SCHOOL GIRLS ENTERTAIN

Pleasant Reception Given at Assembly Hall.

The girls of the high school gave a social last night at the assembly hall, the proceeds of which were turned over to the high school boys' football team. This fund the boys expect to repay on Thanksgiving day, and if any money is left over, it will be donated to the library.

The hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion last night, numerous flags and streamers of bunting relieving the monotony of the walls and posts. Over the bunting round the posts were twined festoons of ivy, and the colors harmonizing admirably under the soft light of a string of Japanese lanterns which shed a soft luster of a most agreeable character to the eye.

At one corner of the room a most tempting array of fancy candies was presided over by a brace of charming salesladies, and another especially attractive group served ice cream and cake to those present after the program had been finished. After this dancing was begun and formed the attraction for about an hour.

The numbers on the program were as follows:

Piano solo, Annie Shistad; violin solo, Will Barker; guitar solo, Ray Hulse; vocal duet, Will Barker and Rieves Emerson; piano solo, Nora Wilson; violin solo, Lois Parker.
