AFTER A SCALP.

Hon. Malcolm A. Moody, ex-congressman from the Second congressional district of Oregon, is out red hot after the scalp of Congressman Newt Williamson, says the Baker City Herald. Many of Moody's ardent admirers are trying to impute his recent indictment by the federal grand jury to political enemies, of whom Williamson, says Moody, is one. These people forget that Moody was simply engulfed in the moral wave which seems to have swept over Oregon and which found its expression in fifteen indictments returned by the aforementioned federal grand jury. If Moody is not guilty it will be shown. The public does not believe that he is guilty and he says that he is not. Therefore, let him square away all hurt facts at the people and cease from crying "O, My Enemy." Moody has had more boosting since his retirement from congress than he ever had while a member of the house, and more than any other congressman since Oregon was a state. His record in congress is small compared with the wonderful things his friends claim of him since his return to private life and no reason exists for the continual tooting of the Moody horn. No amount of political boosting will help him, as he is very much out of the public eye. There is, of course, reason to regret the fact that he has been indicted, as it is popularly believed that he is innocent of the charge preferred against him. However, the people want facts, not billingsgate.

Dowie, Elijah the second, has commanded his followers to take up $2,000,000 in Zion's securities. This he asks as "God's messenger." Dowie's graft is a good one, but how long he can keep it up is uncertain.

Those are thrilling tales that are coming down from Alaska of the final river trips amid the fast solidifying ice, suggests an exchange. There are still adventures aplenty in the world.

Carrie Nation made a visit to the white house this week, but did not get to see the president, as she was ejected by force. She is even too strenuous for our strenuous president.

President Marroquin is reported as having fled from Colombia in his modest desire to escape the ovations of his people, inspired by their wild enthusiasm over the rejection of the canal treaty, says the P.-I.

Colombia is getting sassy. Unless the United States recedes at once, she will attack Panama, her representatives say. One can easily imagine the result.

If more people read newspapers, the fakes would be too common to attract any attention and gold bricks would have poor sale.

Roosevelt will speak for the Portland exposition, in his message, but some of the leaders are not encouraging him in this action.

Idaho is having some trouble over alleged land frauds. It will give Oregon a much needed and desired rest, at least.

It is to be hoped that the Chinook can do some work this fall, before winter sets in in dead earnest.

WOMEN'S SYMPATHY

Is Proverbial. Astoria Women no Exception.

How much we owe to the sympathetic side of womankind; when others suffer they cheerfully lend a helping hand. They tell you the means which brought relief to them that you may profit by their experience. Read the testimony given here by an Astoria woman.

Mrs. Close, wife of John Close, night engineer at Lindenberger's Cold Storage House, foot of Eighth street, residing at 229 Commercial street, says: "About a year ago we moved here from Portland and as I had a great deal to look after I overdid myself and the result was I brought on kidney trouble, back began to ache and as time rolled My back began to ache and as time rolled by it kept getting worse instead of better. It finally grew so bad that I could scarcely stoop or straighten aft-ter stooping. When I did any work requiring bending I could hardly get up and I had headaches, dizzy spells and at times everything before me looked blurred. I was just about to start to the store for a plaster to put on my back when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and they were so highly recommended for kidney trouble I made-up my mind to try them and procured a box at Charles Rogeda's drug store on Commercial street. They went right to the root of the disease and helped me from the start and before I had finished the box I was cured. Every thing is changed with me now and I have no symptoms of kidney trouble whatever."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."
