While the year just closed has not been revolutionary in religious circles, it has witnessed some significant moves as summed up by the Globe-Democrat in the following:

In matters religious the year just closing has been remarkable in at least five particulars. The first of these, in significance, is the marked tendency toward federation and even consolidation. Hardly second to it, however, are the two movements, fully developed during the year, affecting doctrine and Bible study.

ognize the need for a more extensive instruction in temperance matters and a more stringent application of that knowledge in daily life.

What is the bearing of this teaching on the commercial world? One result is that fully 1,000,000 railway men and 2,000,000 more in other employments are required to be total abstainers.
