School Pupils Assist the Poor

Salvation Army Officers Will Distribute Good Things to the Needy.

The city schools held appropriate Thanksgiving day exercises yesterday and donations of food and clothing were made by the pupils that will add to the comfort and pleasure of many poor families today. The gifts will be turned over to Captain Holton, of the Salvation Army, who will distribute them where they will be most acceptable and most needed. Captain Holton has been investigating the city's poor for the past several weeks and has learned that there are 27 families who would be without a special dinner if they are not provided for by the public. Yesterday the pupils responded liberally to their teacher's request to assist their less fortunate neighbors, with the result that many will enjoy good dinners today who would otherwise not.

At the Shively school the program was particularly fine and the rooms elaborately decorated. There were many ladies present and they greatly enjoyed the pupils' efforts. Grades six and seven combined and the program was as follows:

Hymn, "Come Ye Thankful People," school; reading, President's Proclamation, Johanna Dench; reading, "Thanks giving in Egypt, Ruby Crohn; reading, "Jewish Thanksgiving, Gayle Roberts; reading, "Greek and Roman Thanksgiving," M. Knutsen; reading, Thanks giving in England, Charlie Hood; reading, "The Pilgrim's Thanksgiving, Dorothy Thomson; reading, Washington's Thanksgiving, A. Grossman; reading, Our Thanksgiving, Mary Gustafson; song, There's a time in each year, sixth grade; recitation, Thanksgiving Lesson, Otto Voss; song, "Thanksgiving-tide, Chester McIntosh, Melville Morton, Frank Johnson, Norman Smith; Thanksgiving exercise, eighteen girls of the sixth grade; hymn, "God Bless Our Native Land."

The little tots in room one recited and sang with the vim and earnestness characteristic of well-trained youngsters. The first number was a flag salutation that was followed by the school singing "America." The rest of the program was made up of the following numbers: Recitation, When I sit by Grandpa, Wetzel Griffin; Thankful for Thanksgiving, Russel Fox; The Reason Why, Nancy Welch; The Thanksgiving dinner, Mabel Larsen and Ruth McIntosh; The Doll's Thanks giving, Laura Mark; Giving, Jessie Garner; Work and rest, Adele Oberg; Giving Love, Vallie Welch; My Little Piece, Vance Ferguson. Aside from these there were class recitations and drills that elicited much praise from the parents present.

Rooms two and three rendered good class work, individual recitations being by Clara Sanden and Stuart Smith.

FITZ BESTS GARDINER

They danced around the ring fully a minute without a blow being landed. Gardner kept pegging away at Fitz but the latter easily got out of harm's way. Gardner sent in two straight lefts to the face and a light left to the body. Fitz swung a hard right to the jaw, sending Gardner to the floor. He was up within two seconds.

Round 14.—Gardner sent in two straight lefts to the face and was short with straight lefts and rights to the body. Fitz followed this up with hard left hooks to the jaw and hard right to the body. Swinging fiercely, he sent the Lowell man to the floor for five seconds. Fitz then missed a fearful right swing for the jaw and dashed Gardner against the ropes. Gardner looked grossly. The blood was streaming from his nose, and as they went into a clinch the crowd hissed Gardner for hitting as he held on to the lanky Cornishman. Fitz swung his right to the jaw and put Gardner to the ropes. He followed the eastern man around the ring and missed a right swing, as the bell sounded, that would have ended the fight had it landed. Gardner was grossly when he went to his corner.

Round 15.—Fitz swung with the left, but missed, and they clinched. Emergence, Fitz missed a hard swing for the jaw, and Gardner succeeded in getting in a glancing left to the jaw. Fitz drove his right to the body and shifted it to the head, cleverly evading counter-attacks. Fitz fought carefully and made his blow count. He landed a left and right swing for the jaw, and came near landing another for the same place. Fitz jarred Gardner with a hard right swing to the jaw and a left hook to the body. Gardner again stalled. Fitz landed another right swing on the jaw. This was Fitz' round.

Round 16.—Gardner came up lame. He put left and right on Bob's face and forced him into a corner. Fitz came back with a stinging straight left to the face. Fitz swung hard with the right for the jaw, but Gardner ducked it. Gardner mixed matters, but Fitz caught him with a short-arm left to the face. Fitz caught Gardner on the head with a hard right swing and covered up well. Thus far Gardner had put up a very disappointing fight.

Round 17.—They spent much time in sparring. Fitz looking for another opening. Fitz was short with a straight left for the body and Gardner put in a right to the head, forcing Fitz to the ropes. In the mixup that followed Fitz did some clever blocking. Gardner got his left high on the body and Fitz missed left swings for the jaw and body.

to the face lightly and tried a vicious left swing for the jaw, but missed. He then swung hard with the right, but received a left hook to the jaw that made him wince. Fitz backed away and Gardner got in a glancing left to the face. Fitz got in two hard rights to the jaw as they closed in, and blocked a right uppercut for the jaw.

Round 19.—Gardner forced Fitz to the ropes, but Fitz came back with a left to the head. Gardner slipped to the floor and Fitz assisted him to his feet. Gardner sent a straight left to Fitz' nose and followed with two more weak lefts to the face. Fitz smiling, Fitz swung a left for the head, but it went around Gardner's neck. Fitz missed a swing for the head and Gardner rushed in and got left and right to the body. Gardner then got in several good rights to the body and Fitz sent him back with a right swing to the head. The bell rang, with Gardner fighting fiercely.

Round 20.—Fitz led with a right for the head. Gardner got in a light right to the stomach. Gardner swung the right to body and in a mixup landed several lefts and rights to the body. They clinched and the referee could hardly separate them. Fitz sent a straight left to the face and both men clung to each other, Gardner doing most of the hanging on. Gardner was clinging to Fitz as the final gong rang and Referee Graney could not separate them. Graney promptly gave the decision to Fitz, and the announcement was greeted with cheers.

WILL RETRIEVE LOST FORTUNE.

New York, Nov. 25.—John L. Sullivan's famous $10,000 diamond belt has been sold at auction for $2900. The belt was given Sullivan by the citizens of Boston, July 4, 1887, and has now been purchased by a bowery dealer. The belt was pawned about a year ago and was sold as an unredeemed pledge. The purchaser intends to use it for display purposes in a curiosity shop. The belt consists of eight panels of gold, weighing 1700 pennyweight and studded with 400 diamonds varying in size from one half carat to one and one half carats. The last time the famous trophy of Sullivan's pugilistic prowess was on view, was when the former fltic champion was in business in New York.

Dredge's Work Pleases Public

Trial Test and Subsequent Work of Chinook Is Highly Successful.

The effective work that the dredge Chinook accomplished yesterday and Tuesday in the lower harbor and on the bar has convinced Astorians that the work to be done will be thorough. The machinery is in perfect condition and both in the test work of Tuesday and later when the dredge moved down to the bar no breakdown occurred. Unless the unforeseen takes place the depth at the bar will be increased rapidly, only a few weeks being required to make an impression. It is pointed out that on a favorable tide 10,000 tons of sand can be deposited in the bins and dumped into the sea. As it required but four minutes for the dredge to dump the first load of dirt, 400 tons, it is clear that this part of the work is to be dispatched with striking rapidity. The discharges so far have taken place three miles out at sea.

Yesterday the dredge continued to work at the south channel, but late in the afternoon came farther in and was in the vicinity of the railway draw-bridge.

A party of Astorians was on board the Chinook while the first test work was going on and all express the highest gratification at the result.

WYOMING HORSE THEFT TAKEN.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 25.—Sheriff Webb and deputies have arrived at Casper with Tom O'Day. Friends of the prisoner lay in waiting for the posse, intending to deliver him, but were not successful. The succeeded, however, in getting away with the bunch of stolen horses found in O'Day's possession when he was arrested. O'Day is carefully guarded by a large posse of armed men on account of threats to lynch him, and also for fear his friends may try to rescue him.

INFANT WRITES GOOD MUSIC.

VERY ANNOYING

This Hardly Express What Astoria People Say of It.

Any itchiness of the skin is annoying. Little danger in itching skin diseases but they make you miserable. Doan's Ointment is a never-failing cure.

For piles, eczema and all itching troubles. Astoria citizens endorse it.

Mrs. Helen Lewis, who lives at 52 Astor street, says: "I consider Doan's Ointment the best remedy of its kind I ever used. Every winter for the past 10 or 12 years I was troubled with a breaking out around my mouth and lips. Sometimes the cracks at either corners of my lips were so sore I could hardly speak. I could look for this annoyance as soon as cold weather commenced, and it annoyed me until warm weather set in. Nothing I could do had any effect on it. I finally read about Doan's ointment and got a box at Charles Rogers' drug store on Commercial street. A few applications of this wonderful remedy cured it up completely and I have not had any trouble since. It is now over three months since I used it."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.
