

Dr. Lyon's PERFECT Tooth Powder Used by people of refinement for over a quarter of a century PREPARED BY S. W. Lyon, D.D.S.

MACCABEES SOCIAL

Hanthorn Hall was filled with Sir Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees and their guests, who assembled in response to an invitation issued to attend a social. A very interesting program was rendered, the whole combining to effect a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

The program was as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Rosa Osmond; vocal solo, Miss Mabel Larson, accompanied by Miss Rosa Osmond; vocal duet, Mr. and Mrs. R. Cearn; address, "Maccabeesism," Sir Knight State Commander J. W. Sherman; reading, Andrew Daltry, "Circumstantial Evidence;" instrumental selection, Mrs. Cearn; Delicious refreshments were served by the Lady Bees, after which the floor was cleared for dancing, which held away until the midnight hour.

C. E. Foster, A. R. Cyrus and C. R. Morse composed the committee of arrangements.

A LONG WALK

Leslie Scott yesterday made an excursion out on the government jetty. Returning he missed the train at Fort Stevens, and experienced the healthful exercise of walking into Astoria. He covered the distance, 10 miles, in two hours and five minutes. What he had in his mind upon arriving in Astoria at 9 o'clock, may be read in today's Oregonian.

TWO WIVES TOO MANY

New York, Sept. 1.—Joseph Lauer, 20 years old, has astonished the Brooklyn police with a request to be locked up. "I have got two wives," he explained. "Both are looking for me with a warrant, and I think I'd rather spend the night here than go home." The police readily accommodated him. Lauer explained that he married his first wife, a girl of 15, last November. Later, he met one of 20 and also wedded her. Recently the two wives discovered Lauer's duplicity and went in to court together, where they procured warrants. While they were gazing from the court room window a man resembling the husband passed. An officer captured him but he soon established his innocence. Lauer heard of this and made himself scarce until he appeared at the police station.

SEASON IS PROSPEROUS

Grant's Pass, Sept. 1.—All in all, this is a very prosperous season for Josephine county. The melon and apple crops are above average, the gold mines are panning out well, and the hop crop will be as good as any former season, if not better than the average. Hundreds of new people have come in and are coming in continually, and in Grant's Pass especially there is an atmosphere of thrift and enterprise never before eclipsed. The four hotels and the several boarding and lodging houses of this city are continually crowded, and the larger of them, a three-story brick structure, is being enlarged to make room for the increasing patronage.

GRANT TELEGRAPHERS' DEMAND

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Negotiations which have been pending since May 1 between the Illinois Central railway and the telegraphers were concluded last night. The demands of the telegraphers, slightly modified, were granted. The long time taken to effect the settlement was necessary because of the fact that the schedules of more than 1500 different offices had to be considered individually. The concessions consist of greatly reduced hours and an annual increase in the pay roll amounting to more than $100,000. The average increase in the salaries is 15 per cent.

WOODBURN MAN MISSING

Woodburn, Or., Sept. 1.—W. W. Tinkle, a resident and property owner of this city, is missing. The last seen of him was about 10 o'clock Friday morning when he drew $85 from the Woodburn bank. He is 62 years of age and came here with his wife from Colorado about two months ago. Searching parties are out but as yet he has not been found. Mr. and Mrs. Tinkle are members of the Presbyterian church here and are highly respected. They were devoted to each other and his disappearance is thought to have been the result of foul play or temporary alienation of the mind.

DIES AT PRAYER

New York, Sept. 1.—While reciting a prayer in the pulpit of St. Paul's church at Inwood, E. L. Rev. Gilbert Combs stopped in the middle of a sentence. One of the congregation, hastening to his side, found the minister, who was 79 years old, dead from heart failure. For a moment the congregation was almost panic stricken. Quiet was soon restored and the worshippers slowly left the church.

REVOLUTION FIRES BURNING

New York, Sept. 1.—Travelers from Panama report the isthmus alight with fires of a new revolution, according to a Times dispatch from San Jose, Costa Rica. The Indians have risen and the late followers of General Benjamin Herren are mustering in the mountain villages preparatory to joining an organized revolt caused by the rejection of the Panama Canal treaty. Hundreds of stacks of arms confiscated by the Colombian government at the close of the late revolution have reappeared from some mysterious source. With the arms goes ammunition fresh from factories, showing the movement is not spasmodic, but carefully planned. Travelers from Panama to Pointa Arenas say that in Panama it is reported that General Herren has disappeared from his home near Bogota, and is presumed to be on his way to the isthmus. If this is true Herren probably will again assume command of the revolutionary forces and cast his lot with the isthmian people, as was his intention had the late revolution terminated in favor of the Liberal party. General Victoriano Lorenzo, who was banished to Coucau after the surrender of the Liberal forces last December, has escaped and is presumed to be in the marshes making his way back to the isthmus. Lorenzo had 7000 Indians in his following, and it is believed he will have little difficulty in rallying the old forces if he succeeds in making his way back to San Carlos or to any other contiguous point. From Chorrera comes the report that he is in that locality mustering the Indians. At Bonjouna Colonel Aroca is in command of well mobilized forces.
