HAS DISAPPEARED AS IF SWALLOWED BY THE EARTH

Since His Daring Escape of Saturday Fugitive Tracy Has Not Been Seen by His Pursuers.

Forty Indians Have Camped on His Trail—Native Woman Says She Saw the Desperado Sunday—Confederate Believed to Have Assisted in the Escape From Fort Madison.

SEATTLE, July 7.—Since Tracy, the escaped convict, left the Johnson Home Saturday afternoon at Port Madison, absolutely no real clue has been discovered as to his whereabouts. Forty Indians are watching for the murderer in Kitsap County. The coast of the whole lower Sound is being patrolled, and guards are lying in ambush. The authorities can make no move until he again shows himself. For the time being Tracy has vanished as completely as if swallowed by an earthquake. The bloodhounds from the Walla Walla penitentiary arrived here tonight. The tug Sea Lion has been under steam all night, with the animals aboard prepared to leave for any place where the criminal may put in his appearance.

At the extreme head of Millers Bay the Whitehall boat which carried Tracy and Anderson away from Port Madison Saturday night has been found. The boat had been pulled in from the beach and stowed away in a clump of bushes and Tracy evidently felt secure in the belief that it would not be found for several days at least. This very fact may lead to developments somewhat earlier than any one had hoped for.

The head of Millers Bay is four miles overland from Port Gamble. It is directly north of Port Madison, the Indian reservation, where, according to an Indian woman, Tracy was seen yesterday afternoon. Sheriff Cook, with a posse, left Port Madison early this morning to search the Millers Bay district. Immediately after the finding of the boat, the party discovered a fresh trail leading into the forest. The tracks of two men are plainly discernible and there was no doubt in the minds of the members of the posse that they were hot on the track of Tracy and his unwilling partner, Anderson. Shortly after noon, Deputy Sheriff Cook and a party made their way into the dense forest and it may be hours before they will again be heard from.

Every possible point on the Sound has been furnished with a carefully prepared description of Tracy and Anderson. The authorities of the northern counties bordering on the Sound have taken up the chase and considerable additions have been made thereby to the pursuing force.

Hood Canal County is being patrolled by two squads of officers.

DEMORALIZES PLANS FOR CAPTURE.

SEATTLE, July 6.—By the longest jump he has taken so far in his flight, Tracy, the Oregon escaped murderer, has completely demoralized all the carefully laid plans to capture him. Friday he left the vicinity of Bothel. Saturday noon he reached Port Madison. Tonight at 6 o'clock he was reported seen on the outside of Deception Pass between Fidalgo and Whidby Islands. His zig-zag course and unexpected movements have once more placed him beyond immediate danger. His latest coup is the most spectacular of all. The murderer's objective point is now supposed to be Whatcom, where, it is stated, he expects to meet a friend.

ARRIVES OFF DECEPTION PASS.

Tracy's arrival off Deception Pass was reported to Sheriff Brisbane, of Whatcom County at 8 o'clock tonight. He received the message from Chas. Brisbane. Scouts have been sent out to patrol the shore line of Chuckanut Bay, below Fairhaven, where it is believed that Tracy will attempt to land.

That Tracy is trying to reach some friends in Whatcom County is stated to be almost certain in a dispatch from Whatcom tonight. Cub Merrill, said to be a brother of Merrill, the convict who escaped with Tracy, lives at Whatcom, Saturday night while intoxicated he said that the murderer was on his way to that place. He also stated that arrangements had been made to meet him.

As a result of Tracy's spectacular jump the greatest hue and cry after a criminal in the history of the state is under way. Anacortes has two launches out guarding the passes through which the convict may reach the shores of Whatcom county. Deputy sheriffs are flocking from all sides to join in the man hunt and when Tracy lands he will be hard pressed. The last heard of Sheriff Cuddehe and an expedition he lead on the tug Sea Lion to Port Madison in pursuit of Tracy, was at Sidney. He went there to hold a consultation with Sheriff Sackman of Kitsap County.

HIS FLIGHT UNEXPECTED.

Tracy's flight from the vicinity of Bothel Friday was unexpected. According to his own story he beat across county to Meadow Point, where he held up a Japanese fisherman. At the point of his Winchester rifle he forced the man to take him across the Sound to Port Madison. At Madison the murderer entered the home of a Scandinavian family named Johnson. There he ate a hearty meal and changed his clothing. He made no effort to conceal his identity. When he left the house Tracy left all the members of the family tied to beds and gagged. He took Johnson's hired man with him and left Madison in a large boat belonging to the family. He set sail down the Sound at dusk Saturday afternoon.

The news of Tracy's latest exploit spread like wildfire. Sheriff Cuddehe returned from Bothel on the morning train and organized a new posse. The tug Sea Lion was chartered and the party left this afternoon for Madison. It consisted of a large number of heavily armed men.

From all indications it would appear that Tracy took the outside passage on his voyage to Deception Pass. In this case he must have gone past Port Ludlow, Port Townsend, Forts Flagler, Casey and Worden. His boat must have passed in sight of these places.

FAIL TO COMPLETE RAILROAD.

Plan of Board of Trade Failed to Complete Board Portage Road.

PORTLAND, July 7.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade, Joseph Gaston, chairman of the committee on railroads, made a statement of the condition and prospects of the Paul Mohr portage railroad around the dikes of the Columbia River. He said:

"I regret that I am unable to report the success of the Board of Trade's plan to complete the portage railroad and that there are no prospects of any immediate completion of the road on any other plan. A canvass was made among the capitalists of Portland. Numerous meetings were held with the leading capitalists, merchants and property holders but it was soon discovered that there were many objections and difficulties in the way of a successful consummation of the plan agreed upon or of any other plan."

EXPECT SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE

Arbitration Board Working to Secure a Conference With Officials.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Hopes of speedy settlement of the strike of the freight-handlers union which was called today are entertained by the officials of the railroads and the board of arbitration.

The officials of the union, at a conference tonight told Chairman Job, of the board of arbitration, that they were willing to permit the employees of the different companies to meet the officials of the same to discuss the wage scale, providing a joint conference between the railway managers and committees representing the men. There is little doubt that the strike can be settled satisfactorily to both sides if the conference is arranged.

CARBUILDERS STRIKE ENDED.

OMAHA, July 7.—The car builders settled their differences with the company today by accepting for one year the scale offered. This is considered final by both sides. There are no new developments in the strike situation today and quiet prevails at the shops, both sides evidently waiting for the other to act.

No official announcement of the fact has yet been made. The pageant through the streets and the ceremony at Westminster Abbey will be much curtailed from the original form. Their majesties will drive from Buckingham Palace to the Abbey through the Mall, to Whitehall and thence to the Abbey, the same route as taken at the opening of parliament.

POLICE REFUSE TO GO ON DUTY.

For Fifteen Minutes Owing to Arrest of the Chief of the Police Order.

WALLA WALLA, July 7.—For 15 minutes this evening there was no police force in the city. The chief was under arrest and each officer rather than to take charge of their former superior took off his star and turned it over to the city police judge. To save the law and order from complete route the mayor extended executive clemency to the chief. Then the force resumed its stars and took up again the discarded administration of office.

The trouble grew out of an altercation in the police court between Chief of Police Kauffman and Judge Glasford.
