MANIAC USES DEADLY GUN

While Open Air Concert Is In Progress Crazy Man Fires Into Crowd

BAND LEADER FALLS FIRST

Four Killed and Many Wounded—Officer Ends Carnage By Shooting Demon

Winfield, Kan., Aug. 13.—At 9 o'clock tonight while Carver's band was playing its weekly concert on Main street to a crowd of 5,000 people, Gilbert Twigg, a crazy man, opened fire on the crowd with a double-barreled shotgun loaded with heavy bullets. As a result four are now dead, three are dying and no less than 20 injured, perhaps five or six fatally.

The band had just finished a selection when Twigg stepped out from an alley half a block distant and deliberately taking aim first two shots at the bandstand. The band leader fell at the first shot. The crowd not realizing what had happened, rushed toward the maniac, believing it accidental shooting. As the crowd closed in the crazy man discharged two more shots at them, causing the crowd to scatter in every direction. Men and women howled and shrieked and ran, but no one seemed able to stop the frightful carnage until Officer George Nicholas confronted him and fired a bullet into his head. Before life was extinct, however, the demented man drew a revolver and fired a shot into his own body. The dead and wounded by this time were scattered all over the street, and frightened people, not knowing where the shooting was coming from, sought safety in every quarter. It was fully half an hour before they realized what had happened and recovered sufficiently to take care of the injured.

PRISON OFFICERS RETIRE

MCPHERSON AND MCGORMICK, WARDEN AND GUARD, QUIT PENITENTIARY.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 13.—Two officers quit the Oregon penitentiary tonight. Edward A. McPherson, warden, and Jay McGormick, chapel guard, are the officers the institution loses.

Jay McGormick is an old prison man, having served under Superintendents Gilbert and Lee. It fell to his lot once to kill a prisoner who had scaled the walls and refused to halt when ordered to do so. He was also one of the officers that mounted the wall and officers that they were making their memorable escape.

McPherson was one of the first prison appointees under Governor Chamberlain. He was given a place as deputy warden before Superintendent Lee's term expired. It was he that climbed over the walls to show that he could elude the vigilance of two night guards. The two guards were discharged for not killing the intruder and McPherson was made warden.

SECRETARIES CALL

Oyster Bay, Aug. 13.—Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock will visit President Roosevelt tomorrow. The statement is made that the call of the secretaries is for the purpose of discussing departmental business.

DESTITUTION APPALLING.

Kingston, Aug. 13.—The destitution in the hurricane stricken district is appalling. Thousands of persons are homeless, starving and ill-clad and misery is everywhere.

Cracker Bowl Routs Robbers

Baker City, Ore., Aug. 13.—Three masked men entered the Miner's Cabin saloon this evening at 9 o'clock and robbed three gambling tables in a back room and the cash register in the front room of $250 each. Two of the men went through the gambling tables and the other one went into the front room. As the leader of the gang ran behind the bar to the cash register, which he opened and was taking the money out, a man who was standing in front of the bar picked up a cracker bowl and threw it the robber, striking him on the shoulder with such force that the fellow dropped a portion of the money on the floor. The robber turned and ran out of the back door, where he joined his pals, and they made good their escape. There were about 40 people in the saloon and gambling room at the time.

ARRAIGN KNOX AND ROOSEVELT.

Washington, Aug. 13.—An anti-trust meeting, which packed the National theater to the doors, was held here tonight. Attorney General Knox and President Roosevelt were arraigned for the alleged failure to vigorously enforce the Sherman anti-trust law. Resolutions were adopted declaring that W. R. Hearst of New York is the man pre-eminently worthy the people's choice as president.

Extension is Not Favored

Prominent Cannerymen Say They Do Not Advocate Prolongation of Season.

Prominent cannerymen, who have been in the business long enough to know, assert that the quality of fish at the present time is better than they have experienced at any similar period in the past. Considering the lateness of the season, they say that the quality has been well maintained, and for proof of the quantity they point to yesterday's catch. All of the large canneries were well stocked, some of the finest fish caught this season being brought in. As an instance of the abundant supply, the Kinney cannery received about 15 tons from one of its seines.

A representative of the Astorian called on several of the cannerymen yesterday to obtain their views on the subject of prolonging the season, which under the law closes at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. There is a well defined sentiment that the law be enforced to the letter, and the opinion was freely expressed that a Portland paper was unjust in intimating the existence of a movement to extend the season beyond the limits prescribed by law. George H. George, secretary of the Columbia River Packers' association, said: "We are not at all desirous of prolonging the season, and I don't believe there is a responsible canneryman on the river who advocates such a course. Neither are we urging the fishermen to cease operations. We are perfectly contented to run until the close of the season and suspend then. The fish that we are receiving at the present time are good, but the time will certainly come when they will be inferior, and that time will be after Saturday, so you can say that we will be glad to cease operations then."

It is stated on the best of authority that the season's catch will not be short, despite predictions to the contrary. While the fish were late in making their appearance in the river, when they did come it was in such large numbers that the canneries were more than able to make up for the delay. The season closes tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

WILL INVITE QUEEN FRANCES

CAPTAIN JOHN REID READY FOR LAUNCHING OF HIS LAUNCH "FOX" TOMORROW.

Captain John Reid was the busiest man in the city yesterday, and all because he has a launching on his hands tomorrow. The new gas screw "Fox," being built for him by R. M. Leathers, is now practically ready to take her maiden plunge. Captain Reid stated to a representative of the Astorian yesterday that it is his intention to invite Miss Frances Thomas, queen-elect of the regatta, to break the bottle of wine and pronounce the words that will christen the trim little craft. Miss Thomas is at present in Portland, but it is expected that she will return in time to be present at the launching. Captain Reid also stated that the boat is to be named "Fox," in honor of Hon. John Fox, president of the Astoria Iron works.

John C. McCue, deputy in the office of the collector of customs, yesterday completed the official measurements of the boat, which are as follows: Length, 51.9 feet; beam, 11.55 feet; depth, 4.15 feet; tonnage, 14 tons gross, 10 tons net. The launching will take place tomorrow afternoon about 5 o'clock, and in the event of Miss Thomas being absent from the city Captain Reid says that he has another fair daughter of Astoria in view to honor the occasion with her presence.

TWO ROUNDS TELL STORY

Harry Forbes, Bantam Champion, Is Out-Championed In the Second

BITES DUST BEFORE F. NEIL

Fight Scheduled for Twenty Rounds Ends In Short Order In Favor of San Franciscan

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 13.—Frankie Neil of San Francisco won the bantam-weight championship of the world tonight from Harry Forbes in the second round of a scheduled 20-round fight. Forbes was a 2 to 1 favorite. The preliminaries to the main event were interesting. Danny Sullivan won on points from Fred Landers in a 10-round go, and Jack Cordell knocked out Jack Kane in the third.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

First Round—Forbes leads with left and they went into a clinch without damage. Forbes tries twice with right for jaw, but Neil blocks. Neil keeps face covered and danced around Forbes. Forbes finally penetrates through guard twice to face. Forbes on the aggressive. Frankie covers up face, but Forbes sends right and left to body. Frankie puts left to body and left to head. Forbes hit rather low with right to body and Frankie drove straight right to body. Forbes came back with right to body. Frankie sends right and left hard to body.

Second Round—They went into a clinch and Forbes tries with two lefts and right for head, but missed. Frankie sent straight left to body and Forbes nearly stopped. Neil floored Forbes with a right to stomach. Forbes was down nine seconds. Neil floored him once more with right and left to the same place and in his anxiety Neil went through the ropes. Forbes again went to the floor. As Forbes was rising on his knees Neil went at Forbes like a tiger and sent him through the ropes. Forbes went up with hands protesting, as if to indicate a foul, but the second limit had expired and Neil was awarded the fight. The Chicago man was floored three times in this round. It now appears that Forbes was counted out on being floored the second time, but did not hear the referee's call and tried to continue fighting.

PROF. LYMAN WILL QUALIFY—Professor H. S. Lyman left for Portland last night, summoned there to attend a meeting of the bureau chiefs appointed by the state commission of the St. Louis fair. Prof. Lyman will also qualify at the meeting as chief of the bureau of education, to which he was recently appointed. Before leaving for Portland he stated that he had received assurances from the most prominent educators of the state, including State Superintendent Ackerman, that they would co-operate with him in the work of collecting the educational exhibit representative of the advancement of the state of Oregon in this special branch. He is most enthusiastic over the outlook and is encouraged by the reception accorded his appointment.

ACTRESS WANTS DIVORCE—

"Leonora," as she used to be known at the Fredericksburg and Blaziers in Portland, and Mrs. Newman as known in Cathlamet and Astoria, today filed divorce proceedings against her husband here. Leonora had been stopping at the Occident hotel since Monday, and when her husband called Wednesday night she declined to receive him into her apartments. Yesterday, while Newman was seeking the aid of officers to regain the affections of his wife, which he alleged had been transferred to another, the wife sought a lawyer and made out a complaint for divorce. Newman is manager of a theatrical agency in Portland. The papers were served on him last night by Sheriff Linville.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA—During the engagement of the Allen Stock company at Fisher's opera house next week the military band that travels with the company will parade the streets daily, which will be like a new feature of the regatta. The company opens its engagement on Sunday night, and will produce a new play every evening. Comedy and drama will be presented alternately.

FORGOTTEN A BOAT—Sheriff Linville last night arrested a man named Hill on a warrant charging him with the theft of a boat and fishing net, property of the Sanborn-Cutting company. The man, it is alleged, rented the boat and net and forgot to return them. He was lodged in jail and will probably be arraigned before his honor, Judge Goodman, today.

PLANS OF THE WOODMEN

GEORGE K. ROGERS TELLS WHAT THE W. O. W. WILL DO AT REGATTA

The Woodmen of the World executive committee held an enthusiastic meeting on the return of George K. Rogers from his trip among the camps up river. He told of the interest being shown there in the regatta. Portland Woodmen will attend the regatta in better numbers than was anticipated, many outside of the uniform rank having announced their intention to participate. Vancouver will have an immense array of 100 feet long in the parade. A beetle from Kalama, a wedge from Goble and a saw from Rainier of similar proportions will also be features.

After Mr. Rogers' recital of outside matters the various committees made their reports. Briefly it can be stated that if permission can be secured the local Woodmen will erect a welcome arch, they will have a float in the parade, public fancy military drills by the various companies of the uniform rank on the Van Dusen grounds, an invitation of 60 candidates and a banquet.

LEADERS ARE DISAPPOINTED

Macedonian Leaders Convinced That Americans Are Bought By Turkish Gold

HOPE ATTITUDE WILL CHANGE

Do Not Think Miss Stone Affair Could Cause Prejudice As Expressed.

Sofia, Aug. 13.—Macedonian leaders express themselves as disappointed with the distinctly hostile attitude of America toward their cause, as manifested in the press. Dr. Christo Tarcheff said his party was convinced that American newspapers had been bought with Turkish gold.

"There seems to be no other explanation of the tone of their articles," he said. "It is also difficult to believe that the impression created by the Miss Stone affair could have so prejudiced the American press."

"The band now fighting in the village of Monastir consists of 9,000 to 10,000 men. The Turkish troops are badly demoralized. They have repeatedly refused to march against the insurgents, who are well supplied with arms and ammunition, chiefly purchased from Turkish soldiers."

He concluded by saying the committee lived in daily hope that the powers would realize the justice of their cause and intervene.

BODY SHIPPED TO SEATTLE—The remains of Marx Bailey, only son of Dr. and Mrs. Bailey of Fort Columbia who died quite suddenly on Wednesday afternoon, was shipped to Seattle last night for interment. The body was brought to this city on the quarter-master's launch, Major Guy D. Howard, and taken to Undertaker Pohl's, where it was prepared for shipment.

The direct cause of death was cholera morbus, and was not due to poisoning by eating wild berries, as at first supposed. He was unwell during the day and had complained of feeling ill. Dr. and Mrs. Bailey were the recipients of many expressions of condolence from friends yesterday, and enclosed in the case in which the body was shipped was a beautiful wreath of flowers sent by Astoria friends.

OPEN FOR PUBLIC—The W. C. T. U., rooms on Bond street, will be kept open to the public during the regatta. A stove will be provided to meet the convenience of those who wish to do light cooking.
