TO BE PUT IN SERVICE.

The summer schedule of the A. & C. railroad which goes into effect July 4, will necessitate the pressing into service of three of the locomotives that have been laid up during the winter, and the consequent employment of a considerable number of additional men. It was stated at the offices of the company yesterday that no new rolling stock was required, but that some which had not been in constant use would be put into service to accommodate the expected heavy traffic, although the final arrangements have not yet been made.

PRISCILLA PERFORMERS.

All those participating in the opera "Priscilla," are to meet at Ross, Higgins slip Monday evening, 5:45. The launch Elk will be in readiness at that hour for the trip to Ilwaco.

GOOD-COMEDY FOR TONIGHT

The bill for tonight at Fishers' is the "Dangers of New York," in which the Allen Stock company will be seen to great advantage, as the play is almost strong on comedy. Seats will be on sale at the theater after 11 a. m. today.

The opera "Priscilla" under the direction of Mrs. J. T. Ross will be given in Ilwaco Monday evening. The launch Elk will take the party over and return immediately at the close of the performance.

There is much chattering in the county jail at present, five Chinese being held for the customs department awaiting proof of their right to enter the United States.

SOMETHING FOR GRADUATES.

Brooklyn Standard-Union.

The great middle state universities graduated, last week, their classes of the year. Within a few days the commencement curtains will be rung down, and "closed for the season" will be the legend in the classic precincts of education, as on the theatrical billboards and dead walls of the town. Already the skirmishers of the ambitious army which, after a season abroad and at the summer hotels, will come down upon us in the fall like the wolf on the fold to tell us how to run things, and to claim the places and the honors which they fondly believe are waiting for them, are in evidence, and may be "met with" in almost any metropolitan center of summer attractions.

Reviewing the presidential wisdom which, in stereotyped and desiccated baccalaureates, has been showered on the graduating classes—and, to be perfectly frank, more monotonous reading and a finer assortment of well-worn and carefully preserved platitudes would be difficult to find—there is not much encouragement for any radical or important departure in experience. The young men and women have been told, for the hundredth time, that never did the world need as it does now just such services as they can render. Mr. Dill, the trust builder, and Mr. Beck, the "trust buster," agree in that; indeed, one might think that the world had called a halt, breathless, until the class of 1902 can take the helm. That well-worn fallacy that there's always room at the top, and that every boy may aspire to be president of the United States, and other glittering generalities, which will not for a minute stand the test of actual examination, are repeated ad infinitum, as though repetition were demonstration. By the simplest rule of mathematics these chances are infinitesimal; absolutely negligible factors in the problems of life.

But a hearty welcome and godspeed to the workers of the class of 1902! There is room, if not at the top, and plenty of it. Moloch, the fabled destroyer, was not more ravenous and merciless than is modern metropolitan civilization in the fierceness of the struggle and the intensity of the heat with which it sweeps up and blasts, if it does not wholly consume, new life, new blood, and the thought and inspiration of the young. The rolls of the dead and dying, of the stricken and the wounded, grow apace, and those who are in the brunt and the front of the conflict can do no better than to welcome with eagerness the new recruits. Years ago Mr. Greely told an applicant who could "do anything" that he had been looking thirty years for that kind of a man, and all over this great city hundreds of men are still anxiously waiting for those who can do something and can be trusted to do it well. There are signs, however, neither re-

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY.

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes Jensen will be held from Pohl's this afternoon at 1 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Harold Oberg. Mrs. Jensen died suddenly early yesterday morning of heart disease, after an illness of some duration.

GETS DOUBLE DOSE.

John Takala was fined $10 in the justice court for an attempted assault on Fish Warden Webster, and will have to appear tomorrow to answer to a charge of fishing without having the number painted on his boat as prescribed by law. It was when Deputy Warden Webster spoke to Takala about not having a number on his boat that the trouble arose. The fisherman picked up a club and raised it as if to strike Webster when Bailiff Juhrs covered him with a revolver.

RIOT ON STEAMSHIP.

Soldiers Called Out to Suppress Rum-pus By Chinese Coolies.

San Francisco, June 27.—The steamer Peru arrived from the Mexican coast yesterday bringing news of trouble on board the Ching Wo, the second of the newly established China Commercial Steamship line, which has for its principal purpose the colonization of Mexico with Chinese. Mexican soldiers were called out to suppress an incipient riot which broke out among a horde of Chinese coolies on board the steamer at Manzanillo. The lives of the Captain and officers were threatened by a mob of 500 angry Chinese and only the presence of the soldiers prevented bloodshed. As it was, several Chinese were injured and the leaders of the revolt were placed under arrest.

HORSE THIEVES CAPTURED.

Dillon, Montana, June 27.—Sheriff Jenkins, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, has arrived here with a herd of 12 horses, stolen from the ranches in Idaho and Montana during the past month, and two noted horse thieves were captured after a chase lasting 10 days and covering over 100 miles.

WORST OF ALL EXPERIENCES.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Brown, a lady of Brownsville, Va. she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach, and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50 cents. It's guaranteed by Charles Rogers, druggist.

Only one remedy in the world that will at once stop itchiness of the skin in any part of the body; Doan's ointment. At any drug store, 50 cents.
