Eisen has become very popular here and leaves a host of warm friends.
After a few weeks of rest Mr. Eisen

A very good meeting of the Bridge-Builders' and Structural Ironworkers' Union was held last evening at the Labor Hall. After the routine business several new members were initiated and also several propositions for membership were acted upon. A resolution was passed endorsing certain by-cotes fixed by the A. F. of L. the night before last.

The shingle mill of Bill & Johnson at Chinook was entirely consumed by fire Wednesday last, entailing a loss of $2500. There were 100,000 shingles ready for shipment and these were lost in the flames. There was no insurance so the entire loss must be borne by the owners. Rebuilding of the mill has already commenced and is believed that the works will again be in operation in two weeks.

It has developed that the body of the man found on Sand Island Thursday night is that of James Mitchell, a Greek fisherman, who has been missing for nearly a month. The body was buried near the spot where it was found, but the above fact came out by the identification of certain articles found in the pockets. Mitchell has relative in California and Greece, who have been notified of his death.

Tomorrow night the Belasco-George Juvenile Specialty Company open their one night's engagement at Fishers' opera house. These little tots are considered to be the best in the vaudeville profession and during the past week have been playing to crowded houses at Cordays theater, Portland. The company arrive on the 11:30 train today, therefore having a good rest before the curtain raises tomorrow evening. Don't fail to hear their brass band at the theater. Seats now selling at Griffin & Reed's.

Astoria had an interested visitor yesterday. Captain Bolles, who for many years was master of steamers that ply between San Francisco and this point, was in the city greeting old friends and looking up real estate interests. Captain Bolles evinced much interest in the condition of Astoria and expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress that is everywhere manifested. Her fishing industries, railroad development, sawmill boom called forth words of praise from him. He stated, however, that Astoria's future prosperity lay largely in the development of her dairy interests. He cited Humboldt county, where the output from farm and dairy exceeds the lumber business.

There was a small storm brewing in Chinatown yesterday over a Celestial who signed to work for the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company and returned by the ship without having done a day's work on the trip. The man, whose name is One Lung or Wong Chung or some Gong Chung thing, claims that he was and is sick.
The Celestials, however, claim that the said Gong Chung was a loafer and did not want to work. With their gentle Confucian charity they wanted him to get out and die in the street. When it got to this stage the police took a hand and the man was removed to the hospital. Dr. Cordier informs us that the man was really ill, but the last news by telephone was that Mr.
Long Gon could sit up and get about and would soon be able to see his friend Ah Kum Bah.

INSURED CLOTHING.

The manufacturers of High Art Clothing are so confident that theirs is the best line that they issue to Every Gentleman who buys a "High Art" Garment an Insurance Policy, which guarantees it to be fast color, all wool, tailor made, guaranteed to hold the shape and if per chance (which is remote) a single article should fail to come up to their high standard a customer need only return the garment direct to the factory, at the manufacturers expense and by return express he will receive brand new clothes.

These manufacturers use such great care in the buying of wools, in testing, shrinking, etc., and they employ such high skilled tailors that they feel sure that every gentleman who buys a "High Art" Suit or Overcoat will be more than satisfied.

When you buy "High Art" clothes you are insured against clothing that fades, loses shape and all other annoying contingencies. Herman Wise is sole agent of this high class line of clothes and he invites you to call and inspect the advance shipment just received.

such as Harpers, Munsey's and others "High Art" line fully described. Every thread, every stitch, every fibre is guaranteed not only by words, but you get a written insurance policy.

THE PRESIDENT'S DOUBLE.

If the president had been seeking a double of himself, he could not have come more closely to the mark than in the man selected for secretary of the navy, and while the resemblance may be very striking, there is more possibility of his being taken for the executive than there is of success in making off a substitute remedy for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It has become so well known as a cure for headache, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation and malaria that many unscrupulous dealers will re-fill the bottles with a bogus article and offer it as the genuine. Beware of such counterfeits. The genuine Hostetter's Bitters has their Private Stamp unbroken over the neck of the bottle. Don't fail to try it.

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY.

When Henry George wrote his famous "Progress and Poverty," it set thousands to thinking, but the motto of today is Progress and Prosperity.
Men demand better clothes where the average man was satisfied with an ordinary suit two or three years ago, he now clamors for the Best; he is willing to pay for it, but it must be "Good." Recognizing this fact, the manufacturers of fine clothing are trying to outdo each other in creating men's clothing that far surpasses the average "made to order" clothes. There are but very few of the very finest tailors in the country who can and do equal or surpass such clothing as the Rogers, Peet & Co., or the "HIGH ART" Lines; these two makers are recognized by the best clothiers as the peers of all ready to put on clothes; for that reason Herman Wise, Astoria's progressive clothier decided to secure the agency of the famous "High Art" insured clothing line for Astoria.
