Are not much in evidence among American women. The women of America are workers, and a weak waist handicaps a worker. But woman has a greater handicap than a weak waist. She may have a perfect form, beautiful and strong in all its lines, and yet he weak because her strength is undermined by diseases peculiar to her sex.

There is no room for argument as to the weakening effect of these diseases. There is also no room for argument as to the power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to cure them. It regulates the periods, stops unbealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. In the Venezuela affair England displayed much more noderation than we should have shown any power that had addressed threatening words to us, whether the words were justifiable or not. She could have annibilated the small navy we then had, and blockaded all of our Atlantic and Pacific ports. She refrained from doing so because of the pregnant future, which her statesmen of 1821 misconceived or disdained.
