RYTHMICAL ROT.

(The democratic members of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives have held a caucus and decided to kick.—News Item.)

I wish I were a democrat with fourteen thousand legs,
And feet as long as telegraphic poles;
I wish my boots were made of lead and filled with iron pegs,
Protruding from the sides and from the soles.

For if I had such legs as these, I'd move down south post haste,
Where democrats have thrived e'er since the war,
And have them send me up to congress, where I'd stick like paste,
And kick, and kick, and kick for evermore.—S.

Listen to these verselets, friends,
Here's a list I'll call
Of conditions that exist
In the town this fall.
You'll observe our civic pride,
Solid as a wall,
When we point with pleasure to
Our

New
City
Hall.

Sites are offered daily now—
Prices large and small—
Smith will argue wrathfully
"Jones has got his gall
Trying to hold the city up;
Think I'll have to bawl
Him out 'cause he wants to own
Our

New
City
Hall."

Accusations fly around
Like a rubber ball,
Conversations daily breed
From the theme a squall.
Heavens! e'en the babies will (Soon as they can crawl)
Lisp to mothers all about
Our

New
"Thity"
Hall.

Country Reubens interject
With bucolic drawl,
"Seems to me them city folks
Talk'n 'tut's 'bout all."
Too much chewing of the rag
Has begun to pall;
Let's get busy and put up
Our

New
City
Hall.

—H. W. D.

(With apologies to the author of Kelly and Burke and Shea.)

Said Gratke to Patterson,
Touching these matters on
Which we're compelled to enthuse
To increase circulation,
We must scheme like tarnation,
Astorian, Budget and News.

Loquiter Bob Gibson:
"Say, wonder if Isben
Could be secured at any ruse?
'Twould rattle the gapers
If he'd write for our papers,
Astorian, Budget and News.

"The great Oregonian
No doubt's been poneynin'
Up lots of dough to infuse
Life in its list of "subs"
Let us no more be dubs,
Astorian, Budget and News."

"Right!" quoth the other two,
"Henceforth we'll strive to do
Up our big rival or lose.
This is no idle joke."
Said they, "Just watch our smoke,
Astorian, Budget and News."

Oh, fin du siecle authoress, of epigram and platitude,
Beware displaying qualities which show your mental attitude;
And if you really wish to earn our everlasting gratitude,
Don't bore us with selections which betray your mental latitude.—H. W. D.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors
