THE MAN FOR THE SENATE

From the northwest corner of Clatsop to the southeast corner of Malheur and from the northeast corner of Wallowa to the southwest corner of Curry state of Oregon is more popular than Since his early manhood when his youthful countenance and frayed trousers denoted that he was starting at the bottom of the ladder of life to make a name for himself in the world, Mr. Fulton has studied the needs of his state. He has grown up with Oregon, and his interests have always cenevery section. He knows the people of the state-not alone those of promigained distinction ... He is acquainted with public sentiment on topics of national, state and local importance, and phases that were not at all times logial or reasonable, he has fearlessly pointed out the error of the situation. He has been the safety-valve of his home city and county, and his mature judgment has often been consulted vitally concerned. An honest desire placed C. W. Fulton in the exalted position he occupies.

Politically he has been liberal almost heretofore sacrificed his own ambitions en by Chinamen. If there were Chisquabble of 1898 was the only dele- enough to meet the demand. "My little daughter became afflicted with scrolula, which affected her eyes," writes Mrs. Agnes I., Duncan, of Manufield, Sebastian Co., Ark. "She could not bear the light for over a year. We tried to cure, her eyes, but nothing did any good. We had our home physician and he advized us to take her to an oculist, as her eyelida would have to be 'scraped.' They had become so thick he thought she would never recover her sight. As there was no one else to whom we could apply my heart sank within me. I went to your 'Common Sense Medical Adviser,' read your treatment on scrolula, getting the properties of medicines there advised. With five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have entirely cured my child. I have entirely cured my child.
