 From an authentic source it was learned last evening that gambling is being carried on in Portland. At several resorts faro and roulette are being dealt and crap games are run during the afternoon. Things have been squared, it is said, and the three games mentioned will be permitted.

Business Men have confidence in the young succeed, and a belief in his own power to win success. His choice of a company reflects his judgment, and successful men take this into considera-

A visiting Salvation Army singer has created considerable interest on the streets in the evenings by singing through a megaphone. The voice can be heard several blocks away and almost as effective as a phonograph.
 The warbler is Captain Paul Hubbard a Seattle officer who at one time was stationed here.
 LeRoy Hennessey, the famous comedian, who was to have appeared here in "Other People's Money," died Thursday at Vacaville, Calif., after a short illness. Whether or not the company will show in Astoria has not been learned, but the agent of the troupe is in Portland and Manager Selig expects to hear from him.

Star, a valuable pointer puppy belonging to Frank Patton, was run over and killed Thursday afternoon by a local delivery wagon. The animal was being given exercise on the street and getting away from its keeper began to gambol about playfully, when the wagon, which is reported to have been driven most too rapidly, ran over him, crushing him so badly that it was found necessary to kill him. The dog, though only 7 months old was already well trained and was greatly valued by Mr. Patton.
 No action has yet been taken in regard to the goods belonging to the West Astoria store recently attached by local creditors. Isaac Fredrickson, proprietor, was absent from the city at the time the attachment was served and he has been away continuously ever since. However, word has been received that he will put in his appearance today so it is believed some disposition will immediately be made of his effects. If the indebtedness is not relieved the stock will be advertised and sold at auction.
 The reappointment of Rev. Harold Oberg to the pastorate of the M. E. church was the signal for a reception given in his honor last evening. The reception was held at the home of Mrs.
 S. Elmore and proved a most cordial gathering. Many kind words of welcome were given the returning minister, to all of which he feelingly responded. A program of a musical and literary character was rendered and all present entered heartily into the purpose of the assemblage—the welcoming home of a loved pastor.
 Mayor Suprenant yesterday attached his signature to four ordinances. One provides for the establishment of the grade of Franklin avenue between Fifth and Twelfth streets. This thoroughfare is soon to be improved. The former improvement of the street was a very unsatisfactory one, owing to the poor grade. A second ordinance establishes the grade of Forty-ninth street from Cedar to Birch, in Alder-brook, which is also to be improved.
 A third measure provides for a new assessment to pay for the improvement of Commercial street from Third to Sixth, the first assessment having been unequal. The other ordinance provides for the holding of a general election December 10 to elect four councilmen and a city attorney.

An Astorian who has just returned from Portland was told by a man on the inside that "Jack" Matthews, chairman of the republican state central committee was planning to bring about the election of Judge Henry Mc-Ginn to the United States senate. According to the politician in question, who usually knows what he is talking about, all the bluster about the candidacy of H. W. Scott is hot air, calculated to obscure the situation in the interests of Mr. McGinn. Matthews is said to be knitting Senator Fulton at every possible turn and bending every effort to bring about the election of the Multnomah senator. The man who tells this story is a warm supporter of Mr. Fulton, and expresses the conviction that the Astoria state-man will be elected. This opinion is generally shared, members of the legislature feeling that Mr. Fulton is now entitled to the honor he has sought.
 That Judge McGinn has been too closely identified with the management of the Oregonian to ever be given the senatorship is a belief that prevail-among the unprejudiced in Portland and the outlook for the election of Senator Fulton is very bright. Indeed, his friends here and elsewhere throughout the state are sanguine.

The machinists' union is actively engaged in making preparations for a grand ball to be given on the evening of Friday, November 11, in Ford and Stokes hall. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the approaching event which promises to be a success from every point of view.

 cently acquired 50 acres of tide land at Yaquina which will be utilized for the purpose of cultivating oysters.

Congressman Cushman of Washington came over from Ilwaco yesterday morning and left for Vancouver, Wash., where he delivered an address last night. He was accompanied to Astoria by Pilot Commissioners "Jack" Wilson and Charles A. Payne and Ernest Seaberg, republican candidate for clerk of Pacific county. Mr.
 Cushman spoke at Ilwaco Thursday night to a big crowd, and his visit to that town was the occasion for quite a demonstration. The congressman believes the entire republican ticket in Washington will have a walkover this fall. He is making a vigorous campaign.

The mystery that has enveloped the sudden disappearance of Luis Sendel, cook on the tug George H.
 Mendel has been partially cleared up.
 It was thought that possibly the cook had been drowned while attempting to board the boat at night and in lieu of any positive knowledge regarding his whereabouts this theory was beginning to be accepted as final when Peter Peterson, a friend of the missing man, received a communication from him at Clatskanie, requesting that his effects be sent there. No reason was given for his sudden departure so it is supposed he simply got tired of his job and quit because he wanted to.

The police were at work yesterday trying to find the miscreants who placed grease on the street-car track that runs over the hill into the West End.
 Efforts to locate the guilty parties proved futile, but it is believed they will yet be captured. The case has aroused the indignation of the officials of the Astoria Electric company, who have long been compelled to put up with pranks of this kind, and there is a determination to make the guilty parties suffer for this latest outrage.
 Superintendent Coolidge says he hopes soon to cause the arrest of the miscreants. "A few days ago, while a boy ran up behind the West End hill a boy ran up behind it and pulled off the trolley wire," said Mr. Coolidge yesterday afternoon, when discussing the matter. "The lad was only about 12 years of age, and he doubtless anticipated much fun in seeing the car dash down the steep hill. I have succeeded in locating this youthful offender and he will be arrested today.
 It is the intention to put him in the sweat-box, and I am satisfied that he will be compelled to disclose the names of the persons who placed grease on the track Thursday night. For many months past we have been bothered by the boys, and it is our intention to put a stop to their misdeeds if it is possible to do so." Police officers say that boys are the most troublesome offenders with whom they have to deal. They resort to all sorts of maliciousness, and it is almost impossible to catch them. However, it is felt that an example should be made of the persons who attempted to wreck the West End car and if the offenders are caught it will go hard with them.
