AN EXTRA SESSION.

There is a rumor that the senate will be called in extra session. Perhaps this is true, and perhaps not. The general policy of the country is to avoid extra sessions, but the prejudice against them is not carried to such an extent as to involve the shirking of a duty. The subject in view this time is Cuba.

Congress has accomplished much benefit int work. Its record, much of PRAEL & COOK it made near the time of adjournment, will bear scrutiny. There was involved a vast amount of detail, and the spirit manifest in the various measures argued well of the temper of the country and its representatives. But towards Cuba congress did not do its full duty. Perhaps the matter was overlooked, because there were other matters deemed more important; possibly it was neglected because everybody's business is nobody's business. Whatever the reason, the promise made Cuba has not been fully redeemed.
