BODY OF POPE LEO IS NOW ENTOMBED

Impressive Funeral Services Held Yesterday In Rome Over Remains of Late Pontiff--Three Caskets Used

Strange Sounds and Sights of Soldering Lead Coffin Softened By Sweet Singing and Prayers By the Clergy--Shrunken Features Covered By Silk Veil

Rome, July 25.—The funeral services held over the remains of the late pope today, were remarkably effective. The bier bearing the body was received by Cardinal Oreglia. It was placed in the center, backed by the altar. Around two sides of the chapel, in choir seats, were 26 cardinals. The body was sprinkled with holy water and absolution was given. The major domo then covered the venerable features and hands with a white silk veil. Over this was spread a large silk veil which covered the whole body. A fire was lighted in a brazier and was blown by bellows, the sparks reaching almost to the ceiling, while Mgr. Bartoloni read the oratio brevis, eulogizing the dead pontiff, and the notary pontif, 84 years old, read the burial record, the services which he performed upon the occasion of the death of Pope Gregory XVI and Pope Pius IX. Monsignors of the basilica, aided by the noble guard, then laid all that was mortal of Leo XIII in a cypress coffin lined with red satin and bearing on the cover an inlaid cross.

When all had been arranged supreme prayer was said and the last benediction given. The second coffin was of lead and very heavy. On the cover at the head was a cross, just below which was a skull and crossbones. This coffin was sealed personally with the arms of the camerlingo. The major domo, the chaplain of the basilica, lighted the brazier which was used in soldering the coffin, producing sounds and sights strange to see and hear in a church. These two coffins were closed in a third casket of polished walnut without decorations.

The sad duties were softened and sweetened by the sweetness of the singing of the choir and prayers of the clergy. When the last supreme moment came, the heavy coffins, weighing in all 1,322 pounds, were rolled out of the chapel, followed by all the cardinals. Priests were attached to the coffin and it was raised into the stone sarcophagus above the door to remain until the grateful cardinals created by the late pope shall erect a suitable tomb in the basilica of St. John Lateran.

New York, July 25.—The Herald's Rome correspondent cables the following: The ring of the fisherman which should have been found on the hand of the pope, has disappeared. It is not a question of its material as of its intrinsic value, for the ring of the fisherman is used to seal the papal bulls and is the outward sign of authority of the pope.

When the cardinal camerlingo certifies the death of a pope he takes the ring of the fisherman from the chamberlain of his holiness. It is then destroyed in the presence of all the cardinals at the first meeting of the sacred college held after the pope's death. But when Cardinal Oreglia, the present camerlingo, had certified to the death of Leo XIII Mgr. Bisletti had a key to the deepest despair and had to admit that the ring had disappeared. Cardinal Oreglia, who had, as is the custom, brought his declaration of having received the ring from the papal chamberlain, all written out, had to put it back in his pocket.

Friends of Mgr. Bisletti hope that when the seals are removed from the cabinets of the late pope the ring will be found in one of them, but very little confidence is felt. The ring should never have left the pope's hand and every one denies having touched it.

JEALOUS MAN KILLS WIFE
LOOKS FIRST FOR ALLEGED PAR-AMOUR, THEN RETURNS TO COMMIT DEED.

Marshfield, Or., July 25.—H. Keller, of Langlos today killed his wife, nee Appleby, and then shot himself. Keller was extremely jealous of his wife and suspected undue intimacy between her and a young man named Adolphson. This morning he started out after young Adolphson, armed with a revolver, but being unable to find him, went home where he committed the terrible deed.

Two children, small boys, survive the couple. Keller was of a retiring disposition and kind to his family, friends can only attribute the crime to a state of mind bordering on insanity.

MURDERERS ARE RAMPANT
KILL INNOCENT NEGRO BUT FAIL TO LYNCH INTENDED VICTIM THROUGH NERVOUS SHERIFF.

Danville, Ill., July 25.—While a mob of 900 men was on its way to the county jail to lynch Jas. Wilson, the Bloomington negro who had confessed to assaulting Mrs. Thos. Burgess, an unknown negro was shot and killed by one of the mob. This negro, a refugee from Evansville, was then lynched by the mob and three other negroes who attacked the whites, were badly beaten after which the mob resumed its march.

When the mob reached the jail it was fired upon by the sheriff. Three persons were wounded and the crowd scattered.

MAN ROBBED AS HUGE JOKE
SEATTLE MEN HOLD UP SAN FRANCISCAN AND THINK IT IS FUNNY

Seattle, July 25.—Joe Sullivan and Leo Strand held up Alex. Thomas yesterday morning and robbed him. He had come from San Francisco with them and reported to the officer on the beat. The policemen chased the robbers to the end of the tide flats, and at the point of revolvers forced them to surrender. They confessed later but said it was a joke. Thomas lost $50 and all the money was found on Strand.

VICTORIA CREWS WIN.

CALLS IRRIGATION CONGRESS.
Salt Lake, July 25.—The official call of the eleventh National Irrigation Congress which will be held in Ogden in September was issued today. It calls attention to the importance of the convention not only to the west, but to every state in the union.

most every instance and came back pre-tested. The seeker of employment therefore was minus $15 in good money which presumably fell into the hands of the swindlers in Cleveland.

TREACHERY CAUSES CARNAGE

SECOND OFFICER SHOT SUPER-IOR—TURNED GUNS AND SUR-RENDERED FORT.

New York, July 25.—According to stories brought here by the French warship Joffre, cables the Port of Spain correspondent of the Herald, the capture of Ciudad Bolivar and the defeat of the revolution was greatly facilitated by the treachery of the second officer in charge of the fort.

He is said to have shot the commanding officer, turned the guns on the rebels and surrendered to the government forces. It is estimated that 1500 men were killed and wounded during the fight.

SURE IT WASN'T RAINIER.

Chicago, July 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Tacoma, Wash., says: H. M. Sarvant, of Tacoma, and Dr. William Betts of New Orleans have just returned from an ascent of Mount Tacoma. This is the first time in four years that the big rock has been scaled, as the ascent is growing more difficult every year.

THUGS ARE BADLY THUMPED

WATCHMAN IS ATTACKED AND BEATS OFF ONE MAN AND KILLS THE OTHER

Chicago, July 25.—Shattering his lantern over the head of one of three men who attacked him last night, A. C. Rogers, a watchman for the Forbes Tanning Company, then shot another of his assailants. The wounded man died at the county hospital. From papers found in his possession he is supposed to be Chas. J. Allen, a sailor. The shooting followed an alleged attempt at burglary and a struggle in which the watchman was badly beaten. When the police arrived on the scene the watchman was lying almost unconscious over the body of the dying man. The companions of the wounded man had fled.

SAD ACCIDENT RECALLED

LITIGATION OVER FORTUNE OF $16,000,000 SETTLED BY DECISION OF THE COURTS

New York, July 24.—One of the most startling accidents in the history of yachting around New York has been recalled by the appellate division which has handed down a decision settling the long-standing litigation over the $16,000,000 estate of William T. Garner, the print goods manufacturer, who with his wife, his brother-in-law and a guest, was drowned by the capsizing of his yacht, the Mohawk, in the harbor July 20 1876. The estate is divided among three daughters, Marquis De Breteuil, Lady Gordon Cumming and Countess Leon De Moltke-Hultfeldt. The court set aside part of the will, because of the death of Mrs. Garner and divided the estate according to the remaining provision of the document.

Garner, at the time of his death, was the most extensive manufacturer of print goods in the country. His wife was Miss Marcella the descendant of an old southern family.

LIBELED FOR BIG SALVAGE

TUGS PULLED VESSEL FROM DANGEROUS REEF AND NOW THEY WANT THE EARTH.

Honolulu, July 25.—(By Pacific cable.)—The steamship Claverling has been libeled for $5,000 salvage by the owners of the tugs Counselman and United States which pulled her off from a perilous position on a reef at the entrance to this harbor. She was en route from the Orient to San Francisco via this port and Mexico with passengers and cargo and grounded on the reef when making port on the night of July 20 but was pulled off at the following high water practically undamaged. The Claverling is a vessel of 2,135 tons register. She belongs to the Chinese Commercial Steamship Co.

Philadelphia, July 25.—A serious blow was dealt last night to the Central Union of Textile workers, which is directing the Textile fight, when the Loom Fixers Protective and Beneficial association withdrew from that organization. It is predicted that other small organizations will follow suit.

SHORT SESSION WAS FEVERISH AND EXCITED

Day Passed Without Announcement of Additional Failures, Which Relieved Tense Situation

Fact That Loans Will Carry Few Days Gives Breathing Spell--Nothing Had Occurred to Account For Shrinkage In Securities--Conditions Very Disquieting

New York, July 25.—Today's short session of the stock exchange was feverish and excited, as an after effect of the failures of the two important firms yesterday and the dread that those failures would have a sequel in the suspension of other embarrassed firms.

Despite the fact that loans made on Friday carry over until Monday, thus thus giving a breathing spell for depressed firms, absence of announcements of failures was not entirely reassuring. There has been a continued liquidation this week, but it has been more scattered and irregular than in the preceding period. This liquidation was obvious, however, and the mystery of its sources and causes added to its influence in unsettling confidence. News from the business world has continued highly favorable and until Friday's failures nothing appeared to account for shrinkage of securities aside from the announcement of failures in the building trade after the middle of the week, which served to renew the nervous tone of speculation.

The precipitate decline in iron and steel stocks, especially of the United States Steel Stocks to a point below that touched in the panic of May 3, 1901, was doubtless a disquieting influence.

TO CONTROL TIMBER MARKET

San Francisco, July 25.—The Bull-

etain says E. H. Harriman and Jas. Hill are uniting in a great timber deal whereby they, with a number of associates, will control the lumber market of the world. They are securing large tracts of forest land in northern California, Oregon and Idaho through their agents who have been for some time quietly buying property on the coast. Among the associates of the two railroad magnates are Frederick Weyerhaeuser, of Minneapolis, T. B. Walker of Minneapolis and Jacob Blodgett of Grand Rapids.

With many minor holdings which Harriman and his associates may count on it is said that the plan is to merge more valuable lands controlled by the Hill roads and Southern Pacific into a trust.

The Southern Pacific's principal holdings are represented in a grant 10 miles each side of its tracks lying between the southern boundary line of Oregon and to a point south of Portland and consists of about 1,000,000 acres of fir and sugar pine. In his plans to place these lands in a pool, Harriman does so conditionally with provisions for the protection of the company's creditors to whom all the lands of the company are pledged in security for its indebtedness.

With the lands of the Hill and Harriman roads and those of Walker, Weyerhaeuser and others in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California under the control of Harriman and his associates would be in a condition to control the lumber markets of the world.

WILL OUST MOSQUITOES

ASSOCIATION FORMED IN NEW JERSEY FOR PURPOSE OF RID-DING OUT PEST

New York, July 25.—Another step has been taken in war on the mosquito in New Jersey. Representatives of twenty-one cities and towns, at a meeting in Newark have formed an organization to be known as the conference on mosquito extermination. The object set forth is to rid New Jersey of the mosquito, both of the marsh breeding and malarial varieties. Practical work will begin at once and remedial legislation vigorously pushed.

RETURNED TO POSITION

New York, July 24.—Graham H. Harris, three times president of the board of education was returned to that office last night after the lapse of one year. He succeeds Clayton Mark.

INSIST ON SENDING CATTLE

CATTLEMEN ARE INDIGNANT AT EFFORT TO BAR EXHIBIT OF STOCK AT ST. LOUIS.

Denver, Colo., July 25.—The news today says: The stock men of the West will soon hold a meeting in Denver for the purpose of inducing the world's fair commissioners at St. Louis to rescind the order against an exhibition of range cattle at the exposition. The stockmen advised against the order of Chief Coburn of the live stock exhibit, that no animal with horns can be exhibited at the fair unless it is led around by a halter.

Western stockmen consider this an outrage and at their meeting they will protest and ask that the order be rescinded. If this fails of result an appeal will be sent to President Roosevelt. The western stockmen are determined to have an exhibit of range cattle and if they cannot have it they say they might as well send nothing.
