SHERIFF RONEY INJURED-Sherf Roney of South Bend met with an ecident at Long Beach yesterday that will likely keep him laid up for some time. The official was working on the railroad track when he slipped and fell, He was unable to rise without assistance so was taken to his home. He was found to be suffering from a fractured ankle which, while not serious, will necessitate carefull nursing.

TAYLOR BOUND OVER-Thomas Taylor who was arrested on Monday on complaint of Henry Salminen who accuses him of stealing a suit of clothes, failed to convince Justice Goodman yesterday that he only borrowed the glad rags, and he was bound over to the circuit court in bonds of $200. which he did not furnish. He was accordingly taken back to jail. Tears of as he told the sad, sad story of his life, but the court has seen similar waterworks in action, and he had another story as well as the borrowed suit of clothes in mind when he entered the or-

> WORK OF THE HOSE TEAM-The few days remaining until the regatta should cause local athletes who are to compete in the events to redouble their efforts in training. The members of the hose team have been doing good work but Captain Brown is concerned that mercof the men do not turn out at the tests that are held in the evenings. There are 18 men who are supposed to be in active training but more than half of these do not engage in the trials. The team is well equipped, as well or better than any that are scheduled to appear here, and concerted action means an easy victory. The team work is now being supplemented by foot races, this latter practice being engaged in every morning at an early

WHERE RACING WILL BE GOOD-Visitors to the Oregon state fair this fall witness the greatest racing ever seen in the state. Salem business men have raised a purse of $2000 for 2:17 pacers to be raced for on Salem day, which has 30 horses entered. These horses are from Idaho, California and Montana, and it is expected at least 20 of them will start, furnishing the largest field of high-class horses ever seen on the Pacific coast. Portland, too, has contributed a purse of $2000 for 2:20 trot ers to be raced for on Portland day This race has 27 horses entered, of which most of them will start, making two of the greatest racing events ever held this side of the Rocky mountains.

The tender Heather made a coast trip yesterday, placing a whistling buoy at Tillamook bay and a channel buoy at Nehalem bay. Returning the Heath er took on board the engineers at Tillamook rockwho have been engaged in placing the donkey boiler taken to the rock by the tender some days ago. The Heather reported the sea to be very smooth with a heavy fog falling.

OVER 600 LIVES LOST. Full particulars were recently received from the Samoan islands in regard to the terrible hurricane which visited those islands and in which over 600 other good fruit and vegetables in marlives were lost. Such a loss is appalling, but after all is not to be compared with the numbtr of persons who have lost their lives from indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation and other stomach troubles. The number has, however, been considerably reduced since the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, 50 years ago, because it positively cures all such ailments. Your life and health are too precious to experiment with, therefore try this famous remedy first of all and be cured
