

YOU WANT

Well-fitting clothes, certainly. There are two sure ways to get them.

One is, pay the best custom tailor in town $75 or $100 for a suit or overcoat; nothing makes clothes fit like paying $75 or $100 for 'em.

The other way is to buy clothes with H. S. & M. in them; pay $18 to $30; if they don't fit you get your money back. You know the place.

President Corbett

Millionaire and Prominent Business Man Died Yesterday at Portland.

HAD BEEN ILL SHORT TIME

Deceased Came to Portland When the City Was but a Village.

Portland, March 31.—Hon. Henry W. Corbett, one of the best known public men of the northwest and of the state of Oregon, with which his name has been closely identified for a lifetime, died this morning. Although his health had not been the best for some time past, with that characteristic energy that had been his always, he was active in looking after business until within a few hours before his final disposition. Mr. Corbett's death at this time was entirely unexpected. The immediate cause was heart failure. He was conscious to the last and expired peacefully, before relatives outside of the household could be summoned. The end came at a quarter to 7 a. m.

Perhaps it was prophetic intuition that led to Mr. Corbett laying before the board of directors of the Lewis and Clark centennial yesterday afternoon his resignation from the arduous office of president of that enterprise. While yet the directors were in session and discussing business matters, the president of the exposition company complained of feeling badly and took to his bed.

At 6 o'clock a change for the worse was noted. With the coming of dawn of a bright day a heaviness settled upon him, and he was almost imperceptibly but surely sinking. With only the immediate members of his household, including his wife, her sister, Mrs. H. W. Mason, and husband, at his bedside, the end came within 45 minutes after the sinking spell had set in.

The deceased was born at Westborough, Mass., February 18, 1827, and he was therefore 76 years, 1 month and 13 days old. His ancestors, who settled in Massachusetts in the 17th century, were Normans, who traced their descent from Roger Corbett, who was a military leader under William the First. His boyhood was passed in Washington county, New York, and his early years were attended with privations and hard work.

The immediate connections who survive the financier are: Mrs. Corbett, his wife; three grandsons, Harry Ladd Corbett, Elliott Ruggles Corbett, and Hamilton Corbett, and Helen Ladd Corbett, his daughter-in-law.

It was in this month, 32 years ago, that Mr. Corbett arrived at the village of Portland. It was composed of 400 people at that time.

Ratifications Exchanged

Washington, March 31.—Ratifications of the Cuban reciprocity treaty were exchanged at the state department today by Secretary Hay, and Senator Quesada, Cuban minister. There was little formality about the exchange. One copy of the treaty served and this was delivered to the Cuban minister.

In addition Secretary Hay and the Cuban minister signed a protocol reciting the fact of the exchange. The copy of the treaty signed today will be sent to Cuba and when the other copy bearing President Palma's signature is received here it will be placed on file in the state department. The next step in order will be a proclamation of the treaty, but this cannot be done until the house acts on it.

CANADA GETS IMMIGRANTS.

Ten Thousand People to Be Colonized During the Summer.

New York, March 31.—Canada rather than South Africa is absorbing the surplus population of Great Britain, claims the London correspondent of the Tribune. The reports sent home from South Africa by the British army of 50,000 men during the war were unfavorable to South Africa and the immigration movement from England there has not set in. The resources of Canada, meanwhile, have been advertised systematically and full use has been made of the American invasion, both as an incentive and a warning. The second contingent of Mr. Barr's force of British emigrants leaving Liverpool today number 1800 and before the winter at least 10,000 will be transplanted from the midland and northern counties to the Saskatchewan valley. Canadian officials assert that the settlers are a picked body of emigrants representing the arts and crafts as well as agriculture, and taking with them a large mass of capital.

Edward Will Visit Ireland

New Laws for Ireland Working Harmony and Peace.

New York, March 31.—The official announcement that the king and queen will visit Ireland in July or August, does not come as a surprise, says the Tribune's London correspondent. It is well known that the king ever since he ascended the throne had set his heart on an Irish tour. In Ireland it is believed that the king is responsible for the extraordinary change that has taken place in the Irish policy of the British government since the beginning of the year. The coercion regime is a thing of the past and a peasant proprietor a thing of the future. Mr. Wyndham's land bill has had an excellent effect in destroying the germs of disaffection and it consequently is certain that the announcement of the royal visit will give the greatest satisfaction to the Irish people.

Miser's Bank Notes Eaten by the Rats

Murdered by Beggar to Whom She Served Food or Money.

New York, March 31.—Countess D'Onigo a miserly recluse was murdered several weeks ago in her house near Trenton, says a dispatch from Rome to the American. The murderer, now a prisoner, has confessed the crime, declaring it was committed in a frenzy of rage at the countess because of her refusal to give him a meal or money for his starving children.

The police found in the bedroom of the countess one million dollars. Five hundred one-thousand lire ($200,000) notes had been partly eaten by rats. The total value of the woman's estate is estimated at four million dollars.

To Reinstate The Strikers

Colorado Springs, March 31.—The strike of the smelter men has been settled. Manager MacNeil, of the United States Reduction and Refining company, has promised the advisory board to reinstate the men by May 15.

ELKS WILL EAT CRABS

Twenty Steamers Required for Excursion at Elks Annual Meeting.

Baltimore, March 31.—Thomas F. McNulty chairman of the entertainment committee of the Elks who are to meet here in annual convention in July next, announces that he has arranged to take the Elks to Love Point, on Chesapeake bay, for a day's outing. It is proposed to give the guests a crab feast. It is expected that 20 steamers will be required to accommodate the visiting Elks and the contract calls for furnishing transportation to every person showing a badge of membership in the order.

SPURIOUS BANKNOTES.

Washington, March 31.—The secret service bureau announces the discovery of two counterfeit notes. One is a $5 silver certificate of the series of 1899 and is a poorly executed etched production on soft thin paper, no attempt having been made to imitate the silk fibre of the genuine. The other is a $5 bank note reading "United States Citizens National Bank, New York—pay to the bearer on demand $5." It bears a portrait of Garfield.

Reads Like a Fable

Story With a Moral Comes From Far OR Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 31.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The Sevornoy reports the following:

The man and his wife who left their native village near Vitebeck a few days ago to have their baby baptized at the nearest church were set upon by wolves. The man ordered his wife to throw the baby to the wolves. She refused and he attempted to tear the child from her arms. In the scuffle the mother fell out of the sleigh with the baby and they rolled unnoticed by the wolves into a ditch. The wolves kept up the pursuit and overtook and devoured the man and his horses.

Will Humor the President

Chicago, March 31.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Des Moines, says:

President Roosevelt will be greeted by the large families of Des Moines and vicinity when he visits the city in April. The mayor has suggested that in view of the chief executive's well-known views on the size of American families he thought it would be appropriate to have the notable instances of this city gathered in a prominent place on the capitol grounds where he will speak and the idea has been accepted.

Must Arbitrate or Strike.

Chicago, March 31.—Members of the Iron League, the Association of Manufacturers and erectors of structural iron served an ultimatum on the bridge and structural iron workers union last night. This was to the effect that the union must accept 56 1-4 cents an hour instead of 60 cents as demanded, or submit the entire matter to arbitration. The union will hold a meeting tonight to act upon the proposition.

EXPRESSMEN FEDERATE.

Chicago, March 31.—An international union of expressmen and messengers has been formed in Chicago by the representatives of unions from nearly 80 cities. A committee was named to draft a constitution and by-laws and adopt a name for the organization. It will become affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

FOR A HORSE.

London, March 31.—The price paid by W. A. H. Bass of the Tenth Hussars, nephew and heir of Lord Burton, to R. S. Selver for his famous race horse Sceptre, was $125,000.

May Cut Longshoremen's Rate.

Complaint was made yesterday to the officers of the Fishermen's Protective union by the longshoremen, through the channel of the Portland headquarters, that overtures were to be made to load vessels, carrying Alaska cannery supplies at cut rates. The price demanded by longshoremen for their work is 50 cents per hour for loading all cargoes but lumber. For this 40c is paid. There has been no deviation from this rule either here or in Portland by the longshoremen's union and the fishermen's union is in perfect harmony with it. Secretary Lorntsen stated last night that he was unaware as to who the men are who are willing to work for less but said that the information that reached him was to the effect that a cut to 35 cents would probably be made. If this proposition is made and is taken up it will be far reaching in its effects as, of course, it would be a subject for investigation by the labor council and other unions, particularly the teamsters, would soon become involved.

ARBITRATORS WILL SETTLE

Strikers and Company Agree to Method of Adjusting their Troubles.

ALL CARS ARE NOW RUNNING

Three Business Men Are to Submit a Report to Satisfy all Parties Interested.

Seattle, March 31.—The street car strike is settled. The strikers decided to go back to work at 2:30 this afternoon by practically a unanimous vote. Credit for the settlement of the strike is due largely to the efforts of James B. Melki, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

A settlement was effected by the strikers and company agreeing to arbitrate the question of seniority of men who were on strike and the men who took their places. The arbitration board is to consist of three Seattle business men. The company is to select one man, the union another, and these two are to select a third. The arbitrators are to be named within five days, and their decision is to be binding upon both parties. All cars are now running.

BLOODSHED IN SEATTLE

Seattle, March 31.—M. J. Klineine, a member of the striking street car union was shot in the left side and perhaps seriously wounded by C. C. Ditto, an employe of the street railway company in the Congress saloon at 7 p. m. Ditto had been working right along and went to Tacoma at the time of the strike there. He walked into a saloon and announced himself a scab. A quarrel ensued and Klineine, who expressed a dislike for scabs, fired. Ditto is in jail.

KNOCKED OUT IN ELEVENTH

Young Corbett Puts It All Over Terrible Terry In a Cyclone Battle.

HAD HIM DOWN IN THE FIRST

Decision Gave Satisfaction As It Was Apparent McGovern Was Badly Beaten.

San Francisco, March 31.—William Rothwell, better known as "Young Corbett," of Denver, tonight defeated Terry McGovern in the eleventh round after a fight in which there was not a second of idleness for either man. In nearly every round Corbett's fighting like a machine had a shade the better of the argument, and when he finally got Brooklyn Terry into a corner he punished him so hard that the latter sank to the floor defeated. Corbett put McGovern down in the first round for the count of seven and repeated it in the second.

There was some question as to whether or not Terry was down at the count of 10, and for a few minutes it looked as if there would be a fierce fight on the matter. Terry tried to get up and was on his feet an instant after the time keeper had counted him out. The time keeper who counted Terry out stated after the fight that the blows which knocked Terry out were left and right swings on the jaw and a right upper cut on the chin. He said that Terry was in a dazed condition, and that when he had counted nine he hesitated to him to get up, but Terry was too confused to notice and was unable to do so, that he was completely out and that it was mercy to him that he was unable to get up.

Corbett was strong and ready and had Terry risen to his feet he probably would have been seriously hurt. Referee Grane's decision seemed to meet with the approval of most of the spectators, as the Brooklyn man was apparently thoroughly beaten.
