LYON & PATTERSON

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia River.

The death of Mrs. Booth Tucker is one of the saddest incidents of the year. Mrs. Tucker was known from one end of the country to the other for her good deeds, and her loss is, as her father said, irreparable.

MALTHOID ROOFING

Made of felt, thoroughly saturated with P & B compound. Not impaired by varying temperatures. Does not evaporate, crack, expand or contract.

The Paraffine Paint Co.

San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and Denver, Colorado.

Noah was the first man to advertise. He advertised the flood and it came all right. The fellows who laughed at the advertisement got drowned, and it served them right.

THE OLD LINE KILN.

The influence of the coming 1904 fair on this state is already noticeable. A great deal of the prosperity attendant to this event will be lasting.

The captain of the wrecked ship, South Portland, McIntyre, has failed thus far to convince the public that he did not leave his ship before the passengers.

the republican hosts next campaign. Despite the attacks of the partisan democratic press, he stands as the greatest leader of the day.

Mayor Leeds of Stamford, Conn., used to operate in Wall street, but came to the conclusion that it was no place for an honest man.

Pat and John Kenney and Charles Wise went down to their shooting grounds yesterday.

President Roosevelt has confidence in Malcolm A. Moody, and so announces.

The Utah state pavilion at the world's fair will cost $5,750.

Put the best foot forward for the home town.

If Manager Selig had possessed an "S. R. O." sign, he could have used it to advantage last night, for the house that greeted "The Old Lime Kiln" was packed to the doors.

The farce comedy "Razze Dazze" will be produced at the matinee today and "The Live Wire" at this evening's performance.

Peterson & Brown have completed the new front to their store and are better prepared than ever to show you their goods.

DEATH OF MRS. BOOTH TUCKER

Local Corps Will Attend Memorial at Portland.

Captain and Mrs. Holton, in charge of the local work of the Salvation Army have as yet received no official notice of the death of their cousin, Mrs. Booth Tucker, but expect that a memorial meeting will be held in Portland that will be attended from over the entire state.

"The dissension in the ranks caused by the defection of "Hallington Booth," said the captain, "was in a great measure healed by the tact and eloquence of the wife of the new commander, Mrs. Booth Tucker was a great orator and organizer and to her is due in no small degree the rapid growth of the American branch of the work."

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well."

LURLINE ON A SANDBAR.

The steamer Lurline did not reach her dock until after midnight yesterday morning, having grounded on a sandbar at Mayger. The stranding delayed the steamer seven hours.
