

COLFAX CITIZENS DEMAND NEW CHIEF OF POLICE

Colfax, Wash., Jan. 25.—The moral sense of the community has never been so severely shocked as it is by the recent escapade in the Oxford saloon in this city. The people are up in arms and are demanding the removal of Chief of Police J. B. Mackay and Policeman Alphin for nonperformance of duty, and Mayor Van Schoek has called a special session of the city council to meet tonight to make investigations into the charges which have been preferred against the peace officers of Colfax.

There seems little question that the chief of police and Policeman Alphin will be removed, although saloon men and rouders have brought so much pressure to bear upon Alexander Kindness, the manager of the Oxford, that he has made an affidavit to the effect that he did not inform either Chief Mackay or Policeman Alphin, and denying that he ever told anyone that he had asked them to quiet the disturbance at the Oxford saloon. Chief Mackay and Policeman Alphin both said in the presence of witnesses that they had knowledge of the affair.

Charles Jacobson and Pat Burke were both arraigned in justice court yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to illegal cohabitation, and were bound over to the superior court. They are in jail unable to furnish $300 bonds, although ordinarily they could furnish a much larger guarantee. Young Jacobson's father has not been to the jail to see his son, and his mother is prostrated with grief.

You Can Be Cured.
No. 11 Cedar Terrace, Hoy Springs, Ark., April 25, 1903.
When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.
A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.
I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

You can be free from menstrual irregularities if you take this pure vegetable wine. Why don't you take it when you see what it has done for others? Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
