Astoria's Leading Clothiers

Mrs. John Wirkkala of Deep River died yesterday in this city, as the result of an operation. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

The steamer Columbia arrived yesterday from San Francisco. She brought no passengers, but had a large cargo of freight, a few tons of which were for Astoria.

The Civic Improvement League will hold a meeting tomorrow evening at the usual place in the city hall. An election of officers will occur and this and other matters of importance make it necessary that there be a full attendance of members.

If the ladies who took part in the entertainment of the visiting members of the Travelers' Protective Association last summer will leave their names with F. L. Parker they will be presented with a small souvenir which has been received from Texas.

The past week was a record breaker in the recording department of County Clerk Clinton's office. During the week a total of 35 instruments were filed for record, and the total receipts were $573.20. The receipts for Tuesday alone were $467.25. At the present time Recorder Trullinger is "snowed" out of sight.

The Astorian annual, which will be out January 1, will be a model of typographical neatness. All the latest faces of type are to be installed and will be used for the first time in the New Year number. Local advertisers are urged to select space at once, as there will be heavy demand from outside sources.

Katata council No. 1, Degree of Pochohontas, has elected the following officers for the coming term: Miss Annie Lundwell, Pochohontas; Mrs. A. S. Seaford, Powhattan; Mrs. Geo. Hill, Winona; Mrs. Lee Herring, proponent; Mrs. M. I. Gillette, keeper of records; Mrs. M. Bernstedt, keeper of wampum.

On December 22 bids will be opened at the office of A. S. Lee for the construction of the new Presbyterian church, which is to be built at the corner of Eleventh street and Grand avenue. The church will be 54x95 feet and will have a seating capacity of 400. The edifice will cost $11,000, exclusive of furnishings.

The city teachers' association held its regular weekly meeting yesterday forenoon in the A-lair schoolhouse in East Astoria. The session was not particularly enlightening aside from the routine work. The only special feature being the study of Mrs. Dye's well known book, "The Conquest." A short musical program was rendered consisting of vocal numbers by Miss Shively and a piano solo by Miss Sinnott.

Charles Hunter, a millman of 40 years' experience, is to operate a box factory in Tillamook, depending on new methods of box manufacturing to make a big success of the venture. Mr. Hunter will saw his boxes out of the logs without first sawing the logs into lumber. This will be a great saving of both labor and material. As that town ships direct to California, where there is always a shortage of box lumber, Mr. Hunter's concern will give employment to a large crew of men.

Mrs. M. C. Flavel and her daughters the Misses Flavel, entertained at their home on Eighth street Friday evening. The rooms and spacious halls were decorated with handsome silk flags, ivy and palms, and the many colored electric lights, lighting up the whole scene presented a fascinating and beautiful sight. The reception was attended by nearly one hundred invited guests: Mrs. G. C. Flavel, Mrs. P. L. Cherry, Mrs. S. D. Adair, Mrs. Ralph Dyer and the Misses Clara Lichtenberg, Laura Fox, Hannah Adair and Stella Spedden assisted in receiving.

The average American citizen seems to be determined to put off everything just as long as he can. In the matter of registering he is slower than the Sultan of Turkey in settling the claims against his government. Despite all the warnings given in the press, there was a rush of voters at Auditor Nelson's office during the entire day, and Deputy Labor-registered 113 persons between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. The attention extended even to the office of County Clerk Clinton, who was kept busy looking up the date of issuance of citizenship papers.

In the current issue of the West Coast Trade a correction is made to a statement made by State Fish Commissioner Kershaw of Washington in his biennial report. Commissioner Kershaw is quoted as having said that the fisheries industry takes the lead over everything in the state, lumbering and coal mining ranking next. While admitting that Washington leads all others in the fishery output still it is not the leading industry of the state, both lumber milling and the production of wheat in the order named taking rank above it as resources. Says the Trade: "Lumber has supplanted wheat for first place, with an output from three to four times that of the fisheries, aggregating a total of from $25,000,000 to $35,000,000 in products the present year, while the tidewater valuation of this year's wheat crop will range from $15,000,000 to $17,500,000 or double the value of fisheries."

In view of the famine and consequent distress in the northern part of Sweden, citizens of America who were born in that country are rallying to the relief of their countrymen. Subscriptions are being gathered and there is a very general and generous response all over this country. In Astoria well known citizens of Swedish birth have headed a list and quite a sum has been realized. The money will be forwarded immediately to the proper authorities in the old country. The work of collecting subscriptions has been done under the auspices of the First Lutheran church of this city.

Miss Ida Una, aged 16 years, died of consumption at 1:30 yesterday afternoon at the home of her father, Abram Una, 29 1/2nd street. Miss Una recently went east of the mountains in search of health, but was told by physicians that she could not live, and came home to die. Although so young, and perfectly aware of her approaching end, her last days were full of good cheer and kindness. Calling her schoolmates, she bade them good bye with admonitions to lead good lives and to be Christians. She had no fears of death, but welcomed it, dying happy, and trying to comfort her bereaved parents, sisters and brother. The funeral is not yet arranged for.

Seaside lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W., held a meeting last night and elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing term: Past master workman Patrick Shea, master workman, Nick Bohay, foreman, John McCue, overseer, O. F. Morton, recorder, F. D. Winton, financier, Thos. Dealy, receiver, J. E. Higgins, guide, M. F. Hardesty, inside watchman, Dr. C. O. Rosenberg, outside watchman, Edward Kaling, trustee, William Kelly, librarian, John A. Montgomery, medical examiners, Mrs. Tuttle, Estes, Pilkington and Condon. The recorder and receiver are elected to serve for the term of one year, trustee for 3 years and the other officers for six months.

The Eugene Guard says: Hon. C. W. Fulton arrived last night from Astoria to visit his numerous friends in Eugene. He is stopping at the Smeede. When seen this morning he said he had nothing in particular to say as to politics with one exception: "I am not losing any sleep over the senatorial situation," he said, smiling comfortably. His forces are carefully organized and during his visit here he is holding conferences with legislative members, no doubt to his own interest. Mr. Fulton spoke in unmistakable terms of admiration for Eugene, the appearance, business activity, and general liveliness of the streets impressing him very much. He is interested in the university and asked about the various details. He is not agreeable to the policy established by Dr. Strong, abolishing the preparatory department of the university for the reason that there are not enough high schools in the state to close the breach between the public schools and the university. The decreased attendance at the university and the increase in all other colleges and schools in the state give evidence of this.

HEAVY REGISTRATION. NUMBER OF NAMES APPEARING ON THE ROLLS FOR CITY ELECTION IS 1972.

The registration of voters for the city election which takes place next Wednesday closed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All day long the office of Auditor Nelson was crowded and when 4 o'clock came the throng was still coming. In all, 1972 names appear on the rolls. This is an exceptional showing, when it is considered that this is an off year, with but few candidates to be elected. The vote here is usually 15 percent in excess of the registration, which is also remarkable, and the chances are that almost 1200 votes will be cast next Wednesday.

The registration for this year shows a falling off of 213 as compared with that of last year. In 1901, however, a full set of city officials was elected, and there was, of course, much more interest. The normal vote of the city is 1800 in county, state and presidential elections.
