New York, Jan. 1-Alfred Austin the poet laureate, in a New Year's oem, of some length entitled, "Moving Onward." published today in the London Times, says:

Years moving onward, onward. Whence and whither, and why? Age after age in the self same world, with the self same stars in the sky; The self same glory of light in heaven and light that is still on the way; Outlooking gaze of the damsel dawn and droop of declining day; All things always the same, unchanged unchangeable, all save we. Who come like clouds, like clouds dis-

SAYS MINE WAS SALTED.

Proposed Purchasers Bring Suit to Recover Payments.

San Francisco, Jan. 1 .- Robert J. Anderson, representing Eastern people, among them Frank S. Lewis, of the Reading railroad, and W. P. and E V. Douglas, of the Lake Superior Consolidated Company, is suing John F. Davis, of Amador, Cal., Edward A. Davis, his brother, and Frank Hall, of this city, to recover $250,000 paid defendants for the Sweepstake mine near Weaverville, and for compensation for expenditures on the property amounting to some hundreds of thousands of dollars. Anderson, the plaintiff alleges that the mine which he and his associates bought for $6,000,-600, payable in installments of $125,000 each, of which two have been paid, was "salted."

John F. Davis, one of the defendants, has represented Amador and other counties of California in the state senate, has been a superior judge your proudest achievements should be and is now code commissioner.
