Arbor Day at McClure's

High School Students Will Make a Beautiful Lawn of Their School Grounds.

Owing to bad weather on Arbor day yesterday was employed at the Mc-Clure school for doing a large amount of good hard work in beautifying the grounds. An excellent start was made and when nature has done its share in developing the seeds and plants the school grounds will be very attractive The plan entered upon is for each department to have a portion of the grounds to beautify and to care for, not only during the present term, but indefinitely, each succeeeding set of pupils taking up the responsibility. Under the direction of the Woman's club the high school tudents are adopting different methods of beautifying the city. Yesterday afternoon was spent in arranging gardens and planting shrubs on the school grounds. Black soil was obtained on the hills outh of town and the young people equired much healthful exercise in helr tramp after it. There were four styles of garden built: A diamond hape by the sophmores, a star by he freshmen, a crescent by the junors and the senior class just made plain garden. Trees had already been planted on Eighth street and when the school grounds are made sufficiently be attacked. The Eighth grade have the plot west of the entrance, where border and two mounds are being prepared and an oriental plane tree has been planted. The boys and girls of the Fifth grade will have the care of promising chestnut tree, and have prepared a flower bed, as have also the Fourth, Third, Second and First grades. This excellent work is very attractive and instructive to the pupils and will result in beautiful lawn, if well cared

FULTON AND HERMANN.

United States Senator Fulton of Orethat Hon. Binger Hermann departed ter. The jewels found. on, and the two had a great time shaking hands and slapping each other on

"Herman, old man, how are you makng it" said Fulton, with another twist from which even the adept handshaker from Coos winced.

"I realize I've got a fight on my hands but things are coming my way. We will soon have the enemy on the

"I am coming over to help you carry the district, if you need me," said the man from Clatson, looking serious. "But I don't believe you need me," added Fulton, with a broader smile. "I am counting on you to lead the Fulton was heartily congratulated by many old friends, and took a short cut for the statehouse. He is looking as jaunty and buoyant as ever, and his senatorial career does not seem to disagree with him.-Salem Journal.

NEW GAME WARDEN.

It was made public yesterday that L. P. W. Quimby had sent in his If it is our Perfection Blend Mocha resignation as game warden for the and Java coffee, it's good. Johnson state and that J. W. Baker of Cottage Grove has been appointed by Governor Chamberlain as his successor. The resignation and the appointment will take effect July I. The headquarters for the office will possibly be made in the southern part of the state. There were seven applications from Portland for the job, which it was expected the governor would fill almost any day. Mr. Quimby says that he was prepared a month ago to turn over the affairs of the office without regret, excepting the natural feeling that he de- speak. Good music. sired to see a man of good judgment and experience do his level best to look out for the interests of the game in all Mr. Baker every assistance possible, and suggests that the office of game warden should not be removed from Portland. Mr. Quimby was appointed twice by Governor Geer. He had the selection of six deputies with limited means to patrol the state at $3 per day and expenses. Mr. Baker will have the disposal of six deputies in Oregon, who will receive not to exceed $250 a year for their services. Only the time actually consumed in attending to complaints of violations of the law is paid for. The county deputies named by the warden do not draw any pay.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

FOUR LUCKY ASTORIANS.

Will Go to the World's Fair at St. Louis, at Wise's Expense.

The other day Mr. Wise made glad the little hearts of the children by giving them noise producing toys. Now it is the turn for the older ones. In order to increase his business, Herman Wise the Reliable Clothier and Hatter, makes this offer: With every $19 worth of goods bought at his store Mr. Wise will give a coupon entitling the holder to participate in the distribution of the tickets.

You need not always buy $10 worth at one thine; save your sales checks given with every purchase and when you have $10 worth of checks you will receive a coupon.

Of course these four first-class round trip tickets including berths and meals will cost Mr. Wise about $500, but the increase in business which Mr. Wise will enjoy will bring him more than that amount back.

The St Louis fair will be the greatest the world has ever seen. The progress made in manufacture, the arts, and science since the last world's fair has been marvelous and probably never again will you have the opportunity to see

You know that Herman Wise has th largest and finest stock of men's and boys' togs, he has one price and treats his patrons generously. Why not trade with him and get the opportunity on Mr. George McBride these free round trip tickets to the won derful St. Louis fair?
