ASTORIA, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1903.

NUMBER 9.

Some Men like clothes in the very height of fashion. SOME DON'T. That's because tastes differ so. One man wants the most extreme cut, while another wants it thoroughly conservative. Nothing Old-Fashioned, mind you; just up-to-date in every way, though rather subdued in style. We cater to both. One kind of taste doesn't make a business, you know, so that's why we keep in stock enough variety to satisfy the dress desires of a good-sized town. Whatever your leaning may be, you can always find it where the garments bear the label of Crouse & Brandegee, Utica, New York. Asking for that is a good way of getting what you want, whether it's something very ultra or just plain every-day stylishness.

MOB RULES; POLICE ARE POWERLESS

Striking Weavers Indulge in Wild-est Excesses Imaginable in Small Manufacturing Town.

Crowd of Six Thousand Persons Surges Through Streets of Armentiers.

Breaks Into Shops, Scattering About, and Burns Down Houses of the Employers.

Armentiers, France, Oct. 13.—This town was today given up to riot, pillage and incendiarism as a consequence of the weavers' strike. The strikers, not receiving answers to their demands, from employers, broke out into wildest excesses. A mob of 6,000 gathered in the great square and urged the troops stationed there to throw down their arms, shouting:

"Down with patriotism."
The rioters then spread through the principal streets, breaking the windows of stores and dragging out huge display rolls of linen, which they stretched across the streets with the object of impeding the advance of the cavalry. They wrecked shops and sacked houses of persons obnoxious to the ringleaders.

After dark the rioters tore up sewer gratings and paving stones and stretched wires across the streets. Women brought piles of empty bottles for use as missiles, while boys swarmed up lamp posts and extinguished the gas jets. The rioters then proceeded to sack houses, dragging out furniture, saturating it with petroleum and setting fire to it in the street. Fire was put to two houses belonging to the strikers' employers and one big factory. By midnight, however, the troops and police had gained the upper hand and dispersed the mob.

ARTISTS REGISTER COMPLAINT

New York, Oct. 13.—Artists and sculptors throughout the country are preparing to make an organized fight against the control which they assert organized labor is trying to obtain over the realm of art.

The recent experience of Director of Sculpture Ritter of the St. Louis exposition with the plasterers' union of that city, has brought the matter to a focus and a movement is now under way to establish one or more international organizations in an effort to protect art workers from interference from striking plasterers, house painters, plumbers, bricklayers and other craftsmen employed on structures where the artist or the sculptor does his part in the scheme or ornamentation.

RESTRAINED FROM BOYCOTT.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 13.—Judge Belton today granted one of the most sweeping injunctions ever issued by an Ohio court. It was directed against Hamilton Typographical Union, the Hamilton Co-operative Trades and Labor Council and the Nonpareil Printing Company, publishers of the county trade organ. The defendants are enjoined from continuing the boycott on the Republican-News or the firms which advertise in it, and it is ordered that interference of every sort with the company's business must stop.

MOB LAW AND ITS EFFECTS

Address of Justice Bliehoff of New York Court.

New York, Oct. 13.—In an address before the Phi Delta Phi Fraternity of this city, Justice Bliehoff of the New York supreme court has pointed out the fact that the spirit which underlies mob law confronted the patriarchs of old in the Mosala law and is to be found underlying the development of the entire system of criminal jurisprudence, representing the rebellion of passion against orderly procedure of the law and the safeguards thrown about an accused person. The cause of lynchings and other outbreaks, he said, may be epitomized in the words "the law's delay."

"It is true," he continued, "that there is more or less delay in the administration of the law, which appears to procrastinate, so that the time elapsing between a crime and its punishment seems at all times needlessly prolonged, but this is not the fault of the law or its administration, so much as it is the result of conditions which surround the gradual evolution of our great judicial system."

"The demands upon our country are too great for a system planned to accommodate scarcely half the business now presented and making no elastic provision for enlarged requirements. It is but right and just, and in the adminstration of criminal law the punishment should follow speedily, with all due caution and protection to the accused, the accomplishment of the crime.

"But it does not follow, because of this defect, the delay of justice, that the system is wrong, or that mob rule had better supplant it, or that there is justification at any time for assassination in the name of punishment for crime. It is but a voice that should be heeded by our legislature in providing an elastic, flexible system for the administration of the law, which will meet every emergency, the measure speedy, exact, and unerring justice in every case."

Justice Bliehoff described the condition of the negroes at the close of the 19th century civilization, their being left upon an impoverished land without government aid or support, and their struggles against the antipathies of the white race. The north he said undertook to educate the colored people of whose conditions and limitations they were ignorant, with the result of a misunderstanding and bitterness.

"And today," he added, "it is being realized that the best friend of the negro is the south, who can best, too, solve the great question involved in this discussion."

AGED LETTER CARRIER DEAD

William Hall Expires at His Brother's Coffin.

New York, Oct. 13.—Johnson Chase Hall, the oldest letter carrier in New York, and possibly in the country, has fallen dead while standing beside the coffin containing the body of his brother William, at the latter's home in Brooklyn. The doctors say he died from a broken heart.

William Hall was 82 years old and a retired merchant. His brother Johnson was two years younger and the two had been inseparable during their long span of life. Despite his years Johnson was accounted one of the best letter carriers in the service, into which he celebrated recently the 45th anniversary of his entry. He was fond of declaring he would live a score of years more and he often put on the gloves for a boxing bout with the younger men in the Brooklyn postoffice. The death of his brother was a hard blow and he grieved deeply over his loss. At the close of the funeral service he arose from his chair beside the coffin and, speaking in a low voice, bade farewell to his brother. "You were just to go," he said, "my summons cannot come too soon." The old man's voice broke, he threw up his hands and sank to the floor, dead.

UNION ELECTS DIRECTORS

Joseph F. Smith, Head of Mormon Church, Chosen.

Salt Lake, Oct. 13.—The annual meeting of the Union Pacific Railroad Company was held in this city today. The election of directors resulted in but one change, Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon church, being chosen resident director to succeed T. J. Coolidge, Jr., of Boston. The board of directors follows:

Oliver Ames, of Boston; Horace G. Burt, of Omaha; Thomas J. Eckert, Louis Fitzgerald, of New York; George J. Gould, of Lakewood, N. J.; E. H. Harriman, of Arden, N. Y.; Marvin Hughitt, of Chicago; James H. Hyde, of New York; Otto H. Kahn, of Morristown, N. J.; Charles A. Peabody, of Winslow, S. Pierce, Henry H. Rogers, Jacob H. Schiff, Charles Stillman, of New York; Joseph F. Smith, of Salt Lake.

RIOTS AT BUENOS AYRES.

New York, Oct. 13.—A large demonstration against the convention has been made, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentine, for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president, which will meet Tuesday. The convention is composed of the most notable men of the republic and its opponents are of the general public.

Mobs in the streets indulged in attacks on the government and Senator Quintana, the official candidate. The protests will continue until the convention is assembled, although it is possible that public feeling may be heeded and the convention abandoned. The agitation is increasing daily, and there are indications of more violent opposition against Quintana. In a collision between the mobs and the police several persons were injured.

MANY EMPLOYEES TO BE LAID OFF.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—The Tribune today says: The Southern Pacific railroad is to follow the example of the New York Central and curtail expenses by laying off employees. The Harriman line is preparing, according to authoritative reports, just received in Chicago, to reduce its force by 1200 men immediately. The chief cuts will be made in the shops, but there will be economizing all along the line.

HOT IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, Oct. 13.—Hot weather has prevailed in Southern California during the past two days, the temperature ranging from 94 to 100 degrees.

MONTANA MOB HANGS MURDERER

Walter Jackson, Who Killed Fannie Buck, Taken From Hamilton Jail and Strung Up in Street.

Seventy-five Men, Armed With Rifles and Shotguns, Overpower the Jailer.

VICTIM PLEADS FOR MERCY

Lynchers Go No Further Than the Nearest Electric Light Pole, Up Which He Is Hauled.

Missoula, Oct. 13.—Walter Jackson, the convicted murderer of 6-year-old Fannie Buck and sentenced to be hanged, was taken from the jail at Hamilton at a late hour tonight and lynched.

Seventy-five masked men, armed with Winchester and shotguns, forced their way through the rear door of the jail and overpowered Jailer Stephens, who was able to offer but slight resistance. They soon found Jackson, who was cringing in the darkest portion of his cell. The wretch pleaded pitiouly for mercy, but was rushed out into the street.

The mob had already provided itself with a rope. This was quickly thrown over an electric light pole and a noose placed about Jackson's neck. He was asked if he had anything to say and only pleaded for mercy. The mob then pulled him into the air, after which it quickly dispersed.

Jackson's case was on appeal to the supreme court.

REMARKABLE FORGERY CASE

Four Prisoners Pardoned on the Showing of Bogus Papers.

San Francisco, Oct. 13.—James H. Darling, Joseph White, Cornelius Stokes and John L. Moore, military prisoners at Alcatraz, have been released by the authorities on pardons which it is now discovered were forged. These fraudulent pardons were sent through the ordinary course of a soldier's pardon, bearing the regular seal and stamps and approved by the president, but by whom and with whose assistance were the forgeries perpetrated are questions not yet solved, but it is believed the investigation now in progress will eventually clear up the mystery. The four prisoners were sentenced to five years imprisonment and had more than two years unexpired term yet to serve.

They were set at liberty October 7 and were landed in this city on the government steamer General McDowell. The three signatures forged by the convicts were those of Major E. R. Hills, acting assistant adjutant-general at Washington; Major Henry M. Morrow, judge-advocate of the department of California, and Major J. R. Williams, assistant adjutant-general of the department of California. In addition to these forgeries, the official stamps of the department of California headquarters and of the judge-advocate's office appear. The very letterhead on which the pardon is typewritten seems genuine.

The irregularity of the documents is assured by the fact that both Major Williams and Judge-Advocate Morrow are quoted to the effect in an interview today, that the signatures of the papers were not their own.

INDIANAPOLIS ELECTION.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 13.—Unofficial returns from the city election indicate the city election of John W. Holtzman, the democratic candidate for mayor, over Charles A. Bookwalter, the present republican mayor.

The rest of the ticket is doubtful. The campaign has been one of the most spirited in the history of the city and the vote polled was the heaviest ever cast.

KNIGHTS ELECT OFFICERS.

Portland, Oct. 13.—The Oregon grand lodge of Knights of Pythias today elected the following officers: Chancellor, L. M. Carl, of Albany; keeper of records and seal, L. R. Stinson, Salem; master of the exchequer, E. M. Sargent, Portland; prelate, M. F. Davis, Union; master-at-arms, John M. Wall, Hillsboro; inner guard, G. C. Moser, Portland; outer guard, D. M. Boynton, Baker City; supreme representative, W. L. Bradshaw, The Dalles.

WAR IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Nicaragua and Guatemala vs. Salvador and Honduras.

Panama, Oct. 13.—According to news received here from Central America, President Zelaya of Nicaragua and President Estrada Cabrera of Guatemala are preparing to declare war against Salvador and Honduras. Ten thousand Guatemalan soldiers are reported to be marching toward the Salvadoran frontier with a powerful force of artillery. At Santa Ana, the Salvadoran army is being organized under General Regalado.

COTTAGE CITY REPAIRS PORT.

Victoria, Oct. 13.—The steamer Cottage City, reported disabled in the North, arrived here this evening under her own steam, her engineers having made temporary repairs.

BOSTON IS CHAMPION OF WORLD

Hub City American Team Administers Crushing Defeat to Pittsburg in Deciding Contest.

Bean Eaters Found Phillippi, While Dinen Was a Puzzle to the Visitors.

SCORE IS THREE TO NOTHING

Four Scattered Hits Scored by the Nationals, of Whom Not a Man Passed the Third Sack.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Seven thousand baseball enthusiasts went wild this afternoon when, at the end of the ninth inning, the Boston American team became the world's champion. The demonstration which followed the game was never equalled on any college football gridiron, and while thousands cheered, the victors were carried to their dressing room on the shoulders of the shouting fans. The demonstration lasted for a quarter of an hour.

Of the seven games played previously the Boston Americans had taken four, and the deciding contest was played this afternoon. For the past two years the Pittsburg team had been the leading aggregation of ball tossers, but today the Bostonians snatched away the honors of the visiting team and sent it down to emphatic defeat. There was never a time the visitors had a chance to win, he home team playing an errorless game.

Phillips, who was such an enthrall to the Bostonians in the first few games of the world's championship series, essayed to pitch for the visitors for the sixth time. Not only was Phillipps latted hard, but he saw his rival, Dinen, carry off the honors by holding down the Nationals to four scattering hits, which backed up by perfect fielding, prevented a single Pittsburg man from getting past third base. The game proved all that the crowd expected and the wildest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the nine innings. The score:

Boston	3	9	0
Pittsburg	0	4	3
Batteries Dinen and Criger, Phillipps and Phelps.
Time—1:00 Day and Connelly.
