HOTEL OR COFFEE CLUB?

It would seem that all well-intenloned citizens would be glad to assist Vancouver last year. For catcher they an innocent and worthy enterprise such have been fortunate to secure the seras a coffee club. My goodlooking Ger- vices of "Dick" Halderman, of Warman friend in his letter to the Budget renton. Following is the lineup of the proves the contrary when he seeks to Astoria team: knock the coffee club on the ground that it will interfere with the building of a good hotel in Astoria! Don't that extinguish your breath? What has kept that hotel out of town all these years? Will the conversion of a couple of storerooms-unused for years-into a young men's resort be the means of keeping a modern hotel from being built here? Who in all the wide world should build a good hotel in Astoria, anyway, if not the railroad, which place, next Sunday, brings the people here and takes then away and which owns more property in the county than any other organization or individual? You live in a glass house, old boy. Better not write about mossbacks while your corporation does nothing to improve the city. Will the Coffee club interfere with the
