to the senate the nomination of Hon. Walter Lawrie Robb to be collector of customs at Astoria. The nomination was at once confirmed. Mr. Robb was acquainted with his appointment by the following telegram from Senator Mitchell: "Washington, June 27.—Hon. W. L. Robb, Astoria: You have been nominated and confirmed by the senate for collector of customs at Astoria. Accept my cordial congratulations. (Signed) John H. Mitchell." The news of Mr. Robb's appointment soon spread around town, and his many friends hastened to his office to extend congratulations to him. The successful applicant for the collectorship was recommended by the Republican Club convention and his appointment gives general satisfaction. When seen by an Astorian man yesterday Mr. Robb said he had not yet decided upon his deputies. The appointment of deputies is not a personal matter, but rather a political one. "So far as I am aware, F. L. Parker is the only applicant for the first deputyship," said Mr. Robb. "I understand D. A. McLean and J. C. McCue are candidates for the second deputyship. I can not say now who will be named." Mr. Robb will assume office as soon as his commission is received. A salary of $3000 a year attaches to the collectorship.

SAYS HE LIKES ASTORIA.
Portland Insurance Man Favorably Impressed With the City.

Ralston Cox, author of the subpoenaed letter, is Portland agent of the Bankers Life and manager of the Oregon and Washington department of the American Guaranty Company. Mr. Cox said, during a recent visit to Astoria, that this city and Pendleton were the best in every respect in the Northwest. The letter from Mr. Cox shows that Astoria's reputation for hospitality is well deserved.

Portland, June 27.—To the Editor.—During the past year it has been my pleasure to visit your city at frequent intervals in the interest of the companies which I represent, and I have been much impressed with the uniform courtesy and hospitality of your people, and always anticipate my visits with much pleasure.

The same difference may be said to exist in the characteristics of a community as in an individual; one man by reason of his affability and uniform good nature is possessed of a host of friends, while another, lacking such qualities, repels rather than attracts them.

So with the various cities and towns, a man visiting one is impressed with the general air of thrift and prosperity everywhere apparent; he finds the business element active, intelligent and up to date in their methods, they speak well of their city and each other, and as a result the visitor forms an impression alike favorable to the city and its people, which he is not slow to voice as opportunity offers, and which cannot but be productive of good in impressing favorable intending investors or those seeking homes in desirable localities. Yours very truly, RALSTON COX.

PROGRAM FOR THE FOURTH.

Official Schedule for Astoria's Big Celebration of the Day.

The official program of events for Astoria's Fourth of July celebration has been definitely arranged and was made public yesterday. It is the most elaborate of the kind ever planned locally and guarantees to visitors, of whom between 2500 and 4000 are expected, an exceptionally fine day's amusement. The management desires to assure the people of the lower river towns that the free boats to be run to this city will not only carry visitors to Astoria, but will also return them to their homes. Absolutely no charge will be made for the round trip between Astoria and Cathlamet and way points, Grays River, Deep River, Knappton, Chinook and Olney. The round trip may be made from Ilwaco and all railroad points west and east of Astoria for the regular one-way fare.

All the different committees are well along with their work, and as the great day approaches the magnitude of the celebration becomes apparent. The official program follows:

LINE OF MARCH.
Parade to form on Bond street, corner Eleventh, proceed to Fourteenth, thence south to Commercial street, thence east to railroad depot, counter-march west to courthouse square. Hall Columbia, choir.
