THE ASTORIAN PUBLISHING CO.,

AN English scholar has recently been discoursing on the wisdom of the ages What is the wisdom of the ages? Does anybody know? There have been men who have laid down hard and fast rules of living wisely, but, with few exceptions, they themselves neglected to practice what they preached. This thing called wisdom is hard to define. It probably stands more for pedantry and bogotry than anything else. Human wisdom is human, and therefore un imperfect thing. What it considers right today may be wrong tomorrow. It is too much of an abstraction and, for this very reason, hard to live up to. It is too apt to ignore the concrete the prejudices and folbles of mankind. Wisdom is a most beautiful thing, like wise peculiar. He who pretends to be wise is frequently the most foolish of men. Our boasted knowledge is largely delusion. It has no permanent value. It stops at the brink of the grave and is forgotton when the mouth that preached it is filled with dust.

UNITED States Senator Levi Ankeny of Walla Walla has just emerged from a local fight that has taken the stiffening out of his military moustache. The boss of Walla Walla barely escaped defeat at the polls, his candidate for mayor receiving a bare majority of 15, and his candidate for chief of police perishing under an avalanche of 303 votes. Frank Kees the defeated candidate for chief of police, was a member of the last legislature, and office "devil" is included in the propmade the nominating speech in the house for Ankeny. He was also one of the principal advocates for the bill to muzzle the press, which was inglorlously defeated. Thus does Walla Walla administed a severe rebuke to machine rule.

THE people who rush through life in the East at the rate of sixty miles per hour are reported as dying on the streets from the effects of heat from Old Sol's fiery rays. What a difference exists in Astoria and throughout the State of Oregon. We are blessed with a mild climate, a generous amount of sunshine and all the rain that is good for us. In the face of Eastern statistics Oregon people have nothing to complain of, not even the constant downpour of the heavenly waterworks.

ADVERTISE in the home paper The Morning Astorian. Apropos of advertising as a good investment read what Harper's Weekly has to say on the subject: "This is the age of display, every one turns advertiser; posters are needed today, even by king and kalser. Don't be frigid and proud, act as your cousins and kin do; capture the eye of the crowd-everything into the window." To which we would add. "everything into the advertising columns of The Astorian.

WHITE ribboners of the State of Oregon are preparing to make deadly onslaught on the saloons that flourish in cities, towns and hamlets. Dr. G. L. Tufts, the new superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League appointed by the general superintendent of the American Anti-Saloon League has arrived in Portland from the East, and will at once lay a method of organizntion before the pasters of the churches of the state.

THE city dads of Portland have repented, and the heart of the small boy again. The circus license will be re duced from $1200 to $500, and Ringling Bros., will pitch their tents and parade the graceful elephants and "Rube" band as of yore. Sensible city papas.

THE Corvallis Gazette, as if to intensify the warm weather, devotes a column of editorial space to a blister ing discussion of the warm subject, "The Elimination of Hell." The article does not state whether or not the

Mrs. D. Murphey, widow, who lives at 395 Ivon street, Portland, says:

"Years ago, when living in Kansas, I was greatly troubled with kidney complaint. At that time I was, I might say, perfectly helpless for months but in time it wore away as mysteriously as it came. It did not bother me again until last fall when there was every symptom of its return and knowing what I had suffered formerly I begun to look around for something to check it. and on looking over the paper I noticed Doan's Kldney Pills highly recommend ed so I procured them and took them as directed It only required a few day's treatment to ward off the attack. Since then I have recommended Doan's
