THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

THE Astoria Chamber of Commerce was organized for the promotion of one thing only, namely, the advancement of the business interests of all classes of people resident in the city and vicinity.

Organized effort on the part of our business men is the sure way to accomplish things for the city, because it indicates a condition of harmony and feeling of interest among them that stands for something broader and more patriotic than a lack of public spirit made manifest by dwarfed membership in the one body that should wield the greatest amount of influence in the upbuilding of the city than any similar organization.

The Chamber of Commerce numbers among its members some of the most progressive business and professional men of the city; its officers are enthusiastic and enterprising, and the field before them is rich of resources and inviting.

The interests of Astoria and the business men of Astoria are identical.

HON. Binger Hermann visited Tillamook recently to confer with the Chamber of necessary improvements to the Tillamook bar and harbor.

THE problem of advertising the Lewis and Clark fair in a manner unique and profitable is perplexing the fair directors.

THE state supreme court will soon pass upon the constitutionality of the initiative and referendum amendment.

GENTLY, dear reader, gently! Only a typographical error in saying that the debt assumed by the Chamber of Commerce Monday night was $214,560.

The selection of Senator Wehrung to take charge of Oregon's exhibit at the St. Louis exposition is meeting with cordial approval in the state press.

OUR motto:—Astoria and Clatsop county first, the rest of the world afterwards.
