SAM JONES' MOTHER.
Sam Jones pays the following tribute to his mother's love: "On a beautiful sunny day an angel flew down from the portals of heaven to visit the earth in search of some tokens of beauty for eternity. The angel looked into a garden of flowers and thought a bouquet the most beautiful thing to take back on its return; but a little later on a bright child was seen to smile on its lovely mother. That the said angel, is more beautiful than the flowers. So the smile was also taken. Then the angel beheld the mother's love to go out strong to her offspring. That, too, was beautiful. The angel took this, and with the three flew back to heaven's gates. Before entering the Eternal presence it looked over the tokens of the visit, and found that the flowers had wilted. The smile of the child had vanished, but the mother's love remained constant and beautiful. So the flowers and the smile were cast aside and the angel flew in through the party gates with the mother's love, which alone of all things on earth was most beautiful."

A LOVE LETTER.
Would not interest you if you were looking for a guaranteed salve for sores, burns or piles. Otto Dodd, of UPondar, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklin's Arnica Salve cured me. Its the best salve on earth." 25c at Chas. Rogers drug store.

HERD OF WILD DOGS.
Out in Morrow county, north of Ione, a colony of wild dogs, hounds, shepherds and coonies, are becoming a pest and are said to be dangerous. For years the residents of that country have known them to exist, but never before in such large numbers, nineteen having been counted in one band. Recently a farmer was out on the prairie when fifteen of the ugly, growling dogs started after him and he got into his wagon and hastened for his life.—The Dalles Chronicle.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST.
Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for 12 years." If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by Charles Rogers. Only 50 cents.
