SOCIAL NOTES

A very pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Maddock at their home on Seventeenth street and Franklin avenue Thursday evening, the occasion being the celebration of their wedding. It was an impromptu affair gotten up by a few of the most intimate friends of the couple. The word was passed around to meet at a neighbor's and when all had assembled a sudden descent was made by the entire party on the Maddock dovecot. So completely were the happy couple taken by surprise that the genial Mr. Maddock was caught in "fragrant delicto" enjoying his pipe and a good book, while Mrs. Maddock was employed on the delicate traceries of some fancy needlework. One of the ladies of the party had, with the usual forethought incidental to a great mind, provided music for the entry of the visitors, and for a few moments, what with the soul stirring songs emanating from a Japanese tom-tom and the party greetings and felicitations showered upon the recipients of the demonstration, the latter were almost overcome, but it is needless to say soon regained their wonted composure. The visitors did not arrive empty handed. Being a wooden wedding the presents all took that form and in their character were useful, ornamental and humorous. After a short interval occupied in general conversation and during which time congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Maddock were plentifully bestowed, a game of six-handed euchre was organized. The prizes were won by Mrs. Harrison Allen and J. T. N. Callaway. An adjournment was subsequently taken to partake of refreshments, some of which were thoughtfully brought along with them by the visitors. After this, music, instrumental and vocal, rounded out an exceedingly pleasant evening, the guests later on departing under a shower of benevolent and good wishes, and incidentally a ditto of rain.

Miss N. G. Reed entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club and gentlemen friends Wednesday evening. Miss Reed was assisted by Miss Gertrude Berry, Miss Mary Berry, Miss Bertha Hobson and Miss Bess Reed. The game played was "500." Mrs. R. E. Carruthers won first prize and Dr. A. A. Finch captured second, while the consolations were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Thine. The invited guests were: Mrs. Dr. Finch, Mrs. H. D. Thine, Mrs. N. A. Marrs, Mrs. R. E. Carruthers, Miss Elmore, Miss Floretta Elmore, Miss Hobson, Miss Tallant, Miss Cole, Miss Sherman, Miss Fox, Miss Bennett, Miss Ward, Miss Crang, Miss Sutherland, Miss Young, and Messrs. R. Finch, C. Bell, P. Badollet, Marrs, Eyre, McCloud, Haradon, Capt. Reynolds, Paget, Molloy, Farwell, Frank Woodfield, Henderson, Greenough, Thine, Carruthers, Dr. Earle, West, O. B. Prael.

One of the most delightful receptions of the week was at the home of Mrs. Frank Patton Wednesday afternoon, when 55 ladies were entertained. Mrs. Patton was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. E. Dement, Mrs. Ella Sharpstein, Mrs. Horace Thine, Mrs. Albert Dunbar, Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson, Mrs. H. F. Prael and Miss Lionberger.

The Friday night Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson last week. Six-handed euchre was played and the prizes were won by Miss Lionberger, Mrs. A. Dunbar and Horace Thine. Mrs. Ferguson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Ella Sharpstein.

A party of young ladies was entertained on board the revenue cutter Perry yesterday afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent at games and dancing.

DOSEN'T RESPECT OLD AGE. It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect to old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation and all yield to this perfect pill. 25c at Chas. Rogers' drug Store.

The governor wanted an extra session without extra expenditure. "I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c at Chas. Rogers' drug Store.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE. To keep the whole German army in the field for a week would cost just $30,000,000.

To remove hard putty pass a hot iron over it, when it will at once become soft.
