S. C. TURNER, Business Manager.

If the United States saw fit to copy Australia's ballot system it is certainly worth while pondering over the success that compulsory arbitration is in the same country.

The final result in the well-planned mimic warfare has ended in a victory for the navy. This is cause for considerable thought.

Mayor Schmits, of San Francisco, says that "the wage-earner stands forth fighting for the great principles of clean government."

With the passing of Frank Tousey, the founder of "Judge," and president of the American News Company, America loses a prominent and unique figure in the literary world.

The recent "Monroe doctrine" revival is all right. The Philippine question is a peculiarly colored and rather awkwardly shaped brick to fit into its structure.

It is said that England is loading coal for the United States. If Lord Pierpont Morgan owns the vessels and gets a good freight for transportation why should poor people kick?

At last the Portland fair site people have made up their minds on its location. That may be the least of the committee's troubles.

Some exchange tells us that Uncle Sam is full of prunes this year. Oregon is in line with her hops.

Pears' Soap

Which would you rather have, if you could have your choice, transparent skin or perfect features?

All the world would choose one way; and you can have it measurably.

If you use Pears' Soap and live wholesomely otherwise, you will have the best complexion Nature has for you.

OTHER CITIES.

The Hoquiam city council has purchased a spot of ground on the corner of Seventh and J streets, 100x110 feet, on which they intend to erect an adequate city hall and fire station and likewise a tower for the fire bell.

It is natural, of course, that the British government should refuse to treat Boer generals in an official capacity. These men hold no post of any sort now. They are merely individual British subjects, who, however, probably have the confidence of the men whom they recently led in war.

Complaints are made in Manila by native women that their husbands are deserting them and coming to the United States. It appears that a great number of soldiers have married natives and as soon as their enlistment is over they take a transport to this country, leaving their dusky wives behind.

Some one has been figuring out the number of words a man utters in a year and finds the average to be 11,800,000 words. There is no estimate on the average for a woman or Mr. Bryan.—Oregon Statesman.

Nine times out of ten it is safer to give credit to the poorly-clad person than to the overdressed swell.—Trade Journal.

JUSTICE

Is portrayed as a woman, yet her sex might complain that they get scant benefit of her powers. There is little justice, it would seem, in the suffering that many women undergo month after month.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health, ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Fierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"When I first wrote to Doctor Fierce concerning my health," says Mrs. M. E. Carpenter, of Lincoln, Connecticut. "I was so weak I could only write a few words and I would have to rest; so weak I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my sufferings: dizziness, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots or swimming lights before my eyes, terrible headaches, numbness in my arms and hands and tongue, as my jaws would get numb, constipation, salting of the uterus, disagreeable drains, soreness through my bowels; in fact I was diseased from head to foot. Now I can do my own washing and cooking. I can take a ten quart pail in one hand and a six quart pail in the other (full of water), and carry both one-fourth of a mile and never get tired. I am as healthy as I was at 15 years (125 pounds). I used thirty bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and twenty-five vials of 'Pleasant Pellets'."

Dr. Fierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Fierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The poorest way in the world for a woman to catch a man is to pursue him. NO FALSE CLAIMS.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes.—Sold by Frank Hart, druggist.

Everybody loves the truth, but few know it and adhere strictly to it. FOOLS A DEADLY ATTACK.

TWO BOTTLES CURED HIM.

Some men fool away nearly enough time looking for a soft job to make a good living, if properly applied. TREAT YOUR KIDNEYS FOR RHEUMATISM.

When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy for this purpose. R. T. Hopkins, of Polar, Wis., says: "After unsuccessfully doctoring for three years for rheumatism with the best doctors, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine."—For sale by Frank Hart, druggist.

No one is ever more interested about the time of day than a dude who has a new gold watch. THE PRIDE OF HEROES.

If you are a gentleman people will find it out without your boasting that you were born one. A MILLION VOICES.

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, Ia. Labeled only a severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough.
