Birth Notice

To Captain and Mrs. Charles Richards, on Monday, April 13, a son; 16 pounds av.

Seven Widowed Sisters

Doctor Dornberg, a prominent physician of Mankota, Minn., had seven daughters, all of whom married and all of whom are now widows. Mrs. Chas.
 T. Heilborn, being the last to lose her husband, who was the oldest of the seven men. Mrs. Fred Prael, whose husband died in January last, is the youngest of the sisters. Mrs. Dubuis-son, who became a widow in Portland last August, is now living in Tacoma.
 The other sisters are still in the east.

Off for Germany

George Kaboth, for many years a successful sealer on the Columbia river leaves this morning with his wife and children to spend the summer in Germany. They will be accompanied by Miss Cecile Kreibohm, a niece of M.
 A. Scherneck, who has spent 10 years in this country and goes back to remain. They will leave New York on the North German Lloyd steamer Barbarossa, on April 23. Mr. Kaboth's old home is in Breslau.

Work of the Committee

Chas. V. Brown, chairman, and other members of the regatta committee will go to Portland the first part of next week for the purpose of interesting Portland business men in the proposed reggatta. A thorough canvass will be made of Astoria before outside assistance is solicited and the committee is working hard to cover the local field.
 Thus far Mr. Brown claims fair success and believes that the merchants will lose no interest in the project. He wishes it impressed upon the public, however, that words, no matter how enthusiastic they may be, will not alone suffice, but that substantial funds will be vitally necessary. Volunteer offerings will greatly lessen the arduous labors of the committee and will be greatly appreciated.

Fined in Police Court

Rennie Mahan a teamster, in the employ of the Prael & Cook Transfer company, was up before Judge Nelson yesterday charged with assault and battery and was fined in the sum of $20 for the offense. The victim of the assault is an old man and the attack was seemingly unprovoked. Mahan explained to the court that he was drunk at the time, and didn't know what he was doing. He delivered quite a temperance speech, attributing in the course of his remarks the commission of crime in general to the use of whisky. As for him, he said, he had taken his last drink and would henceforth behave himself. In the evening he and Mrs.
 Mahan went to Portland to remain for a day or two.

Dredge Going to Portland

As soon as the Columbia River Digger company has concluded its contract of dyke building on the Lewis and Clark, the dredge now being used there will be taken to Portland. The company has engaged to furnish street contractors there with sand necessary to carry on their work and no time will be lost in beginning operations as soon as the dredge is free to be put out.
 Manager Hackett had considered for a time of building a dyke on Youngs river, similar to the one on the Lewis and Clark and though overtures had been made by both the property owners and the company no agreement was reached. The land proposed to be redeemed is situated on the west side of the river and runs from the mouth to the islands.

French Bark Henriette

The French wooden bark Henriette, which sank on the Sylvia de Grasse reef two years ago, was towed down from Portland Sunday afternoon by the tug Samson and taken to the lower harbor preparatory to being taken to Vancouver, B. C., where she will be converted into an ore barge by parties in British Columbia to whom she has been sold. When the bark met with her misfortune on the Columbia she had a cargo of redwood and was bound for Europe. During a heavy gale she dragged her anchor and pounded on a rock of the reef. She sank and at high tide her entire deck was submerged.
 By the use of two barges the Hale & Kern company raised her and two river tugs took her to Portland. She has been repaired, but is too old to be considered fit for further service at sea.
 Pilot Arthur Leighton will go around with the bark.

Car Strikes a Buggy

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jeffers of the Lewis and Clark, were driving down Twelfth street early Sunday afternoon and in attempting to cross the car track on Bond street, the buggy was crushed into by a streetcar. The occupants of the buggy were thrown violently to the ground, but fortunately away from the direct course of the car so they escaped without severe injury. However, they were bruised and badly shaken up by the accident and Mrs. Jeffers was rendered very nervous by the unexpected shock. The vehicle was smashed pretty badly and the harness was reduced to a delatdated condition. The cause of the accident is doubtless rightfully attributed to the hood of the buggy which prevented Mr. Jeffers from observing the approaching car, though the motorman insisted he sounded the gong as a warning before the crossing of the track was attempted. Mr. Jeffers on the other hand, said that he heard no gong until the car was upon them.

DeMoss Concert Tonight

The DeMoss Concert company, consisting of six artists, favorably known in Europe as well as in America, will give a most unique concert in the Methodist church tonight. The opening number of the program will be Ros-sin's "William Tell." During the concert these artists will make use of 60 different instruments. Tickets at Griffin's book store. Reserved seats, 50c; general admission, 25c; children, 10c.

Prosperous Seaside

A wave of prosperity has swept over the little city of Seaside, due in a great measure to the business enterprise of the Necanicum Spruce Lumber company. Two hundred men are constantly employed in the mill, box factory and in the woods, all under the direction of the concern. Good wages are paid in every line of work and the monthly payroll reaches the sum of $11,000. The citizens of Seaside are confident of a bright future. Real estate values have an upward tendency.
 A number of buildings are now being constructed and many more are in prospect for the season.

A lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men will be organized at Seaside on Saturday, April 18, under the direction of Samuel Miller and Adolph Payne.
 This will make the seventh order represented here—on for every day in the week.

A baseball game was played at Seaside last Sunday between the Warrenton and Seaside teams, resulting in a victory for the Warrenton nine by a score of 11 to 1.

Court Notes.

Circuit court convened yesterday for a week's session. Judge McBride on the bench. Orders were made as follows:

P. J. Lynch and Theodore Tobiasson, charged with kidnaping, were arraigned and pleaded not guilty and the case was set for trial on next Thursday.

Matti Jarvi, charged with the murder of his father was arraigned and his trial set for June 25. The bonds were also exonerated.

Lyman Way, charged with the stealing of two nets from Peter M. Carlson and John Dragolich was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for June 22 and his bail fixed at $200.

Sarah A. Grimes vs C. C. Grimes, motion of defendant allowed making G. M. Grimes a party defendant and allowing the plaintiff 14 days in which to file an amended complaint.

R. J. Pilkington vs J. H. Smith, judgment by default.

D. Falangos vs Anton Cugalich, judgment.

T. K. Johnson vs W. E. Tallant, on trial before a jury; suit to recover rent of diving suit and apparatus.

Fishing Licenses.

Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen has issued 359 gillnet licenses for the coming season at $2.50 each, 1 seine license at 3 cents a foot, 2 trap licenses at $25 and 2 cannery licenses. Can-neries pay from $175 up. Last year 113 gillnet licenses had been issued at this time, or only one-third as many as for this season. This is taken to indicate that the fishermen have come to understand and respect the law more generally than in the past.
 It is the intention of Mr. Van Dusen to enforce the provisions of the law to the utmost, not only with regard to individual fishermen, but with all other appliances for taking and handling salmon. The law is very explicit concerning the proper marking of the official numbers of boats, nets, seines, traps, wheels and yets, and on the display of lights at night by all fixed appliances for taking fish. Any such gear found fishing without having paid the license fee will be duly confiscated.

Now Open.

After being handsomely remodeled, refurnished and enlarged, the famous Toke Point Oyster house is again open to the public. The celebrated Toke point oysters and all other delicacies will be served in our superior style at all hours. Private rooms. Eleventh

PORTLAND BUSINESS COLLEGE
 PORTLAND, OREGON
 A. F. ARMSTRONG, LL.B., PRINCIPAL

Death of an Aged Pioneer

Charles Theodore Heilborn, senior member of the firm of Chas. Heilborn and Son, and for 27 years an honored citizen of Astoria, died at his home yesterday at 9 a. m. Mr. Heilborn, who had long been an invalid, suffered a paralytic stroke a week ago while at the store and had been confined to his bed ever since, gradually approaching the end, which came without apparent suffering.

Mr. Heilborn was 78 years of age, and was born in Munster, Germany, coming to the United States at the age of 21. After a few years residence at Cincinnati, where he was engaged in the furniture trade, Mr. Heilborn removed to Mankota, Minn., where for many years he was extensively engaged in the manufacture of furniture, and Charles Theodore Heilborn.

where also he was married, his bride being Miss Alma Dornberg. He served with distinction during the Indian wars of Minnesota, and during the Civil war as second lieutenant of volunteers.

During his residence in Astoria Mr.
 Heilborn was a successful leader in his chosen line of business and a very highly respected man. He was twice elected county treasurer, serving from 1878 to 1882.

Deceased leaves, besides his wife, six children: Otto F., Miss Olga, Miss Therese and Charles A. M., of Astoria; Mrs. Otto A. Bierback of Honolulu; Mrs. John M. Rodgers of Portland.
 The funeral will be held at Grace Episcopal church at 12:15, and the interment will be at Greenwood. Services at the grave will be private.

Owms Many Vessels.

Captain George E. Plummer, who owns the ships Berlin, C. F. Sargent, and the bark Harry Morse, now starting from Astoria for Bristol bay, Alasaka, was in the city yesterday looking after the interests of his crafts. He usually comes up from San Francisco every spring on a like mission. The captain owns so many sailing and steam vessels that it is hard for him to keep track of all of them. About 20 steamers are on the list, and sailers too numerous to mention. Captain Plummer thinks the Alaska fishing business has seen its best days, owing to its being overdone and to the raise of about 40 percent in the cost of labor during the last few seasons. Also that the business of packing fish has been developed too rapidly for the consumption to keep pace with it, and that fewer canneries should be operated until things become equalized. There is danger also of depleting the streams of salmon by too many being taken out each year. Charter rates for vessels are lower than in the past owing to so many vessels being disengaged by the termination of the late wars, making more available than usual.

ENGLISH COAL IN DEMAND.

The American demand for English coal is again in evidence, and many large vessels are being loaded and started for our country as rapidly as possible. The demand for the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is also largely increased, because more people are learning of its wonderful curative powers in cases of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders, and having tried one bottle they are becoming convinced of its value, and won't accept anything else in its place. This will be your experience, too, if you will only give it a trial. It will build up the run down system in the spring, overcome that tired, depressed feeling, purify the blood and cure loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, and is gripe. Don't fail to try it.
