The death of M. M. Estes, United States district judge for Hawaii, recalls many old time incidents in Californian politics, and marks the passing of one of the last survivors of a certain old guard, says an exchange. Estee was a man of ability and integrity, well to do. prominent in councils, deserving at the hands of the republican party. And he received distinguished nominations and made unsuccessful campaigns. Finally it came to be a paragraphers' joke when any vacancy politically occurred to intimate that the name of M. M. Estee "was mentioned." And the hoodoo held. The appointment to Honolulu perhaps was balm for old disappointments. The dying in political harness was perhaps the end that Judge Estee would have chosen. His career illustrates the vagaries of politics. The apples of Sodom are ever the apples of

The confidence of the people of Aberdeen in the growing prosperity of their town and in the rapidity of its recovery from the recent fire is well voiced in the following closing paragraph of an editorial headed "Aftermath" in the Aberdeen Herald: "A city of 8,000 people, shipping more lumber than any sea port in the world; situated on what will be one of the finest protected harbers on the Pacific coast, with resources tributary to it sufficient to support a city of 1,000,000 people when developed cannot be seriously staggered by the loss of its wooden business houses, and in less than two years the most pessi-

APPEAL TO THE FEDERATION

Move on Foot to Settle Differ-

New York, Nov. 6 .- The convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opens next Monday in Boston, will be requested by the structural workers' officials to settle the trouble existing in the structural iron industry and bring about the signing of an arbitration agreement by the United Housesmiths and Bridgemens' Union and Iron League. The plan for appealing to the federation was decided upon at a conference between the executive committee of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers and the United Housesmiths and Bridgemens' Union in this city, The trouble, which has been continuous during the entire building season, threatened a few days ago to result in a general strike of ironworkers in many large cities.

CIGAR DEALERS FIGHT TRUST.

Chicago, Nov. 6 .- The Chronicle today says: The Independent Cigar Dealers of the country have adopted a plan to secure $200,000 a year with which to fight the trust company. This plan will remain in effect until the independent dealers have accomplished some results, according to a statement last night of M. W. Diffley, chairman of the executive committee of the board of directors of the Cigar Dealers Association of America. The money will be raised by selling stamps to the dealers to be placed on all goods sold.

JOHN C. KANE DEAD.

New York, Nov. 6 .- John C. Kane, head of the American banking and forwarding house bearing his name and for many years agent of the North German Lloyd Steamship Line, is dead. says a Paris dispatch to the Herald. He was widely known among tourists. Mr. Kane underwent an operation for appendicitis at a sanitarium at Neullly, October 27.
