Professor Kock Strikes at Ocean Park, But is Floated.

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—Mistaking a light shining from a cottage on the shore for a whart light at Port Los Angeles the thip Professor Koch struck bettom at Ocean Park carly this morning and narrowly escaped being wrecked. The ship was headed straight inshore for the supposed beacon when the stuck hard and fast on the sandy bottom.

Tugs hurried to her rescue. The ris-ing tide and smooth sea aided the work of salvage and the ship was finally

OBNOXIOUS TO PARISIANS.

Paris, Oct. 1,-The racing world here is greatly agitated about the question of the alleged drugging of horses in which American trainers are thought to be especially expert, the public here attributing their wonderful success tothis practice. Pending a report by the veterinary surgeons appointed by the stewards of the French. Jockey Club investigating the matter, the press is taking up the subject.

The Matin this morning publishes an interview with a leading American trainer at Chantilly named Leigh, who emphatically declared that he did not permit drugging at his stables; he considered the cractice harmful. He added, however, that American lads here. were profiting by the credulity of cer-tain trainers and were selling the nostrums at high prices.

COLD.BLOODED HIGHWAYMEN.

Los Angeles, Oct. 1 .- A special from Naco, Aris., says:

J. W. Dooley, a ranch owner, was knocked on the head and robbed by highwaymen tast night and those who mitted the deed carried his body to the railroiad tracks near by, where they left him in an unconscious condition, expecting him to be killed and his remains so mutilated as to conceal the Dooley was struck by the first train which passed and dragged a hundred feet, but miraculously escaped instant death. He was picked up by the train crew and carried into Bisbee, where he was placed in the hospital. One arm and a leg had to be amputated and he is injured internally. At last accounts he was reported to be dying, but had recovered consciousness long enough to

AFTER GOVERNOR PEABODY,

Colorado Sprongs, Oct.1.-Resolutions were adopted by the Colorado Springs Federated Trades Council calling on the citizens of the state, regardless of calling, to demand the impeachment of Governor Peabody for sending the militia to Cripple Creek during a time of profound peace. In the spirit of the resolutions a committee to arrange for land returned to Portland last night a mass meeting to be held in this city at an early date for the purpose of taking action, is asked. The resolutions denounce the militia and declare that it is composed of the most undesirable elements in society-youths of inexpe rience and men of low character."

MINISTER RELEASED.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.-Rev. C. D. Whalen, who was arrested a few days ago on information from Plattsburg, N. Y., charging wife lesertion, was released from custody today. A telegram from Plattsburg said that unless the local authorities would guarantee the expenses of witnesses from Plattsburg to Los Angeles, there would be no prosecution from that end. The police promptly released Whalen.

RESERVATION OF THEIR OWN.

Butte, Sept. 1 .- (Special)-A large amount of testimony has been taken by United States Commissioner J. W. James at Anaconda in regard to the Rockey Boy tribe of Indians, several members of which are trying to get the tribe together in some part of this state and then have congress pass a special, act giving them a reservation of their OWR.

WHAT IS LIFE?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly,pain results. Irregular living means derange ment of the organs, resulting in constipution, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's new life pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough.
