AN ORIGINAL FOOL.

In all the triumphant tour of the president of the United States we hear of no discordant sounds to mar the universal expression of good will and honor for the chief executive except from the Oregon town of Medford. Horace Mann, editor of the Medford Enquirer in what was purported to be an account of the president's appearance at Ashland, said:

"Roosevelt does not flatter the pictures one sees of him and looks for the world like some of those tough, bullet-headed Dutch bartenders one sees in many eastern cities, and when you get a good look at him you don't wonder that he boasts of shooting a Spaniard in the back, or loves the company of a lawless band of cowboys. Certainly there is nothing attractive in his looks. As a speaker he has a good voice, and enunciates clearly, but his speech at Ashland was of the most bombastic kind, and in which he took particular pains to say that Mr. Roosevelt was strictly 'it.'"

Such rot can do Mr. Roosevelt no harm, but shows to what depths of depravity some men can sink in the attempt to attract attention to themselves as original thinkers and writers.

Mr. Mann's striking originality in this case will earn for him the contempt and approbrium of all people, irrespective of party or creed.

It is estimated that there are 155,000 idle men in New York city notwithstanding the fact that every line of business is booming in the city. These men, but for lockouts, strikes and dissensions among rival labor unions, would be earning a total of $600,000 a day, or $2,000,000 a week. Not only is every penny of this stupendous sum lost to them, but industries and firms representing a total capitalization of $500,000,000 are at a standstill, with a consequent loss of profits. The trade paralysis here has reached a stage more extensive than any heretofore known, even during periods of great industrial depression. Most of the workmen are idle, not for any act of their individual unions, but for the acts of other unions, or because of the recent decision of employers to stand together and fight the demands of the unions by throwing the workmen of many unions into idleness.

For the first time in the annals of crime in Astoria two men have been fined for stealing chickens. And they were white men. A third man was arrested.

rested but he claims innocence, saying he was only arrested because he was with the fowl lifters and was the best looking man in the crowd. That a grown man should find it incumbent upon himself to confiscate his neighbors' chickens in this city of peace and plenty strikes people as being so funny as to be ridiculous. If they were colored men it might be supposed they were only obeying a law of nature made mandatory by generations of precedents, and it would be accepted as a matter of course even in Astoria. But for white men to steal chickens and get caught at it, seems almost like a criminal joke.

The evening train for Seaside very politely stopped at Eleventh street for returning passengers yesterday, owing to the up train having been so late as to allow them only a few minutes in the city.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Astoria Homes.

Hard to do house work with an aching back.
 Hours of misery at leisure or at work.
 If women only knew the cause.
 Backache pains come from sick kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure it. Astoria people endorse this.

Mrs. D. Murphy, widow, who lives at 295 Ivon street, Portland, says:

"Years ago when living in Kansas I was greatly troubled with kidney complaint. At that time I was, I might say perfectly helpless for months but in time it wore away as mysteriously as it came. It did not bother me again until last fall when there was every symptom of its return and knowing what I had suffered formerly I began to look around for something to check it. And on looking over the paper I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended so I took them as directed. It only required a few days treatment to ward off the attack. Since then I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a number of my friends."

Plenty more proof like this from Astoria people. Call at the drug store of Charles Rogers and ask what his customers report.

ROBBED THE GRAVE

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Chas. Rogers' drug store.
