Clatsop County Will Have Exhibit

Display Made in Portland Union Depot Is for Benefit of Homeseekers.

A joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Progressive Commercial Club held last evening was addressed by Col. Frank W. Drake, M. W. Killingsworth and W. H. Beharrell of Portland on the subject of having Clatsop County represented in the exhibit of the state products and resources now being installed in the Union depot in that city.

In a vigorous speech Colonel Drake explained the plan of the organization, which is briefly as follows: A number of business men in Portland have organized for the purpose of carrying on an Immigration and Information Bureau for the benefit of the state of Oregon at large. The sum of $16,000 has been subscribed by the men interested with which to carry on the work. A large room was secured in the Union depot in which to install a complete exhibit of the resources and industries of each county of the state, with full information concerning the same so that strangers can by examining the exhibits and availing themselves of the information decide intelligently as to what part of the state they prefer to locate in. The institution is not merely a Portland affair although that city is paying for it, and it is not to attract people to that city, nor is it a real estate concern, no such business being allowed in connection with it. The intention is to secure full and complete data from every part of the state for the use of farmers, business men, manufacturers, mechanics and settlers of every class who may come to the state looking for homes or business opportunities. This service is to be absolutely free to everybody, and every possible assistance will be offered to every comer in choosing a location and obtaining a home or business opportunity as may be desired.

Mr. Killingsworth recited facts showing why there should and could be a large shipbuilding plant at Astoria, employing from 3000 to 10,000 men. He related an incident which occurred in New York at a meeting presided over by Chauncey Depew, when Lewis Nixon the noted shipbuilder told the gentlemen present that the shipping of the Atlantic would in time shrink into insignificance compared with that of the Pacific. Mr. Killingsworth declared that such enterprises could be located at Astoria if the citizens made the proper and necessary effort, and urged a vigorous action in behalf of this locality, particularly in supporting the depot exhibit.

Mr. Beharrell explained the advantages of Oregon over Washington and told of the manner in which the state could be developed and settled up by encouraging such enterprises as this.

President Allen of the Push Club was invited to respond to the speeches of the gentlemen. Mr. Allen was in favor of getting up a creditable display of Clatsop County products and supplying the necessary information for having the county adequately represented with a view to deriving a proper benefit from it.

John E. Gratie, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce complimented the Portland people on their enterprise and expressed hearty favor and cooperation.

Judge Taylor favored the plan because some way must be devised for getting together information as to the resources of the county and its business opportunities and properly setting them before intending settlers. Favorable expressions on this line were made by Judge Bowly, A. Scherneckau, C. W. Carnahan, J. S. Dellinger and others.

On motion President Van Dusen appointed a committee to proceed with the enterprise as follows: Hon. C. W. Carnahan, Judge F. J. Taylor, Albert Dunbar, Judge J. Q. A. Bowly, A. Scherneckau and J. N. Griffin.

AMONG THE SCHOOLS.

In the country school districts the winter terms are now closing and summer schools are being opened. A commodious new school building has been erected in the Vine Maple district on the Nehalem. The board is endeavoring to secure the services of Miss Violet Bowly as teacher on her return from California. A number of Astoria young ladies are teaching in the various districts. Miss Rose Parker is conducting the Olney school, Miss Florence Turner, the Walluski school, Miss Annie Carlson the school at Bear Creek, and Miss Nellie Gerding at Sven. The John Day District No. 18 is prospering under Miss Anne Lewis. James Springer is near the close of his term at Westport. Miss Lucy Morton, also of Astoria, has begun a summer term at the White school house at Knappa. In District No. 4 at Knappa Miss Lois Bain of Portland, a cousin of N. D. Bain and Mrs. W. S. Kinney, has begun a summer term. The school at Elgin Slough will be conducted this summer by T. M. Bowman, who taught the Clifton school last summer. Miss Sophie Anderson, who taught the Jewell school during the winter will soon open a summer term at Melville.

A summer term has been opened by Miss Nellie Anderson, of Chadwell, at the Battle Creek school house on Gallagher Slough. Miss Edna Cole is beginning a school at Alder Grove, on Youngs River. Miss Hess has taught a seven-months' term at Skipanon and is offered the position for another year. She opens a summer term on April 29 at Prospect Park. Miss Rose West is concluding her seven-months' term at Clatsop and will begin an eight-months school at Elele.

IMMIGRATION LAW CONTESTED.

The new immigration law imposing a head tax of $2 on all aliens coming into this country, is causing trouble for the San Francisco Immigration Bureau. The Oceanic Steamship Company refused point blank to pay the tax, and Commissioner of Immigration North Thompson made a ruling that no alien passenger should be landed from a ship in that port until the tax had been first paid by the company bringing in such aliens. The steamship companies claim the new law is in conflict with the regulation of the Immigration Bureau requiring the payment of a deposit on aliens which they say is virtually paying the tax. A test case will probably be made.

EUGENE IS PROSPEROUS.

Hon. George Noland who recently returned from a visit to Eugene, says the town and surrounding country is in a very prosperous condition. Eugene itself is booming and there is not an empty house there. Lane County is getting a big share of the immigration of homeseekers. Old residents there say that they feel almost like strangers in the city, there are so many new people and others are constantly arriv-

Salmon Supply Is Increasing

State Fish Commissioner Kershaw Says the Pack Will Double.

State Fish Commissioner Kershaw of Washington was in the city yesterday and contracted with R. M. Leathers for a 40-foot launch for a patrol boat. The boat is to be finished by July 1. Mr. Kershaw said: "With two patrol boats we should be able to stop illegal fishing one the river. I will be in a position to render Master Fish Warden Van Dusen better assistance in future in this respect. I now have three deputies, and will keep two of them on the river to see to law enforcement. Mr. Van Dusen is an efficient, energetic, hard-working officer and is doing good work. He should have the entire support of all the people, as I have in Washington. It is hard to get men to do good service as halliffs, when they are only employed for short terms. My men work the year round at good salaries. We have very little complaint of illegal fishing in our state. The canneries and fishermen help us to keep the laws enforced. The way to stop illegal fishing is to shut off the market for the fish."

"We have an appropriation of $153,000 for my department and operate 13 fish hatcheries, with two more to be built. The fishing industry is now firmly established and is susceptible of a wonderful development. I seen a reason why last year's pack of 400,000 cases should not be doubled in a short time. Last year the combined hatcheries of Washington and Oregon turned out between 80 and 100 million young salmon. If only 1 per cent of these return there will be plenty of fish for many more canneries. Salmon do not all return to their native streams, as Kalamath hatchery marked fish have been caught in Grays Harbor, and Clackamas salmon have been taken on the Sacramento. Were I entering the canny business I would locate on the Columbia River, rather than on the Sound or elsewhere, as I plainly believe in the future of the industry."

UNKNOWN BODY BURIED.

The body of the man found at Aldrich Point and brought here by Coroner Pohl was buried yesterday, the coroner waiving an inquest. The body had become so decomposed that it was impossible to identify and there was nothing in the pockets to indicate who he had been.

UNION HOLDS MEETING.

The Mill and Lumber Workers' Union No. 343, held a meeting last evening and there was a large attendance. This union is growing rapidly, there being at present 150 members. Last night several candidates were initiated into the union. Resolutions were adopted not to patronize the San Francisco Oyster House. The members are intensely loyal to their union and its organization and continued growth will prove a boon to local organized labor.

PUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. HEILBORN.

The funeral of the late Charles Theodore Heilborn was held yesterday afternoon from Grace Episcopal Church, and the interment was in Greenwood Cemetery. Services at the grave were attended by only the members of the family and near relatives of deceased, but the church was filled with sorrowing friends. Rector W. Seymour Short conducted the services. The pall bearers were W. E. Tallant, R. B. Dyer, F. J. Taylor, W. L. Robb, B. Van Dusen and Judge Trenchard.

LOST HIS STAR.

The resignation of Water Bailiff S. J. Marshall was requested yesterday, by Master Fish Warden Van Dusen, and was promptly tendered and accepted. Marshall was charged with offering to accept a bribe of $5 each from 20 fishermen at Clifton to permit them to operate illegally until the end of the close season. Deputy Warden Webster and Marshall came down from patrolling the river in that vicinity yesterday at noon, and the matter was at once opened up. Marshall stoutly denied the charge, claiming that he had only been sounding the men to ascertain if possible where they had placed their salmon, as a considerable quantity of fish was supposed to have been taken and placed in hiding until the season should open so it could be disposed of. His story was very plausible but Mr. Van Dusen thought there was sufficient reason for dispensing with his services. Marshall was appointed on March 5, and lives at Mayger. He did not wish to say anything on the subject for publication saying that it would do him no good.

ALL WHITE HELP.

The Tallant-Grant Cannery, which began operations with the opening of the season yesterday morning, is the first salmon cannery to be operated by white labor exclusively. About 50 men, women, boys and girls are now at work, and the number will be doubled or tripled as enough fish are received to require it. Filling the cans is all done by women and girls, who also help in making cans and will do all the labelling and wrapping. President W. E. Tallant is confident of the success of the venture and says it will be no more expensive than the usual method of letting the work to Chinese at so much per case, after the new employes become accustomed to the work.

FIRST DAY'S FISHING.

The amount of salmon delivered at the various canneries yesterday is probably hardly a fair index to the size of the run now in the river, as some of the catches are the result of more than one day's fishing. That there are not as many fish in the river as was supposed is the general impression, though for the number of boats reporting yesterday the receipts were certainly large. Probably not less than 100 tons were delivered to the various canneries on the lower river. Some of them had been caught days ago and kept in hiding until yesterday. It will require a few days' time to determine just how the season opens.

WILL CLOSE OUT.

Daniel Shanahan will soon announce a closing-out sale of his dry goods stock preparatory to going out of the business. Mr. Shanahan has been a popular dry goods merchant in Astoria for 15 years and will now retire from the field.

BIDS ARE OPENED.

Captain Auhagen yesterday opened bids for the sale of the wrecking apparatus used on his ship Alsterlake at Sand Island. No information has been given out as to the contents of the bids, excepting that eight were received, and that no decision has yet been reached. It has been intimated that the local bids may be considered in preference to those received elsewhere. Before anyone is accepted the company owning the vessel must be communicated with in England.
