A SELF-MADE MAN MUST NOT EXPECT RICHES.

There should be no cause for depression in recalling the fact that success will not always bring the self-made man either riches or fame. Though these awards be lavishly distributed, he to whom they may not be forthcoming, if he endures to the end and remains true to himself and his mission, will have in his own keeping a more valuable reward in the consciousness of duty well and faithfully performed.

Wealth by no means should be disparaged as representing success, provided it is accompanied by a reasonable realization of the obligations its possession imposes. If wealth is the best that can be exhibited as a result of success, it cannot do less than to make its fair contribution to the welfare of society. We have a right to complain of rich people, if after spending their lives in gathering wealth, they find in its possession no mandate of duty and no pleasure, save in the inactive and sordid contemplation of their hoards and in expecting the masses to fawn before them.

Sordidness is not confined to those whose only success consists in riches. There is a sordidness of education more censurable, though perhaps less exposed. There are those whose success is made up of a vast accumulation of education who are as miserly in its possession as the most avaricious among the rich. No one is justified in hoarding education solely for his selfish use. To keep it entirely in close custody, to take a greedy pleasure in its contemplation, and to utilize it only as a means of personal and unshared enjoyment, are more unpardonable than the clutch of the miser upon his money; for he, in its accumulation, has been subjected to the cramming and narrowing influences of avarice, while he who hoards education does violence to the broad, generous influences which accompany its acquisition.

The self-made man ought to see his course so plainly as to make it easy for him to avoid the wrong of sordidness in the possession of any of the rewards of his success. He ought especially and with clearness to apprehend the binding force of the active and affirmative obligations which are laid upon the rewards of success. Their discharge involves enlightened and indelible charity, the inauguration and encouragement of agencies for increased culture and information, intelligent liberality in business, a clear regard for the interest and welfare of those who toil, a constant exemplification of the strength and nobility of strict integrity, the incitement by precept and example, to frugality and economy, the continual inculcation of the benefits and usefulness of education in every occupation, the stimulation of genuine patriotism, the cultivation of independent and thoughtful political judgment, and last, but by no means least, a hearty healthful religion in the ministrations of religion and the extension of a sound and moral sentiment.—Success.

LOST BY LAWLESSNESS.

The strike of the dyers' helpers of the Peterson silk mills is conceded to be now lost. The appeal of this class of workers in the great silk industry of this city to all the classes employed to strike, or throw up their situations in sympathy with their movement and in order to bring the employers to terms through the fear of paralyzing the industry, meets with no response, nor should it. There is nothing about the dyers' helpers strike that calls for sympathy—and, indeed, sympathetic strikes are always uncalculated for. It was begun without a previous request made to the mill owners for better terms and was without a moment's warning. Furthermore, the attempt was made at the very start to carry it by violence and terrorism, and through that very resort to violence it is lost. No strike has ever succeeded where the strikers seek to gain their ends by lawless means, and none ever will. The resort to violence in a question of wages or hours of labor between employes and employers is a challenge to regulated liberty, to law and order and can never have but one result: in this country—the defeat of the movement. The American people will not stand for such methods, and the sooner the foreign element, which make up so large a part of the strikers in these latter days, learn this truth the better it will be for them.

Eat and Run.

There isn't a man who would be seen running through the street munching a piece of pie. Why not? Because it would mean dyspepsia and stomach trouble? Not at all; but because it wouldn't look well. As a matter of fact many a business man snatches a lunch in such a hurry that he might as well take it on the run. That is one reason for the prevailing "stomach trouble" among men of business.

There is a certain remedy for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The worst cases of dyspepsia and catarrh of the stomach have been cured by this medicine. It cures where all other means have failed to cure.

"I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for stomach trouble," writes Clarence Carney, Esq., of Taylorstown, London, Co. Va. "It did me so much good that I didn't take any more. I can eat most anything now. I am so well pleased with it I hardly know how to thank you for your kind information. I tried a whole lot of things before I wrote to you. There was a gentleman told me about your medicine and how it had cured his wife. I thought I would try a bottle of it. An hour later I was a new man. I had never felt so good since I was a boy. I don't know what I would have done if I had not seen Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness. They stimulate the sluggish liver, and cleanse the system of impurities. They should always be used with "Golden Medical Discovery" when there is need of a laxative.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Contractors and builders and the public generally are requested to take notice that the following planing mills, located in Portland, have been declared unfair by the Building Trades Council and Federated Trades Council of this city:

- The Northwest Door Company. Nicolai Brothers Company. Hand Manufacturing Company. North Pacific Planing Mill Co. George Ainslie & Co. J. A. Martin & Co. The Carpenters' Union of Astoria has taken the matter in hand and decided to use none of the products of the above-named mills. It was also decided in the union that after the first of July wages shall be $3 per day, to be paid every Saturday night without fail.

By order of the Union. ADOLF JOHNSON, T. SOUDEN, Secretary, President.

SUITS OUR CLIMATE.

The rapidly increasing use of shingles as covering for the walls of buildings, both to keep out the weather and for ornamental purposes, makes a great demand for a shingle stain which preserves the wood, prevents moss, and retains a fresh, handsome appearance. Particularly is such the case in damp climates. The need is well met in a perfect article made right here in Astoria. Cutbirth's Creosote Shingle Stains are penetrative, preservative, handsome and durable. They are put up in eight colors and every package guaranteed.
