

A CREDIT TO THE STATE

Oregon's Junior Senator's Maiden Speech Favorably Received in the Senate.

CLOSE ATTENTION WAS PAID

Makes Notable Appeal to Upper House for Suitable Recognition of Oregon Country.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The relation ship of the United States to the new republic of Panama continued to be the leading theme in the senate yesterday, but discussion was confined to one senator and was not so exciting as the day before.

Daniels, of Virginia, was the speaker and he advocated acceptance of Hoar's resolution calling on the president for more information relative to the November revolution in Panama.

Fulton made a speech in support of the bill to give aid to the proposed Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland in 1905. The senator reviewed briefly the historical events connected with the acquisition of the Oregon country and the growth of its industries to their present proportions. He said that while the Lewis and Clark expedition is primarily to commemorate a great historical fact yet it will not deal entirely with the past.

The United States has carried its boundaries far beyond the Pacific coast, and is now the greatest proprietor in the Pacific seas. The people of the Pacific coast states look forward to the time when the commerce of the Pacific will equal that of the Atlantic. With the isthmian canal soon to be completed and an increased trade developed in the orient, a great era of development is at hand.

It will be the function of this exposition to bring together many people and products of the orient, and of our country, and to benefit the entire nation. The government has appropriated many millions for expositions but never one dollar for one in the Pacific coast states. Our people do not complain of this and have always approved such appropriations. They now feel that with the beneficial objects and purposes of the Lewis and Clark exposition, the government would be justified in appropriating the amount asked for by the people of Oregon.

Senator Felton was listened to with close attention and evidently made a very favorable impression upon members upon both sides of the senate and at the close of his remarks was congratulated by many.

Suspected of Corbett Hold-Up.

James has been employed as watchman on the Kearney estate for several weeks. It is thought that Miner, an alleged confederate, is hiding in this vicinity.
