all that could be done for him during his illness. His home is in Vadso. Norway, where his father is a government fish commissioner, and from whence he came last November to visit and to acquaint himself with the businces and ways of this country. He was a young man of bright promise, having laid the foundation for a thorough technical and classical education in the schools of his home land. His purpose was to have become a civil engineer.

To lay down his life in this far-away place is very sad, and will be a blow to his parents, who anticipated for

Want the County Seat.

A vigorous effort is being made both by Rainier and Clatskanie to secure the removal of the seat of government of Columbia county from historic St. Helens to one of those towns. The state Grange recently held in Rainier was made the occasion of a big demonstration with an eye to county seat honors. Everything was free all day for the large crowd in attendance, and Rainier, which is a hustling, growing little city, made a good showing. Clatskanie has organized a Push club for the purpos of pressing its campaign, and a committee already has a good subscription started for a courthouse fund to be offered as a bonus for its selection. A prise a gigantic one. The territory special election will be held shortly to
