"LET US HAVE PEACE."

Tacoma Ledger:

Immortal words, embodying a lofty sentiment that inspire: "Let us have peace." It is the savage alone who loves battle for battle's sake.

But to cry out for peace is not to secure it. Before peace can prevail there must be an education of all races, a bringing up of all people to a high standard.

Such is splendid advice given by men every day. But our beach should have a life line nevertheless. Better place one there before the next accident occurs.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller, of New York, has just returned from a trip to Alaska. He went as far north as Skagway, which town, he says, "is the head of the canal, the point to which the Canadians have laid claim."

What a change in life if every leader and employer would not only utter, but carry into effect the words of Senator Mark Hanna: "I would rather have the promise of a laboring man backed only by his sense of honor and his manhood than any agreement which might be enforced by law."

At a recent meeting held in Iowa by people supposed to be citizens but meriting the forfeiture of their citizenship, and to be branded as traitors, one speaker said: "God will avenge the Filipinos in this country."

been regarded as upright and sane, have uttered themselves in the same fashion, and they seem to think that while such maudlin, wobbly creatures as themselves exist there can be no decent peace.

Perhaps some day there will be peace. If so, it will be brought about by men and women. Part of it will be won by the sword and part of it by moral force.

It is hampered in its coming by the very element that shouts most loudly for it. No nation can have peace until it shall have purged itself of its own intellectual and spiritual rubbish.

It cannot have that of which it is not worthy. While it harbors a treason that in time of just war hiles at home with sneer and flout and empty prayer.

EASY TO GIVE ADVICE. Too often there are drownings at the oceanic resorts. It is always so, year after year. Most of these fatalities are due to the folly of the persons who lose their lives.

Swallowing

A sword is a trick not conducive to health or longevity. But it is not more injurious than the hasty swallowing of half masticated food washed down by gulps of ice water.

Foley's Kidney Cure purifies the blood by straining out impurities and tones up the whole system. Cures kidney and bladder troubles.—For sale by Frank Hart, druggist.

A man may be willing to take things as they come, but he usually makes a terrible roar about the way they go.

NO FALSE CLAIMS.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases.

Don't be afraid of getting round shoulders from carrying too great a load of thought.

FOOLS A DEADLY ATTACK.

"My wife was so ill that good physicians were unable to help her," writes M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind. but was completely cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills.

BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY YEARS

Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar, which is a sure cure."—Sold by Frank Hart, druggist.

The man who can't keep from biting at every bait he sees should have a guardian appointed.

When other medicines have failed, take Foley's Kidney Cure. It has cured when everything else has disappointed.—For sale by Frank Hart, druggist.

To marry a person when you love another is simply storing up misery for yourself.

A. R. Bass, of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up twice in the night and had severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure.—For sale by Frank Hart, druggist.

TWO BOTTLES CURED HIM.

Ducks put their heads under water to liquidate their bills.

Some people get along without sense just as long as they have money.

TREAT YOUR KIDNEYS FOR RHEUMATISM.

When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy for this purpose.

A farmer should not be judged with cruelty because he pulls the ears of his corn.

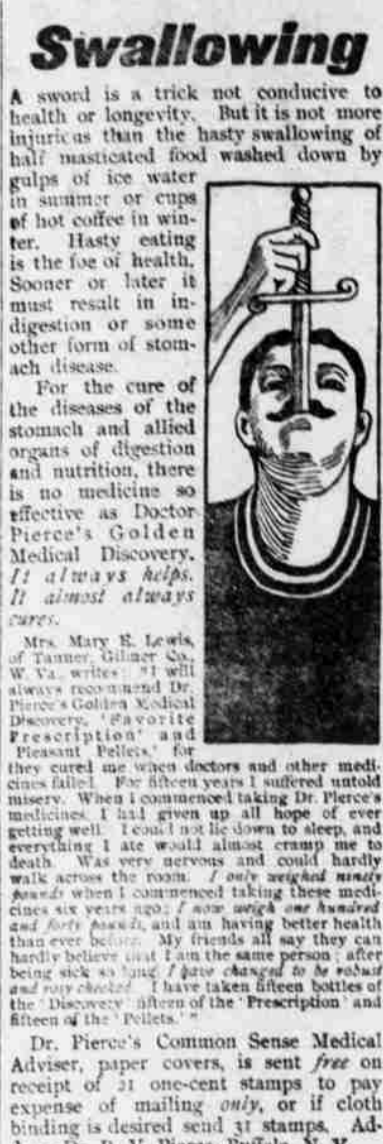

THE PRIDE OF HEROES.

Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world.

Kind words, kind looks, kind acts and gentle handshakes are the best weapons to use in the unseen battles of life.

A MILLION VOICES

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, Ia. Listen why: A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough. Several physicians said he had consumption, but could not help him.
