A New York preacher says one reason why more men are not seen in the churches is because so many of them are in jail, and we have thus another strong sidelight thrown on society in the effete east.

Admiral Dewey had 54 warships in the Caribbean when the European allies were shooting at Venezuela. Now the world knows what Uncle Sam means by a "Christmas itinerary" in the navy department.

People of Seattle and Tacoma sympathizing with the street car men out on strike have organized a "we walk" society. Taking climatic and sound conditions into consideration, why wouldn't resolutions of condolence be about the proper caper?
