LOGIC IN TACOMA.

Because there is deep water in the bay at Tacoma, that city is to have the trade of the Pacific coast. Such is the logic of the News, which pondercusly crushes the poor claims of all other ports on the Pacific in every second issue. No one has ever denied that there is deep water in the bay; least of all the skippers that have been depth that does exist there. As to the conclusions to be drawn from the admitted fact, there is, however, a difference of opinion. Tacoma people are told in the morning by the Ledger and in the evening by the News that they are to be citizens of the Liverpool-New York-Antwerp of the Pacific, because there is water enough at their doors to float the biggest vessel that has ever been built.

Cargoes? No matter about that; where there is water, there the cargoes policeman. "Blushing with mortificamust come. Therefore Portland is out tion, Officer Walsh helped the two fair of it. Astoria is not to be considered, hunks of dark meat to their feet." and the basin of the Columbia merely a feeder for the sound.

There are deep harbors on the west coast of Ireland. They are closer to America by many miles of rough sea than the ports from which the shipping is done. Yet Belfast, up a shallow and tortuous river channel, handles the trade. There is deep water in the harbor of Holyhead, where a big breakwater has been built that renders the port safe from storm, and where the London and Northeastern rallway carries the mails, but the ships are towed or steam past it into the channel of the Mersey, and make fast to the docks

Portland has the cargoes and the ships will go there. Astoria has more natural advantages than Portland, and when the railways awake to their own interests she will have the cargoes, and the ships will come here.

********** WESLEY AND METHODISM.

Two hundred years ago John Wesley was born, and today there are nineteen millions of people members of the so ciety that he founded. A sect that has made such astonishing progress must have some vital force, and it is probably to be found in the intense earnestness that has marked the members since Wesley's soul glowed with zeal.

lethargy, and the hard-drinking parson was almost as familiar a type as the hard-drinking squire. There was dittle of that spiritual element in the church, and the earnest soul of Wesley burned to revivify it. He had no idea out a little right away. A WORTHY MAYOR. Mayor Boyd of Spokane has struck the true note. When asked to start a fund for the relief of the Heppner sufferers he refused, saying that Spokane got no trade from Heppner, and that anything the town could do for the stricken people would be charitable.

The action of Spokane's mayor stands out in shining contrast to that of the hasty cities that rushed money and supplies to Heppner, without pausing to consider whether or not they would get any of their gifts back in the way of trade.
