BLOCKADED

Every Household in Astoria Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blockaded.

Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Oregon.

T. W. Shankland, who is a street car conductor on the Woodstock street car line, residing at 710 Ellsworth St., Portland, says: "Some time last fall I began having considerable trouble and annoyance from a dull aching pain in the back over the kidneys. I think it was caused from the constant shaking and jarring of the car. I thought at first it would disappear quickly as it came, but this was not the case. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box and took them according to directions. The result was entirely satisfactory. The backache grew less and less and soon disappeared and as far as I can tell it has gone for good for there have been no symptoms of recurrence."

Plenty of similar proof in Astoria. Call at Charles Rogers, druggist for particulars.

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

CORBETT BESTS HANLON.

out to the body. Corbett struck low and was warned by the referee to be careful. They went to a clinch, Ed getting the better of it. They hung on and as the bell rang both landed rights to the jaw. Corbett was apparently willing to take a blow in order to land on his opponent.

Round 6—Corbett tried with a left for the head, but was blocked. Both men were doing considerable talking. Eddie stopped the talk with a succession of rights and lefts to the jaw and complained to the referee that Corbett was holding. Furious close fighting followed, Eddie doing the better work. Eddie landed left and right in this mix. Corbett continued to josh Eddie, fighting at the same time. When Corbett came up he commenced to swing, but was wild. Finally Eddie backed him against the ropes.

Round 7—Corbett began talking at once and Eddie put a left to the face. Corbett countered with a hard right to the ear. Both men gave a remarkable exhibition of blocking and protecting themselves. Graney once more cautioned Corbett for hitting low. Corbett got a good right to the head and two lefts to the ear. In a mix Corbett swung right and left to the head and evaded Eddie's attempts to counter. Corbett apparently anxious to mix it at all times. Hanlon went after him with right and left. Corbett put in several hard rights and lefts to the face with force enough to knock out an ordinary fighter, but Hanlon only smiled. Ed put in a terrific left to the body at the close of the round.

Round 9—After some mixups Corbett landed a hard left to Eddie's jaw. He tried right and left swings, but both were blocked. Another vicious right for the jaw was blocked. Finally Corbett slipped in getting a right to Hanlon's chin. Hanlon blocked a hard right for the face and then got inside with left and right swings for the body.

Round 10—Corbett missed a face uppercut and a moment later he sent a right uppercut to the chin and they hung to each other. They began talking to one another and Eddie waded in with right and lefts for head but was blocked. In a breakaway both exchanged rights and lefts to the face. Corbett planted a left to the face and followed with a right uppercut for the jaw. Eddie sent Corbett back with a right on the head that did no damage. The round was about even.

Round 11—Eddie was short with a left for the jaw. Eddie caught Corbett with a right swing to the jaw, followed with another to the same place. Ed got in two left jabs to the face. Corbett was leaning against Hanlon, coming up with a short left swing on Eddie's jaw. Eddie then got a right swing to the jaw. Corbett's right went around Eddie's neck, and he then staggered Ed with a left and right to the jaw. They were leaning shoulder to shoulder, both peppering away at the face and stomach, with Corbett apparently having the advantage. The blows that Corbett had landed on Hanlon's jaw would have finished the fight long ago with any boxer of mediocre quality.

Round 12—They rushed into a clinch. Both seemed fond of fighting. Corbett did not lose his head and fought back viciously. Corbett landed a hard right on the jaw for which Eddie returned a hard right to the ear and left to the face. Corbett received a terrific right uppercut on the stomach which made him look sick. He stalled and protected himself from further harm. Corbett appeared a bit tired at the end, with

Round 14—They assumed the same tactics. Corbett putting a right and left to the stomach. Hanlon fought back hard and landed two terrific swings to the jaw. He sent Corbett back with a right on the jaw, staggering the champion. Corbett fought back and landed some telling blows on Hanlon's body. Corbett sent Eddie to the floor with two lefts to the body. Corbett stood away, pegging jaw which downed him for nine seconds to the floor with two lefts to the rope. The gong apparently saved Hanlon from a knock-out. Hanlon still covered his face and body with his gloves and Corbett punished him as hard as he could. He refused to be knocked out, and when the gong rang, went to his corner with a grin.

Round 15—Corbett tried left to face at long range, but was short. He missed a hard right for the body. Eddie then sent a straight left to the face. Corbett jabbed with the left to the face, Hanlon being content to rest. Corbett was short with a right and Eddie blocked some hard lefts for the body. He caught Eddie with a right and left for the stomach and a right uppercut to the chin that sent Hanlon's head back. Corbett waded in and landed right and lefts hard to the jaw. Graney then asked Hanlon's seconds to take their charge out of the ring, but they refused. Hanlon was taking the most terrific beating with gameness seldom seen. He could not fight back effectually and could hardly protect himself.

Round 16—Corbett missed a hard right uppercut for the face, but a moment later sent Ed to the floor with a right and left to the jaw. Eddie took the count of nine and then clung to Corbett, the latter trying repeatedly to knock him out. Corbett sent a succession of rights and lefts to face. Corbett yelled to Hanlon's seconds to stop the contest, which they refused to do. Corbett then delivered an avalanche of blows on Eddie's jaw, sending him back against the ropes. The crowd yelled to the referee to stop the contest, as Hanlon was game to the core and refused to be knocked out. Graney then interfered and awarded the decision to Corbett.

After the fight Corbett went over to Hanlon and kissed him. Hanlon said, "You can lick them all." When Hanlon went to his corner he was seized with a severe fit of vomiting. Hanlon was then carried from the ring very weak, but conscious.
