KNAPPA NOTES.

The funeral of Mrs. James Coffey of Hammond, Oregon, took place here last Sunday at 10 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Foster officiating, The church was filled with friends and relatives from various places, who came to pay their last respects to one who was widely known and much the Northern Pacific's "North Coast loved and respected.

On Thursday, September 25, at 10 o'clock a. m., the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Banks was held in the Presbyterlan church, Rev. Foster officiating. The services were very impressive. Mrs Banks had been a great sufferer from cancer for over five years, and death came to her as a happy release. She was forty-nine years of age. She leaves a husband and an adopted daughter fourteen years old to mourn her loss. Mrs. Banks had a large circle of friends, who were untireing in their efforts during her long period of suffering to make life as bright as pos-She will be greatly mible for her. missed.

Immediately after the funeral of Mrs Banks, the funeral of Mr. Empo of Blind Slough took place at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Empo died in Salem, Oregon, where he had been under treatment in the asylum for insane there. He leaves a wife and family. Mr. Empo had lived at Blind Slough for a long time and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances both here and in Astoria.
