

DELLA IS IN PORT AGAIN

Hoodooed Gasoline Schooner Suffered No Damage by Stranding.

SHIFTED BUOY WAS TO BLAME

Master Used It for Guide and Piled Up His Vessel—Other Maritime Happenings of the Day.

The hoodooed gasoline schooner Della arrived in port late Monday night from Nestucca bay, and came up to the city yesterday morning. The Della recently went ashore while trying to get into the harbor a Nestucca. According to the statement of her master, the accident was due to the shifting of the buoy at the harbor entrance. The buoy had been transferred some distance south, with the result that the Della was piled up on a sand bar by using it as a guide.

The schooner laid on the bar for several days, but the weather continued mild and she suffered no damage. She was floated without much trouble and went on to Cloverdale, inside the harbor, where she discharged the freight for the Coverdale Mercantile Company. Then she took on a small quantity of dairy produce and left for Astoria, arriving without mishap. She is expected to depart again today for Nestucca.

Pears'

People have no idea how crude and cruel soap can be. It takes off dirt. So far, so good, but what else does it do.

It cuts the skin and frets the under-skin; makes redness and roughness and leads to worse. Not soap, but the alkali in it.

Pears' Soap has no free, alkali in it. It neither reddens nor roughens the skin. It responds to water instantly; washes and rinses off in a twinkling; is as gentle as strong; and the after-effect is every way good.

Established over 100 years.

Francisco. She took on at Astoria about 1000 bundles of shooks, a large quantity of oysters and other freight. The Oregon had but few passengers. She left her dock for the lower harbor during the day, but was not reported out yesterday.

Jews Not Allowed Freedom.

New York, Feb. 2.—Recently the governor ordered strict inquiries in regard to the domiciliary rights of Jews allowed to remain here after the expulsion in 1821, says a Times dispatch from Moscow. A number of families whose grandfathers during the fifties obtained the hereditary freedom of the city have been expelled. It came to light that persons by whom the freedom was obtained had taxes as members of the first guild for eight years only. According to a recent law the freedom of the city is not granted unless such taxes have been paid for 10 years.

Though her exact whereabouts are not developed, it is certain she is still a prisoner. A letter in London Saturday from the mother of Miss Maybrick, the Baroness de Roques, dated from her residence in France, January 28, said she had just returned to France after visiting her daughter at Aylesbury Prison. The Baroness add that she saw no possibility of her daughter's release "until the end of July, and all reports to the contrary are absolutely false."

Though the letter was written to a most intimate friend, no mention was made by the Baroness of any removal of her daughter from Aylesbury.

Lumber War Declared.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 2.—Washington state timbermen, headed by C. T. Moore, of Blaine, have ordered the machinery for four mills to be built at different provisional coast points. This will be the first time in British Columbia's history that mills will be established by American capitalists for the express purpose of cutting timber for Puget sound and Oregon sale.

The timber will be cut at the mills, loaded on scows, and taken to Ballard, where it will be dressed at the big planing mills owned by the syndicate. The promoters say that lumber can be cut cheaper here than on the sound, and even after paying the American duty it can compete successfully with the Washington product. The new product which is cut for export, is the main while is cut for export, is the main cause, however, of the erection of the mills.

TALKS ABOUT BAD BANDITS

Man Who Helped to Free Miss Ellen Stone Is Visiting in Tacoma.

OUTLAWS STILL GET TRIBUTE

Rev. H. J. House, of Missionary Board, Tells Facts Regarding Conditions in Bulgaria.

Tacoma, Feb. 2.—Rev. Henry J. House, a missionary of the American board of foreign missions, who has spent 31 years in Salonica and other Mohammedan countries of Turkish population in Asia Minor, is here with Rev. H. Melville Tenney, district secretary of the board for the Pacific coast. Dr. House was one of the committee that negotiated the famous treaty and ransom with Macedonian banditti for the person of Miss Ellen Stone and Mme. Tsilka. He was one of those who assisted in carrying the 14,500 pieces of gold to the fastnesses of the robbers and witnessed the payment of the money to the robber chief and the delivery of Miss Stone and her companion into the hands of W. W.

Peet, treasurer of the American board of foreign missions in Turkey.

Mr. House says that Americans scarcely comprehend the tremendous hold the bandits have in the countries where he has been stationed, or the firm hand with which they rule. In Turkey, Bulgaria and throughout Macedonia, the bandits openly defy the law today as they did in the time when nomadic tribes of Cets, Teutons and Slavs inundated eastern and middle Europe with rapine and outrage. Small villages, Mr. House says, pay tribute to the robber clans in return for immunity from pillage, and the Turkish civil and military authorities are powerless to save the peasantry from the grinding yoke.

What is far worse, Mr. House says, is the misrule and anarchy of government provided by the Turks. None of the reports of massacres, exorbitant taxation, village burning and the outraging of women and the galling serfdom of entire communities are exaggerated. He himself has witnessed terrible persecutions of the native Christians. Barbarities unheard of are visited by the fanatical Mohammedan soldiery upon the Christians, whom the Moslems regard as their legitimate prey, giving men, women and children short shift that come under their displeasure or whose possessions may arouse their cupidity.
