WEATHER FORECAST—Oregon and Washington—Tuesday, fair.

JUST IN—A. & M. Smith's imported Scotch Kipper-herring. JOHNSON BROS.

SAILING OF THE ELMORE—The steamer Sue H. Elmore leaves for Tillamook bay points tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock.

IS OPERATED ON—Joe Souvenir, of Cathlamet, who has been in the local hospital for the past week, was operated on yesterday for appendicitis. The operation was quite successful and the patient is already on the road to recovery.

LAUNCHING THIS WEEK—The Fox, Captain John Reid's new launch, will be launched the latter part of this week if it is possible to get her in readiness by that time. Work is progressing rapidly on the boat and it is not unlikely that the launching will take place as scheduled.

CHIEFS ARE COMING—The famous Alameda crew of oarsmen will arrive in the city next Friday to participate in the regatta races. The committee will have all arrangements made for the entertainment of the visitors and their welcome will be a royal one. Word was received yesterday that the Victoria and Vancouver crews will leave for Astoria on the 15th.

RAINIER AND LONG BEACH GAMES—Two games of baseball were played on Sunday that will be of interest to Astoria fans. At Rainier Cathlamet was sent to the foot of the class by a score of 4 to 3 in favor of Rainier, and at Long Beach Fort Canby scored 4 as against 3 for Seaview. In the latter game the Seaview boys had Sheridan and Paase for battery and Crawford and Ford did the honors for Fort Canby.

SHERIFF'S SALE—Sheriff Linville yesterday sold at auction lot 4, block 43, and lot 7, block 10, McClure's, to satisfy an execution in the sum of $322.70 in the matter of the Astoria Savings Bank plaintiff against the Astoria Meat Co., et al, defendants. This is the property in which Isaac Bergman and L. E. Howes were interested. Part of it consists of the property on which the Troy laundry is located. It was bid in by the judgment creditors for the amount of the judgment.

TO ATTEND ROAD CONFERENCE—County Judge Trenchard, County Commissioners Andrew Young C. C. Clark and Road Master John Frye leave tonight for Seaside, and tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock they will start for Nehalem City, where the conference with the county court of Tillamook county will be held to discuss the proposed highway to connect the city of Astoria with the county seat of Tillamook county. County Clerk Clinton yesterday received a telegram from the county clerk of Tillamook county asking what time the clatsop county officials will reach there.

CLEANING THE STREETS—Slowly but surely the wheels of municipal enterprise revolve, but everything comes to him who waits and Superintendent of Streets James F. Kearney has at last got a small force of men at work on the streets. House cleaning for the regatta has begun in earnest and will be continued, says Mr. Kearney, until every street has been subjected to the process of renovation. Plank streets over the water will be sluiced, and a broom brigade will do the industrious street on the other thoroughfares. Ninth street is the first to take its annual bath.

JUDGE ANDERSON'S COURT—In the police court yesterday the sum of $90 was realized from fines and forfeitures. There were gambling complaints filed against Foote Loy and William Little and each paid in $25. There were four plain drunks who added $5 each to the city's revenues by fines and forfeitures, and Fritz Lunquist and O. Anderson were each fined $10 for engaging in a disorderly fight. Anderson insisted that Lunquist struck first and when asked by Judge Anderson if he struck back, gleefully replied that he had, his manner indicating that such action would exonerate him.

HIS ARM BROKEN—While driving on Commercial street Sunday afternoon Joe Hobson had the misfortune to become mixed up in a runaway that resulted in a broken left arm near the wrist. The singletree broke which caused the horse to become unmanageable. Every effort to calm the animal proving futile young Hobson leaped from the buggy, his left arm arresting his body from the force of the fall. Dr. Cordiner dressed the arm and Mr. Hobson was on the street yesterday. The young man came down from Portland a few days ago to spend a short vacation being a student in the Holmes business college. He is a member of the O. N. G. and intended to go into camp with his comrades at Gearhart. He will now be obliged to forego the outing.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH—News of a narrow escape from death of the Misses Munson of Portland, that occurred at Ilwaco last Thursday has been received in Astoria. The young women have been spending the summer on the beach, and were coming to town in a buggy driven by Lloyd Hunter. At a point where the wagon road runs parallel with the tracks of the I. R. & N. R. R., a train sped by. The engine barely missed striking the rig, but the horse became frightened, lurched forward and threw one of the ladies out. She struck the ground heavily, alighting on her back, and was rendered unconscious. Her face and head were badly bruised, and her back injured. She is still suffering from the effects of the fall.

FRISKY WITH A GUN—Frank Cabanis, who is said to be addicted to the morphine habit, was arraigned before Justice Goodman yesterday to explain an alleged assault with a deadly weapon on one Henry Liggett. Cabanis claimed that he was in a state of intoxication at the time the assault occurred, which was about 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, and that he was not responsible for his actions. By agreement between the complaining witness and the district attorney the complaint was changed to common assault and the defendant allowed to plead guilty to that charge. He will appear in the court this morning to receive sentence. It is probable that he will be fined the limit with the alternative of leaving the city, as he is not considered a desirable man to have around.

ANDREW MATSON INSANE—After being discharged from the hospital on Sunday morning as being cured, Andrew Matson, 26 years of age and single, was found by Patrolman Gammal on Sunday afternoon in a state of suffering, and he was returned to the hospital. Later in the day the hospital people notified the police that they could not do anything to relieve the patient, as he was subject to epileptic fits. They requested that he be removed, and this was done. Matson was then taken to the county hospital and a commission on insanity yesterday pronounced him insane. He was committed to the asylum. He will be taken to Salem tonight by Sheriff Linville. The hallucination from which the unfortunate man suffers is principally religion, but he also labors under the delusion that there is a small regiment of soldiers camping on his trail.

BORROWED A SUIT OF CLOTHES—The explanation given by Thomas Taylor, arrested on complaint of Henry Salminen, who charges him with stealing a suit of clothes worth the whole of $4, is that he merely borrowed the wardrobe to make himself presentable at a certain place where he was booked for a social call. This is the story he told Justice Goodman yesterday afternoon when arraigned in court, and he was given until this morning at 10 o'clock to build a defense around it. The complaining witness alleges that Henry has been in his employ for about three weeks, but was paid off on Saturday. Sunday the suit of clothes was located on the back of the ex-employee, and the arrest followed. Taylor is a respectable looking fellow, and his personal appearance as he stood trembling at the bar of justice yesterday, indicated that it would be an act of kindness on the part of Mr. Salminen if he donated the clothes to the unfortunate man, as the clothes he had on were in a condition akin to the Kansas City platform—all falling apart.

ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF GRASSES—J. Q. A. Bowby is in receipt of a communication from Secretary G. L. Birrell of the Oregon information bureau at Portland, acknowledging receipt of the samples of grasses grown in Clatsop county, gathered at the instigation of the Chamber of Commerce and the "Push" club. Mr. Birrell says: "We will make a special effort to place them where they will be seen to the best advantage. We desire to express our appreciation of the quality of the samples. They are really fine. We will supply the names of the unknown grasses as soon as we get hold of one of the professors who we expect to visit us within a day or two. We are using the tune number of the 'Exposition' which has a write up that shows the resources of the county. The grasses were photographed before being sent to Portland, and the photographs will soon be ready. Every citizen who has the interest of the county at heart should procure one of these photographs and place it where it will be seen to best advantage.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN EAGLE SALOON—Sunday in Uniontown was disturbed by a shooting affray in the Eagle saloon, as a result of which T. Larsen, deliveryman for Allen's grocery house, and Isaak Norland were both slightly injured by a man named Israel Mattson. One of the bullets entered Norland's leg in the fleshy part of the thigh, and Larsen's finger was grazed by the same piece of lead. The row was precipitated over a game of cards, in which Mattson was a small loser. It is said that the assailant and other players were intoxicated. Mattson protested against the game, he claims, and alleged that the other players were cheating. He finally got up from the game and left the house, saying that if he found out that he had been robbed he would make things interesting for those who were guilty. He returned in about fifteen minutes with a loaded revolver, which he pointed at the men, saying that he would give them just one hour in which to leave the city. Then, to emphasize his determination he pulled the trigger and blood was spilled and flesh torn. Patrolman Settem was called in and he placed Mattson under arrest. The prisoner was arraigned before Justice Goodman yesterday, and the case was continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE—The Chamber of Commerce at the regular meeting last night discussed a blue print of the survey of the Columbia river in the vicinity of Smith's Point, which has just been completed and a copy of which was forwarded to the chamber by Major W. C. Langfitt, chief of the engineering corps. Major Langfitt requested that the print be submitted to the chamber with a view of ascertaining the ideas of the body as to what dredging it is desired to have done and at what locations. The chart shows the south channel from Astoria to Flavel. The secretary was instructed to notify Major Langfitt that it is the sense of the chamber that dredging shall be done between buoys Nos. 5 and 9, and that a uniform depth of 25 feet of water at low tide be established. At the present time, it was stated, ships drawing 22 feet of water go around at low tide between these buoys. Communications were read from Senators Mitchell, Fulton and Representative Binger Hermann acknowledging receipt of the resolutions of the chamber in which it is resolved that the secretary of war be requested to direct the proper persons to examine the pierhead line in the Columbia river along Astoria, east of the A. & C. R. R. depot with a view of recommending such changes in the pierhead line and other improvements of the harbor and channel as shall be deemed necessary and conducive to the best interests of the harbor and the city of Astoria. The writers stated that they either had or would bring the matter to the immediate attention of the secretary of war and urge its favorable consideration. Harvey W. Scott informed the chamber by letter that in regard to the request of the chamber for a memorial to Lewis and Clark at or near the spot where the explorers passed the winter of 1805-6, the subject would be referred to the proper committee of the board of directors of the commission. The president announced that any member who desired to attend the trans-Mississippi commercial congress which meets at Seattle this month as delegate from Astoria should notify the president immediately and the proper credentials would be issued. Such delegate to pay his own expenses. Miles Bros., of San Francisco, the microscope and bioscope picture makers, submitted a proposition to the chamber to take a series of moving pictures of the regatta for exhibition throughout the United States. They stated that it would be an advertisement that would yield big returns. They wanted $225 to do the job, and because of the price the chamber was compelled to lay the proposition on the table. James Winter, master millwright, was elected to membership.

FROM THE PEOPLE
EDITOR ASTORIAN—Dear Sir:
I shall esteem it a personal favor if you will kindly inform me who is the person authorized to have the garbage removed from the streets and back yards many of which are littered with ill-smelling debris. I have been with the chief of police and he referred me to the health officer, who told me to go to the city attorney. That official is out of the city, so what must a man do?
With out police and health officers it seems to me that we should have some place or person to which we can submit our complaints. If people do not know enough to keep their back yards clear of garbage, it is up to somebody to teach them, and to see that they observe the letter of the law. I believe there is some person whose duty it is to look after the health of the city. Please advise me. T. B. BIDWELL.
(We would advise the writer to submit his complaint to the board of health should the city health officer decline to receive it. Councilman Morton, chairman of the council committee on health and police would be a responsible person to advise of unsanitary conditions. —EDITOR.)
